

OMAHA MEN VISIT

His Views on Wrestling and Boxing.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19 .- (Special.) - Breaking in on a fine nap he was having yesferday in his room at the Morrison hotel several "spies" from Omaha created the first riffle of anger that Yussiff Hussane. the Turk, who is matched to meet Joe Stecher in Lincoln Thanksgiving afternoon, has shown since he came to Chi-cago to finish up his training.

Hussane's training partner. Karl Schultz, brought the Omaha men into Hussane's room, inhoncently enough, because they said they wanted to see the Turk. They were introduced to the man from the Balkan mountains and when he found out they were from Omaha and merely wanted to find out what condition he was in, the Turk was furious.

"You bet, I'm good, right now," he roared at them, as he spread his bathrobe open and gave them a flash at his shape. bet on your man, and I'll bet you lose your money; that's all I got to

The reception was so peppery that the sen from the west-at least they said were-didn't linger long. Hussane made a mild break in his raining one night to go up to Milwaukee to see Andre Anderson, who has been running on the road with h'm, fight Fred Pulton. Andre got licked and this broke the Turk all up.

Does Not Train Right. He no can train the right way." the Turk said on the way back from the arena. "He train like most American and foreign wrestlers. He get fat and stay fat stand some punishment.

While he admits that he is a trifle too old just now-he's 27-he attil has a strong fearing towards the glove game. He has been around a good deal with Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman and vetrean trial horse, and has done considerable boxing with him. Here are few ideas that the Turk gave me as matter of comparison between the wrestling and the boxing game:

When I am in condition for a hard match on the wrestling mat I could go dong for four or five hours and at the end feel pretty fresh and not as tired

"But when I try the boxing game-ah. that's entirely different. I've gone on boxed with Flynn saveral times. though I considered myself in fine ! shape physically, strong and well all ever, I tire as quickly as if I never had done a minute's work to fit myself.

Boxing is Different. "Why, at the end of a couple of rounds of feinting and jabbing and some fast front of my face. It's the queerest

"It must be that the nervous strain in boxing is much greater than it is in prestling. #### Both SQUADS LACK TEAM-WORK

In a game that showed a great lack of teamwork on either side, Sloux City High defeated Central High at Rourke park Friday afternoon by the score of 7 to 0. Omaha had numerous chances to push over a touchdown, but through misplays or fumbles threw them away. Toward the close of the third quarter the locals woke up and dashed down the field fifty yards on two beautifully executed forward passes. With the ball on the elevenyard line Omaha then lost the ball on downs, due to three successive misplays, each one of them counting for a loss. Montgomery proved the star performer for the visitors, while Smith, Grove and Nichols played a star game for Omaha.

Grove at irght tackle stopped every play sent through his position, and on the of-fensive acquitted himself equally as well, making good gains on tackle-back arfit tackle-around plays. Smith at end stopped all plays sent around his end and never failed to gain when given the ball. Nickol ran the team most of the game, taking the place of Neville, who did not start the game on account of an injury which he sustained in the Lincoln game He showed generalship all through the
