DEMOCRATS SPLIT ON CLOTURE RULE

Senate Caucus is Unable to Agree and Rules Committee Will Submit Another Proposition.

STEERING COMMITTEE IS NAMED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 .- Democrats of the senate in caucus today rule to provide for cloture of debate, | cent postponing action until tomorrow. The special rules committee was not ready to make any definite recommendation, but will endeavor to submit a proposal tomorrow

The caucus also deferred election of a president pro tempore. That will be taken up Friday. Senator Kern, chairman of the conference, said the election was deferred by common consent, with a view to assuring barmony in the conference.

Several senators have opposed the reelection of Senator Clarke of Arkansas and have sought to induce Senator Pomerens of Ohio to be a candidate.

Senator Chilton of Wes' Virginia was elected vice chairman of the conference and Senator Lewis of Illmots was reelected as party whip. On the steering committee Senator Kern named Senators Martin, Owen, Chamberlain, Thomas, O'Gorman, Williams, James and Reed. Senators Luke Lea (Tennessee), Hoke Smith (Georgia) and Clarke (Arkansas) retire from the committee. The new com mittee will make up committee assign ents for the new senate.

Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee, it was learned, has proposed that his committee be enlarged so that Senator Underwood of Alabama. rmer majority leader of the house, may be given a place on the committee.

Wants More Steamboat Inspectors. The Department of Commerce will urge an amendment to the present steamboat instead of ten, the additional inspector to be located at Seattle and have jurisdlotion over Seattle, Portland and St. Michael and Juneau, Alaska, it was announced today. This would curtail the district of the San Francisco inspectors.

steamship regulation to be recommended as the result of the Eastland disaster at Chicago. Another proposal will provide that the supervising inspector of a district must approve in writing any increase in the passenger or freight capacity of a vessel, and also would provide for an appeal from rulings of the board of local inspectors.

Safety at Sea Board. The Department of Commerce will urge the creation of a board of three civilian naval architects to insure safety at sea, it was announced today following the report of the special board that investiguted the Eastland disaster at Chicago. The members would be appointed by the president. The decision of two of the

DR. BUENZ SENDS PAPERS TO EMBASSY

Hamburg Line Agent Says Documents Regarding Coaling Ships in Code and Beyond Reach.

NOT ALLOWED TO TELL OF THEM

NEW YORK, Dec. 1 .- The abstract of the Hamburg-American line's agreement with the German government, whereby the former agreed to supply German cruisers at sea with coal and supplies in neutral ships sailing from American ports early in the war, has passed into the keeping of the German embassy at Washington.

Dr. Karl Buenz, managing director of the line, so testified today in his trial-and that of three other line officials and employes-on charges of conspiracy, now nearing its close In the United States district court

Not only has the abstract of this agreement been given to the embassy for safe keeping, Dr. Buenz testified, but all correspondence on the subject by letter The cablegrams, it was said, were in thought there was danger of their becoming public through this trial, and thus dence was voiced before a representa- France and Russia the key to the Ger-

The government strenuously objected to Dr. Buens' testimony concerning the abstract of the agreement and the cabletrade union leaders to use their influ- grams relating to the dispatch of relief ships. Roger B. Wood, United States assistant district attorney, contended that the documents themselves were available and that they should be brought into the court room. In this he was upheld by Judge Howe and Buenz was not permitted to tell of their contents.

Offers to Produce Translations. William Rand, jr., counsel for the defense, sought to have the contents of the documents placed before the jury as Dr. Buenz remembered them.

"We are willing to show you the translations," Mr. Rand said. "We cannot show you the originals. In the first place, we couldn't get them from the living, I venture to say the wage earners German embassy if we wanted to. They are safe and fast in Germany's keeping. "In the second place we maintain that the government of the United States is not interested in the German secret code. If they were brought here they would become public property. The German code would become known to England, France, Russia-to all of Germany's enemies."

Boy-Ed Came In Frequently. Dr. Buenz testified that he arranged for the shipment of coal and supplies. chartered various neutral ships through John H. Gans and spent altogether $1,-500,000 in trying to accomplish his object. This money was repaid by the home office in Hamburg.

Denies False Manifesta. Dr. Buens concluded his direct test. mony by asserting that he had never heard of the steamer Marina Quesada, which sailed December 16, 1914, from Newport News, Va., to supply German crulaers, the government charges; that he had not tried to obtain false manifests, and that nothing was further from his thoughts than to deceive or defraud port collectors of the United States government.

On cross-examination, Dr. Buenz testified that it was his intention to have relief ships proceed empty to their destinations named in the clearances, after they had transferred their supplies at sea. "What did you consider your obligation to the United States?" asked Mr.

Wood. 'I didn't give it much thought, I re garded the United States as a friendly power and I didn't want to break its laws."

Amabassador Page Instructed to Act Vigorously in Cases of Vessels Held at Halifax and St. Lucia.

FACTS NOT ALTOGETHER CLEAR

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 .- The State department has instructed Ambassador Page at London to inquire of the British government whether two vessels of the American Transatlantic company, seized while flying American flag, were to be revealing to representatives of England, requisitioned without the formality of prize court proceedings.

The ambassador was directed to file i igorous protest against such a measure should he receive an affirmative answer. The department acted upon information from Richard Wagner, president of the company, who telegraphed he had been advised by the captains of the steamers Hocking, detained at Halifax, and Genece, detained at St. Lucia, that attorneys for the British government were to make moves today looking toward the requisit'on of the vessels. State department officials said if these facts were confirmed everything would he done to prevent such action. Several steamers of the American Transatlantic company have been seized by the British on the ground that they were suspected of being German owned
