PRESIDENT OF GEORGE A. CUS-TER CORPS, W. R. C.

Lucien Muratore and Charles Maguenat of the Chicago Opera company have been gaining much fame in that city on account of their remarkable enunciation In speakig of this with Eric Delamarter, the musical editor of the Chicago Tribune, Mr. Maguenat refused either to consider this fact extraordinary or its explanation an abstruse problem.

"It's the simplest thing in the world," sald he the other night, "you sing as you speak, and as if you were speaking to some one at a distance-not loudly, but painstakingly. There isn't any special trick. The vowels you sustain, and the consonants give them their character. That's all. I haven't any recollection of a particular system of enunciation. studied under excellent teachers, and they asw to it that the text and the tone were equally pure and clear. I doubt whether it would be possible to produce a bad tone, anyway, on a correctly enunciated word."

Which remarks, by the way, might give food for thought to many an aspir-

P YOU ARE USING an old-style, cumbersome, oil mop, it will pay you to throw it away—even if you just recently have bought it—when you can get a Polly Prim Mop free with the purchase of a full quart (32 oz.) can of Polly Prim Polish, at the regular retail price, $1. The regular retail price of the Polly Prim Mop is $1.25, and it is worth every cent of it. It is the lightest mop made. It will not tire you to use it.

Polly Prim Mop, notwithstanding its lightness, has an extra large sweeping surface, and yet the holding device is so small and compact you can get into every nook and corner of a room, under beds, bureaus, bookcases, stoves, radiators—anywhere you can put the human hand. A Polly Prim Mop is made of metal, handsomely nickel plated, with enameled handle. It is strong and durable; nothing to crack or break; mop strands cannot come out. It is easy to clean; just remove handle and throw the mop into boiling water. The Polly Prim Mop may be replenished without soiling the hands; merely pour a little polish into the reservoir and it will be evenly distributed throughout the strands in the mop, assuring perfect saturation. No other mop has this advantage. This even distribution and perfect saturation is the reason why a Polly Prim Mop does not streak or smear. You never need go over your varnished floors with a dry mop after using a Polly Prim. Can you afford to use an old-style mop when you can get a Polly Prim free with a dollar can of Polly Prim Pollsh?
