HOOP skirts are here.
We may like them or we may not, approve or be agin 'em, but here they are, and they were introduced with eclat at the Pickens-Paterson wedding of Tuesday evening.

For future statistics Mrs. Paterson may feel assured that she gave the hoops their Omaha launching when, at her request, her maids appeared in the dainty hoop skirt frocks. They proved to be a most attractive style.

The attendants, who were Mrs. Paul Gallagher, Mrs. Ralph Peters, Miss Gladys Peters and Miss Daphne Peters, have fallen in love with the vogue and promise to be true devotees. They appeared charmingly unconscious of the demureness of their gowns. Mrs. Ralph Peters' and Miss Gladys Peters' hoops were of crystal. Mrs. Paul Gallagher's of iridescent bands and Miss Daphne Peters' of pale pink satin.

Phelps-Printz Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Henrietta Printz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. August Printz, and Mr. R. Goodwin Phelps, was celebrated last evening at the Plymouth Congregational church at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Frederick W. Leavitt performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of soft white satin in train. The bodice was of shadow lace with trimmings of pearls and long tulle sleeves. Her veil was held in place with a spray of lilies of the valley and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Elizabeth Frances Hillman of North Platte, Neb., was the maid of honor and her bridesmaids were Misses Inez Cantberg, Ethel Kurz, Mary Chase and Cora Jones. Little Miss Florence Kurx carried the rings for the double ring service in a calla lily and rose petals were strewn before the bride by Misses Helen Pearson and Ruth Venuot.

The groom was attended by Mr. William Alvin Sorrey as best man and the ushers were Messrs. Stuart Owen, John R. Williams, Carl Cain and Lee Hobson.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents after a trip west. Mr. and Mrs. Phelps will be at home in Omaha.

Out-of-Town Wedding.
A wedding of interest to Omaha was celebrated today in Santa Monica, Cal., and was that of Miss Louise Fearon of Santa Monica, and Mr. Robert Driscoll, Jr., of Lead, S. D.

Miss Fearon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fearon, who made their home in Omaha until their removal to California a few years ago. She attended the Sacred Heart convent and finished at Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. Driscoll is a graduate of Harvard and is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Driscoll. He is associated with his father in the banking business at Lead.

The young couple will spend their honeymoon on the coast and before returning to Lead will be the guests of Mrs. Driscoll's sister, Mrs. James P. Miquen, in Council Bluffs.

For Bride-Elect.
Miss Augusta Messmer entertained at her home a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Anna Grueb, whose wedding to Mr. Joseph Saucier will take place on Tuesday, June 15.

The rooms were decorated in pink and green, with large bouquets of white roses, American beauties and carnations. Those present were:

Misses—Marie Jaki, Pearl Brodbeck, Kate Wächter, Marie Kroskocil, Kate Schinker, Radmilla Grueb, Ruth Matson, Elizabeth Zoth, Barbara Kautz, August Messmer.
Meadames—C. Grueb, M. Jaki.

Misses—Clara Munch, Agnes Harting, Susie Kohle, Margaret Schinker, Christina Federle, Teresa Winkelhaeren, Rose Staudacher, Mary Schicker, Armolie Schinker.

Welsh Says it is Different When He Has Taken an Oath

Colonel L. A. Welsh, weather forecaster, was the victim of a joke by which he was compelled to testify under oath that he was unable to tell when warm weather would come to Omaha, when he gave evidence in Anton Zalinsky's damage suit against the Burlington railroad in Judge Tromp's district court.

He was called to testify concerning the condition of the weather in January, 1914. During cross-examination he was surprised by this question:
"Colonel, when will we have warmer weather here?"
The weather forecaster answered: "I cannot say. I am under oath."
