

IMPROVERS TALK OVER NEW SCHOOL

Also Discuss the Need of Forming Themselves Into a Vigilance Committee.

PROTECTION FROM CRIMINALS

The Druid Hill Improvement club met Thursday evening in Druid Hill school. The old subject of a new school house was discussed and a committee, with J. H. Robertson as chairman, was appointed to devise means of furthering the improvement.

The formation of a vigilance committee was discussed, the members feeling that something should be done to render that part of the city safer from crime. The following chairmen of committees were appointed: F. B. Martin, streets, sewers and sidewalks; H. J. Matthews, lights; A. Moraine, fire protection; J. B. Niekerson, publicity; and F. B. Martin, social entertainment.

Denison Finds the Management of "Y" Building Some Job

With the increase of young men's Christian association membership to almost 2,700, and the use of the association building for all sorts of purposes by various organizations, General Secretary E. F. Denison is as busy as a hotel man during carnival week, trying to find room in the building for all the meetings and activities.

The building is so crowded that some of the office desks are now in the main lobby, and some of the rooms are frequently used in one evening for a supper, an educational class and some other sort of meeting in rapid succession.

Workers who made high scores in the association membership contest last week will enjoy a dinner Saturday night. About forty, who scored 75 points or more each, will attend.

All new members will be the guests of the association a week from this Saturday evening at a get-together social at the building.

Five-Year-Old Lad Lost and Parents Cannot Be Found

Julius, aged 5 years, is lost. He has been away from his home for two days and no inquiries for him have been received by the juvenile authorities of police. He has been taken to Riverview home.

The lad is wearing blue overalls, a blue chinchilla overcoat, a cap and shoes much too large for his feet. He is unable to give an intelligible account of where he came from.

Huggins Surely is One Patient Person

If there is any man in the world harder to pitch to than Miller Huggins, the average National league twirler hasn't yet lapped the individual.

One day when Huggins was battling against Vic Willis, then with the Pirates, the Rabbit fouled off twelve consecutive balls. Vic was an easy-going cuss, but he became highly incensed and yelled to the umpire:

"Get a batter. I'm tired of throwing ball to a bunch of nothing like that guy up there now."

Former Residents of China to Talk

J. M. Clinton, who for years was prominent in the councils of the revolutionary party during the period of the birth of the Chinese republic, and George A. Pritch, a native of Soochow, China, son of a Presbyterian missionary, will address a men's meeting at the Young Men's Christian association Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Conditions in China will be discussed by the speakers.

BRIDGE PATENTS HIT IN FEDERAL DECISION

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 19.—The so-called cement bridge trust was dealt a severe blow today when Judge R. E. Lewis in the federal court handed down a decision against Daniel Luten, representing the National Bridge company, in a case of alleged patent infringement, in which George Washburn and Weld county, Colorado, were defendants. Attorneys for the company held that it was practically impossible to construct a reinforced concrete bridge without infringing upon patents of the company.

The case involved payment of royalty or commissions upon practically every cement bridge built in the United States. Similar suits have been started by Luten, it is said, in Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska.

Luten will take the case to the United States circuit court of appeals, it was announced.

KNIGHTS OF ST. PAUL TO MEET SUNDAY NIGHT

AMES STUDENTS GET TRIP AS A REWARD FOR STUDY

The party will travel in two sleeping cars arriving over the Northwestern at 5:30 in the afternoon and remaining until 4:30 o'clock, when over the Burlington they will leave for the west. The Ames men will return the morning of December 5.

Kansas Officials Willing to Give the Ape-Man to Omaha

There appears to be some uncertainty as to whether or not there should be anything in the way of Arthur Hauser being taken over by the Omaha authorities. City, county and state officials of Kansas and Wichita are quoted as being willing to turn the prisoner over to Omaha. The following is an account of the situation appearing in one of the Wichita newspapers:

Who is holding up the sending of Art Hauser to Omaha to be tried there on a murder charge? The county officials say they are willing to let Omaha have him and the city officials say likewise. Yet, Hauser remains in the county jail. Governor Capper has stated that he will honor extradition papers if Wichita and Topeka authorities are willing to waive their rights. The Shawnee county sheriff is reported to have said that his county will waive whatever claim it has. County Attorney Ross McCormick, Sheriff Frank Sarver and Chief of Police Jack Hay have said they are willing that Hauser be extradited. Mrs. J. C. Wheeler, complaining witness in the charge on which Hauser was arrested, says she is willing that he be taken to Omaha, where, if convicted, execution would follow. Mrs. Hauser, mother of the man, called at the county jail Tuesday to see her son, but failed in her efforts. Mrs. Sarver, wife of the sheriff, was not home and therefore she couldn't be searched. Sheriff Sarver stated Tuesday night that Mrs. Hauser would be permitted to see her son when she wanted to.

A. G. KNAPP, PIONEER OF THIS CITY, DEAD

Alexander G. Knapp, 75 years of age, died Thursday at 180 Locust street, following an illness of two years. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at the North Side Presbyterian church. The Masonic fraternity will have charge of the funeral. He lived twenty-seven years in this city, formerly being a resident on a farm near Council Bluffs. He was the first man to introduce baled hay on the Omaha market. Besides Mrs. Knapp the following children survive: E. A. and W. C. Knapp and Mrs. A. E. Patton of this city, William and Arthur Knapp of Kansas City and Mrs. C. S. Shumaker of Washington, Neb.

TENANTS LOSE LA" SUIT AGAINST BOARD OF TRADE

The Board of Trade Building company has won the first law suit tried in district court in which tenants of its building, which was gutted by fire, attempted to recover damages for alleged failure to carry out the terms of their lease. A jury in Judge Brown's district court brought in a verdict for the defendants in the case in which Aaron, Incorporated, a jewelry firm, was plaintiff. The Board of Trade building was razed following the fire, and to this action several tenants who had unexpired leases objected.

Old Master Frauds Exposed in Berlin

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) MUNICH, Germany, Nov. 18.—A remarkable "old master factory" containing dozens of excellent copies of paintings of famous artists, especially of popular German painters, has just been uncovered in a private house in the Nymphenburgerstrasse here. A Swiss art lover, intent on purchasing a number of pictures, is responsible for exposing the fraud, which, however, was so good that he himself was nearly taken in.

The Swiss had advertised for paintings by German artists, and was approached by a Frau Lehmann, who conducted him to her home and displayed a great variety of Hodlers, Lenbachs, Diets, Defreggers and von Kellers, as well as works purporting to be by Otto Seltz, Mathias Schmidt and others. Not one of the pictures but seemed genuine. Before purchasing, the Swiss asked for advice at the Pinakothek and other galleries. He had no suspicions, but was merely cautious. Unable to secure any reliable information, he returned to the Nymphenburgerstrasse, where he noticed for the first time an apparently wonderful Defregger painting of a boy. He offered to buy it on the spot, but Frau Lehmann declined to sell it, alleging that it was a painting of her son by the famous artist. The Swiss collector had reason to know that this could not be true, and notified the police. The latter raided the house and found a veritable storehouse of paintings, every one of them a fraud. Frau Lehmann, with her husband and son, fled in the meantime.

HUGE TASK TO EVACUATE GREAT CITIES OF RUSSIA

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) PETROGRAD, Nov. 8.—The evacuation of the large cities that Russia has abandoned to the Germans is a task the immensity of which may be judged from figures now available concerning the partial evacuation of Riga. The population of Riga has not been seriously disturbed, the city having about as many inhabitants as at the beginning of the war, since many refugees have gathered there from the Baltic districts occupied by the Germans, but 400 factories, of which eighty belong to German subjects, have been transported to interior provinces. During the evacuation period from 100 to 300 loaded cars were dispatched daily, and in all 24,000 carloads of machinery, metals and raw materials were shipped out of Riga. The work continued for two months.
