PRESIDENT AND

MARRY IN OFFICE

John Tyler and Grover Cleveland Other Two Executives to Take Brides During Incumbency.

HISTORY OF THE COURTSHIP his hour glass and sickle.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 .- Woodrow Wilson is the third president to be married during his term of office. President Tyler was the first and President Cleveland was the other, Mr. Tyler, like Mr. Wilson, was left a widower during his term. York City, he was married to Miss Julia Gardner, who then presided at of office.

Grover Cleveland's marriage to Miss Frances Folsom took place in the Blue room of the executive mansion. It was comparatively a private affair, for the invited guests included only the cabinet members, their wives and a few friends and relatives of the couple,

President Wilson's wedding is the third in his fam'ly since he took office. The first White House wedding of his term was that of his second adughter, Jessie Woodrow Wison, to Francis Bowes Sayre and the other was that of his youngest daughter, Eleanor, to Secretary McAdoo. The president now has two grandchildren, the little son of the Sayres and the baby daughter of the Virginians by birth. He was born at Staunton fifty-nine years ago this month and she was born at Wytheville, the daughter of Judge and Mrs. William H. Bolling, and was one child in a large Two sisters, Mrs. Alexander H. Galt and Miss Bertha Bolling and three brothers, John Randolph,, Richard Wilmer and Julian B. Boiling, live in Washington. Rolfe E. Bolling, another brother, is manager of the Commercial hank at Panama and another, Dr. William E. Belling, lives in Louisville, Ky, A third sister, Mrs. M. H. Maury, lives in Anniston, Ala. The bride's family has been prominent in the history of Virginia and she herself is a descendant of Pocahontas, the Indian chief's daughter who married John Rolfe. Since 1896 Mrs. Galt has lived in Wash ington, belonging to none of the distinct social sets, but active in charity and philanthropy in her own ways. From her first husband she inherited control of a us mercantile business, of which she has been accredited with now being the active head and many tributes are paid to her ability. But activity in busiess, her friends say, never has diminished her interest in a woman's world. She loves flowers, books and outdoor recreations. After the president's courtsip began she took up golf and on many Saturday afternoons they were seen tocountry clubs about the capital, or at other times taking long motor drives over the Virginia hills or along the shore roads in lower Maryland. Often they took on their journeys and ate by the road- has been disappointed. The city churches

Engagement Announced October 6, Mins Margaret Wilson, the president's cidest daughter, and Miss Helen Wood-row Bones, his cousin, are said to have drawn her into the White House circle in the early autumn of 1914. From that time she has been a frequent guest at the executive mansion and last summer spent a month as the guest of Margaret wilson at the summer White House at Cornish, N. H. The engagement was announced October 6, not long after the presidential party returned to Washington for the winter.

Both the president and his bride agreed not to have their wedding in the White House, but in her home near Dupont Circle, which sometimes is called the social hub of the capital. She lives there in a tastefully arranged house, somewhat small by comparison with the mansions which surround it. It is not large enough for entertaining on an extended scale and for that reason a large company was not invited to the wedding. pany was not invited to the wedding. Mr. McAdoo, the president's son-in-law, was the only member of the cabinet in-cluded in the party. The rest were all

The repeatedly expressed wish of the couple for a quiet wedding unattended by any great amount of publicity is responsible for the general tack of common knowledge of so many of the details which attend such a ceremony. No public announcements have been made of the gifts reterived and likewise there has been no announcement of the govern and been no announcement of the gowns and decorations. New York dressmakers have been frequently during the last few weeks at the White House and at the bride's home and she has made two shopping trips out of the city to complete her trousseau.

River Boosters Elated Over the Latest Report

"Missouri river freighting by barge lines will be greatly stimulated as the result of the War department's recommendaof the War department's recommenda-tion to congress that the project for a siz-foot channel be postinued," says Commissioner Robert Manley of the Omaha Commercial club. The War department's recommendation was made to congress Priday, in spite of the adverse report of Lieutenant Colonel Herbert Deakyne, the engineer of the war bureau in charge of the Missouri victory for the Omaha and Kansas City victory for the Omaha and Kansas City dver shipping interests, who have worked hard for some time in opposition to Deakyne's adverse view.

"Now that it is evident that the government engineers look with favor on Missouri river development between Kansas City and St. Louis, more capital will be invested in freight barge enterprises on the river," declares Commissioner Manley. "The future probability of channel development in the Missouri above Hannas City also appears brighter, which is of more immediate interest to Omaha shippers."
