Wonderful,

is what I sople say after seeing and tasting the soft shell pecans grown at Ocean Springs, Miss. It is wonderful, not only because you have never seen such nuts before, but because they are not grown to such perfection elsewhere. This is a broad assertion to make, but it can easily be proven. OCEAN SPRINGS with its mild and equitable climate, splendid artesian water, rich soil and extreme healthfulness, makes it not only a good place to live, but one in which to make a living.

PECAN GROWING is the most profitable and most cer-tain industry known to soil cultiva-tion. The trees live for hundreds of years and increase in value with age, giving you an assured income for life, regardless of industrial depression, and leaving an inheritance for your fam-ily far better and greater than you could provide for them by any other means.

monthly payments by which you can secure a 5 or 10-acre pecan orchard, which will do this for you, is an opportunity which you should not and cannot afford to pass by without giving it your serious thought and investigation.

ASK about it today. We will gladly afford you all assistance for investigation and inquiry into this matchless op-portunity.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—Wheat prices broke rapidly today after the government's crop figures were posted. The close was unsettled but %c to 1%c lower, with December at $1.18%, and May at $1.17%@1.18.

Corn finished %c to 1%c down, and oats %c to ½c. In provisions the estcome varied from the same as yesterday's close to 3%c declines.

Notwithstanding that the crop report from Washington showed a decided reduction in the acreage of winter wheat as compared with what had been seeded, the trade appeared to be chiefly impressed with the fact that another bumper yield was in prospect. As a result bears pressed the selling with much more confidence and there was a great deal of unloading by speculative helders. Settlement of the Beit Line railway strike here had given at the start considerable advantage to the bears in wheat, but temporarily the market responded to higher quotations at Liverpool and to fear that the switchmen's dispute with a number of railroads here might cut down receipts at some critical juncture. Toward the end of the day the construction placed on the United States government crop report appeared to nullify all other factors. Heavy profit taking sales pulled down corn after the market at the outset had touched the highest prices yet this scason.

Oats weakened in sympathy with corn.

Oats weakened in sympathy with corn. Cats weakened in sympathy with corn. Frovisions underwent a material sag in all the active options. Lower prices on hogs were responsible. Packers fed the market carefully and filled up all buyers. Five of these meetings were scheduled for noon, following group tuncheons at the clubrooms. But after failing to secure a quorum for any of them, Commissioner Maniey had to postpone all.

When notified by telephone of the intended meetings, most of the members replied that they were too busy to spend even an hour for luncheon outside their offices or stores, let alone attending any meetings afterward.

There were no new developments as regards refers the market for the most

There were no new developments as regards prices, the market for the most part teing just about steady with year terday on practically all kinds. The trade was a little slow, largely due to there being nothing very good, or not enough of any one kind to interest buyers. Fretty much everything changed hands in good season.

HOGS—Chicago reported a big run, and early messages said that a logistic break in prices was probable Local shippers and some of the packers made their opening bids at fully steady prices, and in spite of the bearishness of advices from other markets it was not long before hogs were moving at prices that were fully for higher than yesterday's average. In fact come traders thought that at the cest time trade was 5000c above yesterday's general market.

Toward the close some of the life died out of the market and prices weakened. What heavy hogs were left at this time die not suffer so much as the lights, trade or arrived on late trains. Even on trade or arrived on late trains. Even on the light kinds prices looked mostly steady with yesterday, so that the worst that could be said about the close was that the early advance was lost and late sales

Taking it all the way through the mar-ies was about 5c higher than yesterday's average. Bulk of the sales was made at $6.305c.40, with a sprinkling around $6.45 at a top of $6.50. Quite a bit of light stuff, sold around $6.55, with scattering sales of under-weights on down.

BRADSTREET'S TRADE REVIEW Sustained Activity in Majority of Lines.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.-Bradstreet's to-NEW YORK. Dec. 17.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Sustained activity in a majority of lines with prospects of still greater growth typify current trade and industrial conditions. Contrary to precedent the larger trades do not display the customary preholiday characteristics that usually preholiday can be actively as been a full in some sections, but by and large activity is so steadily maintained that salesmen are remaining on the road longer; than usual at this season and most reports agree that wholeasle as well as jobbing trade is of large volume. In addition, Christmas shopping is in full swing, buying at many centers is the heaviest in years, regular retail trade in heavy wearing apparel is excellent; mail order houses are doing a record business; buy ng for future delivery is good; industrial activity is a specially noteworthy, labor is well employed at good; industrial activity is e specially noteworthy, labor is well employed at good; industrial activity is excellent; mail order houses are good; bank clearings beavily exceed those of this time in 1913; money is in better demand, and railway traffic is heavy.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

Again Under Spell of Depression f r Greater Part of Session.

IS NO CONCERTED SELLING

NEW YORK, Dec. i7.—The market was gain under the spell of depression for the greater part of today's session, argely if not wholly in consequence of the international situation. There was a concerted selling such as characterized the international situation. There was no concerted selling such as characterized esterday's late operations, but prices arited almiessiy from sheer inertia. Assrossive tactics were temporarily ibandoned by the hears and such constructive forces as may have existed were teid in restraint, pending a more definite moviedge of the outcome of relations between Washington and Vienna.

Exchange on leading European centers was more than ordinarily conflicting, confittances to Germany receded to within a fraction of the recent low rate, while sterling and frances shaded slightly. Irregular price changes were registered a the first hour, war issues and oils resvering one to three points over yeaerday's final figures, while rails moved imost without definite trend. Later the atter group became moderately heavy, amadian Facilic, Eries and Chesapeake. Ohio being most conspicuous. In the inal hour the list hardened in almost il quarters, with particular strength in merican Smelting, Texas company and onsolidated Gas. These changes were in a great measure to short covering, ecompanied by rumors of a more enuraging character regarding the Amona incident. Total sales of stocks mounted to 50,000 shares.

The evernment crop report showed some slight deterioration of winter wheat and other cereais, compared with the preceding statement, together with a de-some slight deterioration of winter wheat and other cereals, compared with the preceding statement, together with a de-crease of acreage. No response to this showing was made by the granger group, raim, that entire division being un-aually quiescent. Anglo-French 5s were more active, anging between 34% and 35. Bonds in general were lower and inactive. Total ales, par value, aggregated 34,140,000. United States bonds were unchanged on all.

Thirteen-Year-Old Runs Away to Seek Fame and Fortune

Franklin Carroll, 18-year-old son of Mrs. Leona Hall Carroll of Pueblo, Colo., is believed to be somewhere in Omaha seeking to "make big money in bowling alleys," as advertised in numerous publications. Police Officer Bitters, a boynood friend of the lad's mother, is searching for him at the latter's request. He has been missing from his home for two months, and it was learned by Bitters that he stopped for a time at the local Young Men's Christian association.

Butler Has Another Idea on Wrestling

City Commissioner Butler has filed with the city clerk the following resolution which will be offered to the city council next Tuesday morning: That no wrestling or boxing match be allowed in the Auditorium of the city of Omaha without the promoters, managers or backers of the wrestlers or boxin said building, first filling with the city clerk, a certificate from a regularly licenser physician of the city of Omaha, stating that he has examined said wrestlers or boxers and that they are in good condition, and physically able to take part in said wrestling or boxing match.
