NEXT WEEK BIG ONE FOR STATE FARMERS

Many Associations Comprising Organized Agriculture Will Hold Sessions in Lincoln.

FINE EXHIBITS TO BE SHOWN

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 14.—(Special.)—Next week is the big week in Lincoln of the winter months, organized agriculture holding the stage beginning Tuesday and continuing the rest of the week. Among the meetings are the following: State board of agriculture, Commercial club, Tuesday and Wednesday. Nebraska association fair managers, Commercial club, Tuesday evening. State board of horticulture, Lindell hotel, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Nebraska Dairymen's association, State fair, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday. Home Economics association, State farm, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday. Horse breeders' association, Monday and Tuesday. Swine breeders' association, stock judging pavilion, Tuesday and Wednesday. Beef cattle program, judging pavilion, Thursday. Sheep breeders' association, judging pavilion, Wednesday. Extension conference, Agricultural hall, Friday. Shorthorn breeders association, Lindell hotel, Wednesday evening. South Lincoln breeders association, Lindell hotel, Wednesday evening. State Red Polled Breeders association, Lindell hotel, Wednesday evening. Dairy Cattle Breeders association, Lindell hotel, Wednesday evening. Corn improvers association, Plant Industry building, Tuesday and Wednesday. Agricultural club, University temple, Thursday evening. State Florists' society, Lindell hotel, Tuesday. State Bee Keepers association, Lindell hotel, Wednesday. Home Economics association, Agricultural hall, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday. Good Roads association, Association Rural school patrons, time and place not given. During the entire week the Nebraska Horticultural association will give an exhibit at the city auditorium, displaying all lines of fruit and other products grown by members of the society. The auditorium in past years has been a popular place for visitors to the meeting of organized agriculture, and it looks at this time as if the exhibits for this year would far outstrip all previous displays.

Requisition for Issues. Governor Morshead today issued a requisition for the return to Iowa of Mada A. Chaon, convicted of larceny by the Iowa courts, and given a sentence of five years in the penitentiary. He was let out on parole, and violating the same, shipped to Nebraska, where he was arrested by the chief of police at Sidney. The sheriff at Fort Madison arrived this morning, secured the requisition and left for Sidney to take the man back.

Applies for Excess Fares. Application has been made to the state railway commission by Mr. Woolsey of Seward for the rebate of $229 paid by him for transportation over the Burlington railroad last fall. Mr. Woolsey says he bought two tickets for himself and wife to Portland, Ore., via Denver and Billings, expecting to go to Thermopolis to visit friends. In Colorado, they ran into the heavy floods and the road sent them by another route, so that when they reached the nearest point to Thermopolis, the road compelled them to pay $110 cash for extra tickets to complete their journey. He claims that he is not to blame for the floods, and that the road should return to him the extra amount paid.

Hall Holds Up Warrants. A warrant for $400 was presented to State Treasurer Hall today by the Burlington railroad, for the payment of ten interchangeable mileage books purchased by the hotel commission recently. Treasurer Hall is holding up the warrant claiming that there is no call for any department to purchase that amount of mileage, which represents ten books of 2,000 miles each. Colonel Ackerman, hotel inspector, says that he wanted to lay in a supply pending the raise in rates, but the state treasurer says that if all departments would do that his funds would be depleted, so he is holding up the claim.

Cook Will Take Lessons. The war department has commissioned Frank Simonick of H company, Fourth regiment of Madison to go to Fort Riley to take special instruction in cooking. He will be gone four months, and on his return is to have charge of all camp books and give them instruction in the art of war cooking.

Notes from Grand Island. GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Jan. 14.—George Kirth, Company C, Ninety-first New York infantry, passed away at the Soldiers' home. He leaves a widow and daughter. They reside at New Orleans, La. Mrs. Kirth is evangelistic superintendent of the Women's Christian Temperance union of New Orleans. Mr. Kirth was an expert and drew many fine pictures during his stay at the home. William L. Eastman, for many years a traveling man in this section of the country and well-known to many business men of Nebraska, died at Donners Grove, Ill. He lived for a time at Omaha, Salt Lake City, Grand Island and Chicago. Three years ago he was stricken with paralysis. The funeral services were held in this city, at the residence of Mrs. H. P. Wiseman. He was 58 years of age. Chairman Max Egge of the republican county central committee has called a meeting of all interested republicans, and especially the young republicans, for January 20, for the reorganization of the republican club. The new county board has organized with the re-election of Fred Miller of Wood River as chairman.

News Notes from Fairbury. FAIRBURY, Neb., Jan. 14.—(Special.)—A school of instruction conducted by Grand Custodian Robert E. French in the Masonic temple, Fairbury, will be held Thursday and Friday of this week. County Judge L. J. Nutzman is circulating a petition for re-election as probate judge. Maurice M. Johnson, a farmer living north of Fairbury, held a public sale yesterday and disposed of his farm implements and live stock. He expects to remove to Arkansas. Chesley L. Taylor of Minden, Kan., and Edith E. McAfee of Mahaska, Kan., were married in county court by Judge L. J. Nutzman. They left for Minden to make their future home after the ceremony. A "For Sale" or "For Rent" Ad placed in The Bee will accomplish its purpose.

BARTON FILES IN THE FIFTH

Former Congressman Will Try for Nomination on the Republican Ticket.

LAHNER OUT FOR THE SENATE

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 14.—(Special.)—Silas H. Barton will be a candidate for the republican nomination on congress from the fifth district, a petition having been filed for him today. Mr. Barton served one term in congress, but was defeated for a second term by present Congressman A. C. Shallenberger by only 19 votes. Mr. Barton persisted in staying on the job at Washington instead of coming home and making a personal campaign and was defeated. He also served two terms as state auditor. Lahners Re-enters Race. Thomas H. Lahner of Bellevue, who served in the senate, has filed for renomination on the republican ticket from the Fifteenth district, composed of the counties of Thayer and Jefferson.

KENNEDY AND ALLEN MAKE TALKS AT LINCOLN

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 14.—(Special.)—A large crowd of citizens gathered at the Lindell hotel auditorium last night to listen to addresses given by John L. Kennedy of Omaha, candidate for the republican nomination for the United States senate, and W. V. Allen of Madison, under suspicion of being a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor. The meeting was given under the auspices of the East Lincoln league, and ex-Governor Chester H. Aldrich presided. Mr. Kennedy spoke upon "The Building of a City" and said that outside of the advantage of advertising there was no profit in building high office buildings. He said that the first floor was the main source of revenue and the higher the building ran the less the revenue. Senator Allen talked a short time on "Civil Government."

HARMAN THINKS MUTUAL COMPANY IS IN CONTEMPT

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 14.—(Special.)—That the Mutual Oil company of Kansas City has probably laid itself open to contempt of court is the opinion of State Oil Inspector Harman, who today sent a message to that company notifying it that his department would inspect no more oil for it unless fees are paid to the inspectors. He told the company it had violated the restraining order of the supreme court and was liable for contempt. Commissioner Harman has been notified that the Douglas county district court recognized the restraining order asked for by the commissioner and granted by the supreme court the day after that granted by the district court as practically superseding the district court order and would not try the case.

News Notes of Fairbury. FAIRBURY, Neb., Jan. 14.—(Special.)—Mrs. Elizabeth Morford died at her home in the south part of Fairbury. Six children were born to this union, one dying in infancy. Her husband and five children survive her. An unusual suit has been filed in district court at this point by J. E. Mitcham of Oklahoma against the Goodrich Bros. banking firm for possession of $1,000 in currency that is on deposit in this institution in the name of his wife. Mitcham sold his farm a year or two ago in this county before removing to Oklahoma and deposited $1,500 with the foregoing bank in his wife's name. Since that time Mrs. Mitcham has become of unsound mind and is at this time confined in a hospital for the insane. The bank is ready and willing to pay the money when it can be protected.

Child's Tongue Becomes Coated If Constipated

If cross, bilious, sick, feverish, or full of cold, take no chances.

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste. Liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system and you have a well, playful child again. Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by the California Fig Syrup Company. Refuse any other kind with scorn.—Advertisement.

When Itching Stops There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture instantly and that cleanses and soothes the skin. Ask any druggist for a 2c bottle of Zemo and apply it as directed. Soon you will find that pimples, black heads, eczema, ringworms and similar skin troubles will disappear. A little Zemo, the penetrating, satisfying liquid, is all that is needed, for it banishes all skin eruptions and makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy. Zemo, Cleveland.

WOULD HAVE STATE PAY HAIL LOSSES

Farmers' Congress Suggests Government Get Behind This Class of Insurance.

WILL MEET NEXT IN OMAHA

(From a Staff Correspondent.) GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Jan. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—The third annual convention of the Farmers' union came to a close late this afternoon. Omaha was chosen as the place for the next convention. The recommendation of statewide hail insurance, operated by the state was a feature of today's session. The educational committee's recommendation that the state print its own school textbooks was adopted. The marketing committee reported favoring the standardization of farm products, demanded that the railroads revoke the order prohibiting selling from cars, favored the establishment of a market, and distributing course at the state

LINCOLN BRYAN CLUB TURNED DOWN FLAT

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 14.—(Special.)—Once more the Bryan stings of ingratitude has been felt in Nebraska. This time the Lincoln Bryan club is the victim. Mayor Bryan has proclaimed that his old booster, the Bryan club, must give way to the newer and handsomer Woodrow Wilson club of Omaha and the Progressive Democratic club of Lincoln, of which Mr. Bryan's brother-in-law, Tom Allen is a moving figure. He stated that the birthday dinner on March 13 would be held under the auspices of the above two organizations and the Bryan club had been left out in the cold.

Nebraska

A meeting was held last night, to which about fifty or more members of the club were present. President North was ready to throw up the sponge and said he would not work with either Charlie, the mayor any longer, Dr. Hall, treasurer of the club, was not quite so emphatic, but his words indicated that he didn't like the way the club was being run. Secretary Otto Meier didn't like it a bit, but kept his temper. However, E. F. Snively, candidate for the democratic nomination for lieutenant governor at the last primary, and a hitherto very strong advocate of Mr. Bryan, was willing the club should be disbanded if Brother Charlie was going to be the spokesman of William J. He was in favor of finding out just where the club was at, saying: "If we can reach the ear of God Almighty without the aid of an interpreter, it seems to be we should be able to reach the ear of W. J. Bryan without going through C. W." As a result a message was sent to Bryan today by the officers of the club in an effort to see if he had authorized the statement of his brother.

Deaths at North Bend. NORTH BEND, Neb., Jan. 14.—(Special.)—Francis Gaughen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gaughen of Pleasant Valley, died Wednesday, after an illness of ten days.

Nebraska

He was 19 years of age. Funeral services were held this morning. Mrs. Catherine Smith of this city died yesterday at the home of her nephew, James Dion, in Omaha. She was a native of Canada, but came to Dodge county in 1870 and has been a resident of this vicinity for forty-six years. She was born near Guelph, Canada, in 1838. She was a widow and childless. Her brother, John Cusack, and two sisters, Mrs. Jerry Dion and Mrs. George Gollop, live here.

Notes from Seward.

SEWARD, Neb., Jan. 14.—(Special.)—The body of Henry Hickman, formerly of this place, was brought here for interment yesterday. His home was at Lincoln. He was 80 years old. William Hoerung of Hoagland, Neb., has taken charge of the Farmers' elevator at Staplehurst. William Smetzer of Goehner and Miss Carrie Becker of Beaver Crossing were granted a marriage license yesterday. The Seward volunteer fire department held its annual meeting at the quarters in the city hall on Thursday evening. The following officers were elected: Jacob Goehring, chief; L. P. Taage, assistant chief; H. A. Graff, secretary-treasurer. Delegates to the State Volunteer Firemen's association, which meets at Crawford, were as follows: Jacob Goehring, L. P. Taage, H. A. Graff, Henry Houtmann, J. F. Geeson and W. J. Ashton.

OWENS SENT TO PRISON FOR PERKINS HOLDUP

AURORA, Neb., Jan. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Harry H. Owens was today sentenced to the state penitentiary by Judge Corcoran for an indeterminate term of from three to fifteen years for robbing Clark Perkins Thanksgiving evening. He admitted his guilt today when arraigned and stated he desired to begin serving his sentence. Judge Corcoran urged him to become a good prisoner while at the Lincoln institution. Owens has not fully recovered from the wound he received when shot by Chief of Police Springer of York six weeks ago.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Ed W. Getten, the cigar man, who has been having quite a struggle over an attack of the grip at his apartments in the Hudson, is reported as much better. Chief Probation Officer A. W. Miller treats a portion of his face Thursday while out investigating a case of child neglect in connection with his juvenile work.
