Hotels at Panama Exposition Do Not Raise Their Prices

Tourists returning from the San Francisco exposition assert they were surprised to find that there had been no raise in rates in the leading hotels of San Francisco because of the exposition. Even the big Palace hotel, which always enjoys such a large patronage, maintains the same rates as before, even though it is continually forced to turn away patrons. San Francisco is now making a boom of the west, and the hotels are acting and say that the usual record of hospitality established through long years by the big coast city, will not be broken, even though such an easy chance is offered by the throngs of tourists who are visiting the exposition.

The committee expects to combine the best ideas it has gained in its report to the general building committee. This report is to be made at the meeting Wednesday evening.

DRUGGISTS AFTER CUT PRICE SHOPS

Question of Slashing Prices on Patent Medicines Comes Before the Pharmaceutical Convention.

TOOK IN DEN SHOW LAST NIGHT

Whether or not $1 patent medicine shall be sold any longer for 50 cents is a question that is going to agitate the Nebraska State Pharmaceutical association, whose 400 members and friends have already begun to arrive in Omaha and will start their thirty-fourth annual meeting at Hotel Fontenelle this morning, continuing until Thursday noon.

There isn't any question with the druggists as to whether proprietary articles should be sold at cut prices. They decided long ago that there ought not to be any such practice in their trade. The question simply is: "How shall we stop it?"

By way of solution they will endorse the Stevens bill, a congressional act proposed in the last session and to be brought up again at the next one. The bill would make it lawful for manufacturers of proprietary, trade-marked and patented goods of all kinds to make a binding contract fixing the retail price of the goods, below which price they could not lawfully be sold.

"Monopoly," "Trusts" and "Restraint of trade" people may shout, "Oh, no," Mr. Druggist says, "The Stevens bill is an anti-monopoly measure, and will benefit the people as well as the dealers."

Collector North Taxes Base Ball Clubs as Circus

Congressman Frank Reavis of the First Nebraska district has taken exception to a ruling by Revenue Collector North of Omaha. Reavis learned that North taxed the Omaha and Lincoln ball clubs as "circuses" and whacked them on that basis to the extent of 100 bucks a year. The other six clubs in the Western are paying $10 a year to the government.

Congressman Reavis has written the following protest to Collector North:

"Mr. North, Internal Revenue Collector, Omaha, Neb. Dear Sir: I am in receipt of a protest over the action of your department in collecting from the Lincoln Base Ball association under the schedule provided for a 'circus.' In this schedule is listed theaters, circuses and other amusements, and I am advised by correspondence with both the St. Joseph and Sioux City Base Ball associations that collection is made from them under the heading of 'other amusements.' I do not see by what stretch of the imagination your department sees fit to class an amusement association such as a base ball association as a circus.

"I respectfully request that the department change its ruling in regard thereto, and that there be returned to the Lincoln Base Ball association the excess of money collected over what would be due under the head of 'other amusements.' Will you kindly let me know your disposition regarding this, that I may govern myself accordingly. Very truly yours, 'C. F. REAVIS.'"

One of Sunday's Men Talks Temperance to Crowd at Y. M. C. A.

"If it is right to drink booze, why do you not ask a blessing over it before you drink it, as we do over our daily food?" asked Floyd F. Miles, posing as a second Billy Sunday, from Des Moines, in a whirlwind talk to a house full of men at the Young Men's Christian association rooms Sunday afternoon. This is a sample of his style of language: "O, yes, I got mine, too. I didn't get drunk over the bar, but I got mine in the clubs and the swell dumps. And I want to say to you, no matter whether a man gets his booze in the saloon or in the swell clubs, he is just as much of a hog if he tanks up. If you want to know my stand on the booze question, I will say that I would close and wreck every drug store and bootlegging joint and other booze joints. Then, too, I would set a match to the whole bunch of booze and let it go up in smoke."

Mr. Miles made a number of addresses in various churches of Omaha during the day. He is one of those who "hit the sawdust trail" in a Billy Sunday revival meeting in Des Moines a year or so ago. Mr. Miles is a professional politician and at present city treasurer of Des Moines. He is also secretary of the Press club at Des Moines, having been formerly city editor of the Des Moines Capital.

The propellers and rudder of the battleship were damaged."

PIONEER BUSINESS MAN WHO DIED SUNDAY.

HERMAN J. MEYER.

ANOTHER PIONEER CALLED BY DEATH

Resident of Omaha for Forty-Six Years and Well Known Charity Worker Passes Away.

ILL ONLY SHORT WHILE

Herman J. Meyer, 74 years of age, and a resident of Omaha for forty-six years, passed away yesterday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. A. Grimmel, 820 South Twenty-ninth street. He had been ill only a short time.

Herman Meyer is the fourth member of the Douglas County Pioneers' association to pass away within the last few weeks.

Born in Switzerland.

Mr. Meyer was born in Aarburg, Switzerland, July 3, 1841. He came to Omaha forty-six years ago and married Miss Margaretha Jacobson, who died September 20, 1894. Rev. Henry W. Kuhns performed the ceremony.

He was a bookbinder by trade and was formerly connected with the Omaha Republican, but later established himself in his own business at 357-7 South Thirtieth street. He retired six years ago. Two years ago Mr. Meyer went to Europe to visit the place of his birth, but returned after a short stay.

He was known as a man of retiring disposition, but of generous nature. Many families in Omaha who were once in hard straits will remember him as their benefactor. He was also identified with the local Swiss society, and at one time was leader of the German Maennerchor.

The Family Surviving.

Two sons and one daughter survive. They are: Fred H. Meyer of Montgomery, Ala.; and Sam W. of Port St. Joseph, Mo.; and Mrs. C. A. Grimmel of Omaha. Three brothers are also living. They are: Eugene, of Zurich, Switzerland; Emil, of Portland, Ore.; and Arthur, of Plymouth, Ind. Three grandchildren are Margaretha and Ruth of Omaha, and Durling Meyer of Montgomery, Ala. All Babies Destined to Great Achievement

To be born is to be great. For there are possibilities in every tiny human infant. And for this reason every one should remember that whenever it is done to aid the mother, to relieve her of distresses, to bring months, will surely be of marked benefit to the child. Among the sterling aids is a splendid external remedy known as "Mother's Friend." It is what is called an embrocation. It is applied to the abdominal muscles, gently rubbed in by your own hand guided by your own mind. It makes the muscles pliant, they expand quite naturally and the effect upon the nerves is such that they adjust themselves to the process of expansion so that pain from this source is almost eliminated. Women who use "Mother's Friend" refer to the absence of morning sickness, they are relieved of a great many minor distresses, all apprehension disappears and those peculiar nervous "diggers" no longer disturb the nights. It is a bottle today of any drug store. Then at once write for a most entertaining and instructive book for all prospective mothers. Address: Bradford's Regulator Co., 705 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. This book explains the physical action of "Mother's Friend," tells why it enforces strength to the muscles and relieves undue strain. It also contains letters of experience from many happy mothers. It is just such a handy little book as every woman will always wish to read—plain facts about herself. The book is mailed free to any address. Write for it today.

DR. JENKINS TALKS TO THE GRADUATES

Says that Only Cure for Failures of Civilization is in a Deeper Christianity.

TELLS THEM OF TEMPTATIONS

Dr. D. E. Jenkins, president of the University of Omaha, preaching the baccalaureate sermon before the university's graduating class, in St. Mark's Lutheran church Sunday morning, warned the graduates of the pitfalls and temptations to doubt and infidelity which particularly beset those who have drunk at the higher fountains of learning.

Roumanians Are In Turmoil Over Engaging in War

LONDON, June 7.—Reuter's correspondent at Bucharest telegraphs that a great demonstration was held today in favor of intervention by Roumania in the war in support of the allies. About 20,000 persons marched with flags flying and bugles sounding, to the Italian legion, where speeches were delivered extolling Italy.

Later, partisans of Alexander Marghiloman, the conservative leader, together with socialists, organized a counter demonstration. At a meeting of the executive committee of the conservative party the attitude of M. Marghiloman in favor of Germany was discussed. After a long debate the majority condemned his leadership of the party. M. Marghiloman thereupon left the meeting, followed by his supporters.

Wheat Prices Here Still On Toboggan

Even for a Monday grain receipts were heavy, there being 41 cars of wheat, 118 of corn and 11 of oats on sale. The market was still on the toboggan, the decline in wheat being 4 to 5 cents per bushel. The drop from Saturday was attributed to the reports coming in indicating that all over the grain belt conditions are pretty close to ideal.

On the Omaha market wheat sold at $1.14 1/2 per bushel, the lowest price since early last fall. Corn was 1/4 to 1/2 cents off from Saturday, prices ranging from 87 to 88 1/2 cents per bushel. Oats were 1 cent lower, selling at 64 1/2 to 65 cents per bushel.

experience if you were less educated. There will be subtle appeals to your reason, the product of a unspiritual, unscientific, unscrupulous scholarship. These puny egotists, putting forth some new scientific or philosophic theory and satisfied with the product of their feeble physical brains, fondly imagine that God has no locks left that they can't unlock. "Why, you can no more lay hold of spiritual truths with the physical brain than you can appreciate the beauty of a picture by the science of mathematics or enjoy the harmony of a great sonata by studying the physics of sound."

The graduating class wore caps and gowns and marched into the church in a body, together with the faculty. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers. Rev. Dr. Halsey, dean of the university, pronounced the invocation. Dr. Jenkins took as his text John vi. 67-69.

BRYAN INFLUENCE WORKING IN STATE

Report that Various Means Are Being Taken to Line Up Demos Against Hitchcock.

MOREHEAD MAY GET SUPPORT

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, June 7.—(Special).—The latest interesting rumor around the capital of the state is that Cecil Mathews, editor of the Riverton Review, is a candidate for the appointment of printing commissioner to take the place recently vacated by N. J. Ludi, who has stepped into the postmastership at Wahoo.

The story goes that Mathews has lost all hope that Mr. Bryan will appoint him United States marshal for Nebraska and will switch to the printing job. In connection with this rumor goes the information that a deal has been fixed up whereby, if Governor Morehead appoints Mathews to the printing job, the support of the Bryan crowd will go to the governor for the democratic nomination for United States senator.

The rumor is considered to have considerable foundation for the reason that representatives of the candidacy of Senator Hitchcock are redoubling their efforts to make sentiment in favor of the senator and throwing cold water on any mention which may be made of the governor entering the race.

It is well known that Mathews has been boosting the Bryans at any and all times in and out of season, provocation or no provocation, and, while deeply disappointed that the secretary of state cannot see to see the marshaling for the Riverton man, he will be fairly well satisfied with the printing job. In fact, "My Kingdom for a job" is said to be the editorial anthem being sung by Mathews with variations according to the music needed to make it effective.
