International Harvester Company Will Bring Duplication of Prize Winners to Convention.

ALL OFFICIALS WILL ATTEND CORN SELLS ONE CENT HIGHER

Implement dealers, who attend th Mid-West Implement Dealer's convention, will undoubtedly see the greatest display of implements ever made in Timaha.

Those dealers, who were not fortunate enough to attend the San Francisco exconition last summer; will have an opportunity to see duplicates of most of the machines displayed by the International Harvester company, thirty-six of

Auditorium during the convention, while the general display of implements on their sample room floor will be the largest ever shown by this company in

The Omaha, Council Bluffs, Lincoln,

The Oliver Chilled Plow works opened its Omaha branch in June, 1914, at Eighth and Douglas streets. The business grew so fast that in May, 1915, the Allen building at Tenth and Farnam streets was The company is highly pleased with the business developing in this terri-

The Oliver factory at South Bend, Ind., covers 150 acres of ground. The capacity is 1,500,000 plows annually and it is the largest plow factory in the world. Within the grounds of the Oliver works are five miles of railroad tracks and two locomotives are owned by the company to do the switching exclusively for the factory. Another feature of the Oliver works is the fact that they own their water works system, which has a daily capacity of

At one time the Oliver works devoted their entire attention to the manufacture of plows exclusively. Later other lines rlows, listers, cultivators, harrows and a number of other farm implements.

but at the show rooms in Council Bluffs oven house will be kept during the week for the benefit of the dealers who com-into home from outside points.

In the "Sandwich Line" will be found "Easyway" loaders and rakes, encines, shellers, grinders, corn slicers, ele-Vators and hay presses.

This company carries an immense stock of corn shelling machinery in both Kancas City and Council Blufts warehouses for the convenience of its large and in-creasing western trade. These two points have maintained a reputation for forty years for their promptness in filling orders. Few houses in the Missouri valley have equalled their record.

The Sandwich company claims the distinction of being the largest builders of corn stielling machinery in the world. The 1916 models use time-tried, successful principles, and also have the latest, most modern and efficient improve Assurances have been received by Mr. Digweon that there will be a large attendance of dealers from this trade territory present during the coming convention, and he expects to have his hands extering to the many who will be rear, but 16,006 heavier than two weeks ago.

Despite the fact that prices were beginning to look a little top-heavy a week ago the week's lamb trade has duplicated the 75c advance scored last week and current values are a flat $1.50 higher than they were two weeks ago. A heavy run Monday resulted in a shight break the market opening slow and loc lower, but closing more active and with part of the break regained. From Monday on it was a steadily advancing market up until Friday, when with a heavy week-end run values held steady at the week's advance. Closing quotations put good to choice lambs at $18.66910.75, and fair to good kinds are selling from $10.50 up, those figures being far the highest ever in January. Fow if any clipped lambs were marketed. Best should sell to $2.50 at present. Foeder trade seems to be almost a thing of the past for this season, for while there are plenty of orders at ill unfilled, supplies are very scant. As high as $2.50 was paid for unfinished weighty lambs to go to nearby feedlots and good feeding ewes touched $6.15. Both these sales were made early in the week.

Emperor Nicholas in these words, addressed to one of his armies on the Russian front during the week preceding the Russian Christmas, once more replied to the rumors of a separate peace in Russia which have even reached the men in the trenches.

The emperor after visiting the armies on the southern front reviewed those of General Alex E. Evert, commander-inchief of the forces in the west. Addressing the officers, he said:

"My Papa Owns His House"

A little blue-eyed girl proudly proclaims to her schoolmates, and immediately one or two others should, "So does mine;" "Mine does too."

The rest hang their heads and say nothing. Which will your child do?

This is a more important thing than you imagine.

Children are quicker to notice a great many things than are grown-ups. A child's instinct is a wonderful sixth sense, The child whose parents rent soon realizes the fact, and never feels herself the equal of her classmates, whose parents own their homes. The boy or girl whose parents rent, and consequently move quite frequently, never feel that they really have a home, Just when they have made friendships in the neighborhood, the landlord raises the rent or sells the house and the family must move. Their playmates in the new location may not be so desirable. The boy or girl must be "broken in" at a new school, per-haps in the middle of the term. The child of the man who rents is always at a disudvantage,

The man who owns his home sets an example that his children follow when they grow up.

"Father always owned the house we lived in," says the young bride, when her husband asks, "Shall we rent or buy?" Next time you ask yourself the same question, look at it through the "kiddles" eyes. That may help you answer more and $230 to to Turkey. Secretary Lansing says in his report that approximately 1,200 Greeks were driven from the city during the riots and prior to the riots there had been a feeling of hostility to the Greek subjects residents of South Omaha, because of their lawlessness and their manner of living in unsanitary surroundings.

The riots grew out of the shooting of Edward Lowry, February 19, 1909, by John Masrouldes, a Greek, whom the officer had arrested. The subjects of other countries, Secretary Lansing said, "suffered from the fury of the mob, because they probably were mistaken for Greeks." Some of the rioters were arrested, but nobody was convicted. Greece asked $153.533 indenmity: Austria-Hungary, $9,582, and Turkey, $1,984.
