CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.-Wheat developed strength today, largely as a result of as-sertions that Great Britain and France were taking radical measures to provide wore can freight room for grain. Cloa-ing prices, although nervous, were 1% of to 1% 20% on the higher, with December at $1.17% and May at $1.19%, The finish in corn was irregular, % off to % oup, and for oats was at % 20% of to % oup, and for oats was at % 20% of to % oup, and for oats was at % 20% of to % oup, and for oats was at % 20% of to % oup, and for oats was at % 20% of to % oup, and for oats was at % 20% of to % oup, and for oats was at % 20% of to % oup, and for oats was at % 20% of to % oup, and for oats was at % 20% of to % oup, and for oats was at % 20% of the % of the supply total % on Monday led at one time to a moderate setback for wheat prices, but the effect was not of the lasting sort. The amount of the enlargement appeared to depend chiefly on whether or not account was taken of Buffalo stocks afloat. Cold weather had a bearish influence on corn.  HOGS-Trade opened out in good shape and the big end of the supply moved early at prices that were a big nickel, and in many cases 5600c higher than yesterday's average. Both shippers and packers apparently wanted everything in sight, and a good share of the offerings in alter.
 Towards the close howaver prices

after. Towards the close, however, prices weakened off. The early life died out of the market and it was impossible to get prices that were better than steady with yesterday's general market, while sellers who had light hogs found that steady hids were scarce, and in most instances had to accept prices that were weak to a nickel lower. As was the case yesterday, the systeme close was the lowest spot nickel lower. As was the case yesterday, the extreme close was the lowest spot. Several loads of light hogs, as well as some butcher weights, were still unsold at a rather late hour. What bids were put out at this time looked a nickel or more below yesterday, and even then packers did not seem at all anxious to ret the hogs.

packers did not seem at all anxious to get the hogs. The big end of the hogs moved at a strong nickel advance, while the close was slow and a nickel or more lower than yesterday's average, clearance not being very satisfactory at that. Most of the early sales landed at 56.4626.45, with a sprinkling at $6.55, and quite a few of the later ones dropped to $6.25, with some below that. A number of loads sold as high as $6.50, the day's top. Prices paid for the bulk of the hogs today were anyway 10000 higher than last Saturday, although some of the light hogs looked little if any higher than at last week's close. It has been a very uneven week all around, for while heavles were consistently wanted, lights were uneven week all around, for while heavies were consistently wanted, lights were variable, selling right up in the bulk one day, only to be almost unsaiable the next. On the whole, it is not safe to ex-pect very much from the light stuff, as it is pretty sure to be plentiful right along. So far, good light hozs have sold as well as could be desired, but anything that isn't good is overlooked. Representative sales: No. Av Sh Pr. No. Av Sh Pr
