

The Tale of a Bee Want Ad

"This job I may have all right. But the outlook for me isn't bright. And I want a chance Where I can advance If this job had a future I might."

He finally made up his mind That he'd take work of most any kind, From his job he departed, And job hunting started, But he found work was real hard to find.

Said he, "I know what I will do, If the facts about WANT ADS are true, I won't give up the chase, A small WANT AD I'll place, And of good jobs I'll find quite a few."

And he did not have long to wait, With an employer soon had a date, Now here was his chance To quickly advance At a really remarkable rate.

He's now striving as hard as he can For he wants to make good with this man, He gets lots more pay, Want ads lead the way, So he's strong for the BEE WANT AD way.—L. V. SMITH.

WANT ADS

Want ads received at any time, but to insure proper classification must be presented before 11 o'clock noon for evening edition and 7:30 p. m. for morning and Sunday editions. Want ads received after such hours will be under the heading, "Too Late to Classify."

CASH RATES. Seven consecutive times, 1 cent a word each insertion. Two or more consecutive times, 1/2 cent a word. One time, 2 cents a word.

CHARGE RATES. Seven consecutive times, 5 cents a line each insertion. Three consecutive times, 10 cents a line each insertion. One time, 15 cents a line. Count six average words to a line. Minimum charge, 30 cents. An advertisement inserted to be run until discontinued must be stopped by written order. All claims for errors must be made within fifteen days after the last insertion of the advertisement.

You can place your want ads in The Bee by telephone. TELEPHONE TYLER 1000.
