We Wish You All a Merry Christmas

While most of the world is in the shadow of a mighty conflictwe, far from those bullet-swept battlefields of Europe, far from the scenes of desolation and ruin, far from those millions of saddened homes where permanent separations bring an avalanche of loneliness -we as a nation have cause to be happy in this season of happiness and good cheer.

In our country the extent of communication is not marked by border lines or limited service. In the United States we have 64 per cent of all the telephones in the world; and we rejoice that here the human voice can travel many times farther than anywhere else on this big globe of ours-that electrical waves can speed from corner to corner of this broad land and bring us voice to voice no matter where

On this Christmas Day, as the spirit of good cheer flashes over the wires uniting the 39,960 Bell Telephones in Omaha or reaching out to any one of the millions of Bell Telephones in the nation, we shall be doing all we can to give quick, dependable and courteous service.

This year has been a pleasant one for us, and we hope it has been for you. To you we extend the old, old wish, a Merry Christmas.
