

OMAHA NEIGHBORS WIN THE BEE DOLLS

Council Bluffs Wins Two of the Dolls and a South Side Girl Wins One.

ANOTHER DOLL THIS WEEK

This was Council Bluffs week in The Bee doll contest. The little girls over there just decided that Omaha mustn't have all the pretty dolls. So they got busy this week and won two dolls. One other doll went to South Side and the other two to Omaha girls. The big doll, "Lillian" was won by E. Canuso, 1023 South Twenty-third street, Omaha, with 764 pictures when she got it on Christmas eve. Little Jeanette McDonald won "Edna" and "Edna" came into Jeanette's home at 1311 Fourth avenue, Council Bluffs, like a ray of sunshine because Jeanette is sick and her papa is sick too and if it hadn't been for a kind lady that gathered pictures for her she might not have had any doll at all for Christmas. She had 215 pictures.

"Ida" went to Rose Paason, 2456 Avenue G, Council Bluffs. Little Rose hasn't been in this country very long and can't speak English. But she could collect pictures and she got 156 and she was just as happy when she came in with her mother for the doll.

Helen Goes to South Side. Theresa Lichonovsky, Twenty-second street, South Side won "Helen" with 110 pictures and Gladys Stover, care of J. A. McCarty, 1622 South Tenth street, won the dolly nicknamed "Robby." Five happy little girls for Christmas with lovely dolls that they earned themselves. That's pretty good for Christmas week. Now for another beautiful doll. "Florence" will be given away next week. Her picture will be in The Bee, morning and evening, every day next week, starting with Sunday's paper. "Florence" is twenty-four inches high, beautifully dressed, opens and shuts her eyes and is just as lovely as can be. She will go to the little girl under 12 years old who collects the most pictures of her from The Bee and brings or sends them to the office before 4 o'clock next Friday afternoon.

Get as many of your friends as you can to save the pictures for you. You can win "Florence" if you try. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. Get a 2c bottle today, keep it for your cough or cold. Good for children, adult and aged. All druggists.—Advertisement.

ECHOES OF THE ANTE-ROOM

Activity Displayed by W. O. W., a New Camp Having Been Established at Florence.

CHRISTMAS OBSERVED BY ALPHA

Florence camp No. 28, Woodmen of the World, will meet next Thursday evening at the city hall, Florence, for work. This new camp will in a short time take its place with the widespread and progressive camps in the city.

Druid camp No. 24 will meet Monday evening for initiation of candidates. The Protection degree will be exemplified in full form by the officers and drill team and with the elaborate robes used make the degree one of the most spectacular in Woodcraft. A large delegation with candidates from Florence camp will attend as guests.

South Omaha camp No. 211 will meet for work Wednesday evening. It has leased a new hall at Twenty-fifth and M streets, which is large and commodious and adapted in every way for drill team initiation. The meeting will be a celebration of the camp's success. The Christmas entertainment given by Alpha camp No. 1 last Tuesday to its members and their families was a success. This custom, inaugurated some years ago, of giving an annual Christmas tree has become popular and is enjoyed by all. Many pleasing speeches were made by prominent Woodmen present.

Masonic Lodges Install Officers. Masonic lodge, Omaha chapter No. 1, installed the following officers at the meeting Tuesday evening at Masonic temple: John W. Klossner, high priest; Mark N. Woodward, king; Homer E. Hall, scribe; J. T. Bramman, captain of host; Harry Schroeder, principal sojourner; E. C. Sawyer, royal arch captain; G. H. Worley, Harry Will and Howard L. Hite, masters of veil; Daniel Tillotson, sentinel. Omaha council No. 1 installed these officers the same evening: John W. Klossner, thrice illustrious master; George K. Ticknor, deputy master; Charles Dyzart, principal conductor of work; Charles L. Shook, captain of guard; Charles E. Foster, steward; Daniel Tillotson, sentinel.

The Maccabees. Omaha Tent No. 75, are arranging for a big joint installation of officers on January 2. The officers of the tents in South Omaha will be installed with officers of Tent 75. The installation ceremonies will be in charge of Deputy Supreme Commander A. I. Lee of Des Moines, Ia. All Maccabees and Lady Maccabees are welcome.

American Yeomen. Henderson homestead, No. 154, Brotherhood of American Yeomen, held its annual Christmas entertainment last Tuesday evening at its hall, 1708 Vin- low street. The program of recitation, song and music was carried out by the children. Rev. R. H. Houseman spoke to the children on "The Origin of Christmas." Those attending were very much enjoyed by the attractively decorated Christmas tree, and by Santa Claus, who made a short talk for the good of humanity, and who handed out big ten-pound bags filled with candy, nuts, fruit and small presents to everybody present. An orchestra played for those who wished to spend the rest of the evening in dancing.

LIQUOR HOUSE ROBBED BY UNIDENTIFIED BURGLARS

The Ham Brewing company's place of business was entered during the night by burglars, who gained entrance to the place by forcing a window. They broke open a strongbox and secured $25.
