Wyoming Towns Are Growing as State's Resources Develop

General Freight and Passenger Agent Lever of the Wyoming lines of the Northwestern, with headquarters at Casper, Wyo., is in the city in conference with General Manager Walters. Mr. Lever asserts that 1915 was the best year that Wyoming ever experienced, adding: "The state has developed wonderfully during the last year. Immense sums of foreign capital has come in for the development of the country. The oil-producing industry has grown to enormous proportions and new fields are being brought in. Sixteen miles east of Casper, along the Big Muddy river, numerous wells are being put down and it gives promise of being a rich field, it is asserted.

OMAHA GETS PUBLICITY SHOWING ITS GROWTH

Since the figures on Omaha's business have been compiled, the bureau of publicity has been busy preparing articles and tables of figures on the showing for newspapers throughout this state and Iowa, and also for many of the big papers and periodicals of the east. About 1,000 newspapers in Iowa and Nebraska are this week to print articles on Omaha's business for the year, furnished them by the bureau of publicity. The Associated Press carried an article in the papers served by this association immediately after the figures were compiled. The New York State Zeitung is to carry an article on the year's business of Omaha. The Deutsche Amerika has also accepted an article on the subject. This is a new German paper published in New York. The foreign language papers of Omaha are carrying the articles, and articles prepared by the bureau with illustrations are to be handled by a big newspaper syndicate of New York City serving hundreds of big papers of the country.

Bad Habits. Those who breakfast at 8 o'clock or later, lunch at 12 and have dinner at 6 are almost certain to be troubled with indigestion. They do not allow time for one meal to digest before taking another. Not less than five hours should elapse between meals. If you are troubled with indigestion correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Tablets, and you may reasonably hope for a quick recovery. The tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

CANDIDATES START FILING FOR OFFICE

Wattles Announces Street Railway Employees May Run for Office if They Choose.

NAMES FOR VARIOUS OFFICES

President Wattles of the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company has issued an order which rescinds former orders, prohibiting employees of the company running for public office. It is quite generally understood that Mike Clark, one of the road officers, will make another try for sheriff, and Mr. Wattles has been mentioned as a candidate for delegate-at-large to the republican national convention at Chicago.

Petitions are being circulated for the filing of the name of Frank Ransom at the congressional primaries in April. George Rogers is said to have his eye on the sheriff's office.

Henry C. Murphy, formerly city attorney of South Side for five years, enters the lists of avowed candidates for republican nominations at the next primary by inscribing his name on the election commissioner's office with the words "for county attorney" after it.

James M. Fitzgerald, deputy county attorney, filed as a candidate for the democratic nomination for police judge. Although he is well known in local politics it was the first time he had ever filed his name as a candidate to go before the voters.

Louis E. Adams, county surveyor, who has already conducted his office, became a formal candidate for renomination on the republican ticket.

Rubel Furniture Company is Going Out of Business

The Rubel Furniture company is going out of business. This announcement has created a stir in business circles of Omaha. It is a pity, so the proprietors assert, in a liberal sense and the entire stock of high grade merchandise will be sold as rapidly as the public takes advantage of the big cut in prices made with the idea of getting quick action. Four floors of furniture, carpets, draperies and stoves will be disposed of at once. The leases on the store building and on the warehouse expire in a very short time. They will not be renewed. This is not a bankrupt sale, but is a "simon-pure" going out of business arrangement. Other interests will claim the attention of the proprietors as soon as they can close up their affairs in connection with the furniture store. The store Tuesday was crowded with persons attracted by the special prices announced in papers Monday and Tuesday morning and the indications are that with such merchandise and such prices it will not take long to dispose of even this large stock.

Omaha Boy So Good He Can't Get Match

Jack Sudenberg has written to Paul Murray, the demon boxing instructor, complaining that he is so good now everybody is afraid of him and he can't get a match. Jack is in Kansas City. All the middleweights being afraid to take him on he has offered to put on the gloves with Fred Fulton, heavyweight steamboat, who is supposed by his friends to be held up against to lose Willie's crown. He is also trying to get a match with Montana Jack Sullivan of Omaha. Murray also reports letters from two other pupils of his to-wit, Young O'Leary of Philadelphia and Jack White of Chicago, in which they state that they are eating 'em alive.

EXPERT SEES BIG BUSINESS AHEAD FOR 1916.

W.H. Rankin

William H. Rankin, vice president of the Mahin Advertising company, Chicago, predicts that 1916 is to be a year of greater prosperity than has been seen for many a year. Mr. Rankin is in touch with conditions in many large business concerns for which his company is advertising agent. Particularly in the automobile line, he declares, there will be a greater selling of cars than ever before. "In 1915," he says, "nearly every manufacturer underestimated the number of cars that would be bought. Therefore, after the advertised cars had been sold out, even the unadvertised and little known cars benefited from the surprising demand that could not be satisfied because the supply of advertised cars was exhausted."
