NEVER was there a time when Dame Fashion was so prolific in her modes of hair dress.

She has made it possible for every woman to look her best and make the most of satisfactory or unsatisfactory features by adopting the most becoming style of hair dressing.

A certain Omaha gentleman holds the idea that the common fault of women is that they fail to realize the importance of making the most of the crowning glory, the hair.

It has proved to be the common fault of men, too, for the story is told of a prominent merchant in our midst who purchased in the far east a toupee of handsome texture, which proved to be most becoming.

He first wore it at a small dinner, and the newness of the head dress caused admiration from all, so much so that one of the guests, the wife of one of our well known barristers, arose and, in the most impromptu manner, recited a poem to the newly acquired toupee.

Either the poem or the toupee was wrong, for the gentleman had not appeared in the new head dress since.

ONE CADET FALLS BEFORE HOME FOOD

But in This Case it Was from Drinking "Juice" from a Quart Bottle of Olives.

ANOTHER AUCTIONS OFF PIES

CAMP STRITZENGER, Ia., June 11.—(Special.)—Over 1,000 fond parents, "sweethearts" and "just visitors" invaded Camp Stritzenger armed with lots of "cash." The attack began early in the day by people who made the trip from Omaha in cars, but the concentrated attack came toward 10:30 a. m., when the special train pulled into the Burlington station loaded to the guards. Eleven cars made up the train. It was met at the station by the town of Malvern with all available automobiles in the surrounding country. The visitors were rapidly transported to the camp grounds. The whole town came out to the camp. The stores closed up and everyone came out to see the dress parade and the ball game between the cadets and the town team.

The game resulted in a victory for Malvern by the score of 3 to 0.

The first victim of the food brought down by the visitors was Robert Odell, otherwise known as "Bob" Odell. He made a bet of 25 cents with one of the fellows that he could drink the "juice" out of a quart bottle of olives. He drank the juice, but spent the next two hours with the doctor working over him with hot water bottles, etc.

Another enterprising youth started auctioning off several pies his mother had made for him. He reached as high as 25 cents for one.

The result of the morning inspection of quarters was as follows: Second battalion, first, first battalion, second, and third battalion, third. For the companies D got first, B second and A third.

Company C, under Captain Johnson, went first in line Thursday afternoon. Company D came second and Company E third. This is the second time that Company C has taken the first place. The third battalion has won the "clean streets" every time that has been possible. The winning of places at camp will have bearing on the results of competition. They will count a certain percentage toward the result.

Sergeant Kesting and his cooks prepared a meal fit for a king Thursday. They had chicken to start with and jello besides other dainties. But the attendance at the mess tables was very slight and the majority of the cook's works of art went begging.

BIG WEEK OF TRAVEL AHEAD

Several Large Organisations to Pass Through Enroute to the Pacific Coast.

FIRST TO GO THROUGH SUNDAY

Next week is going to be a busy one with the railroads operating between Omaha and the coast, the officials asserting that at that time the rush of business to the exhibitions will set in. Several special trains carrying excursionists are scheduled to pass through Omaha.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock through Omaha the Burlington will handle a special train of Swedish-Americans from Chicago. Here this train will stop only long enough to receive orders.

Wednesday noon the Northwestern will bring a special in from Chicago carrying the American Federation of Musical Clubs and the Women's clubs of Chicago and Illinois. There will be 300 on this train, that here will be turned over to the Union Pacific, after a stay of two hours in the city.

Thursday at 3 in the afternoon a special will arrive over the Northwestern, carrying 300 or more postoffice clerks from Chicago and the east enroute to their annual convention on the coast. Here they will remain one hour and be turned over to the Burlington to be hauled west. The train will be made up of fifteen sleepers, besides the usual quota of baggage cars and a diner.

The summer trip

A bottle of Lee's Shampoo is a handy addition to the traveling kit and one needs a good hair cleaning often when on the road or in camp. The Lee bottle is heavy and strong and of shape easily packed. The cap is always unremovable until the lever is raised.

It is as easy to shampoo in a Pullman as at home and it does refresh one so at the end of a tiresome day.

Lee's Liquid Shampoo is the real hair soap that washes clean and keeps the hair in the best condition, normal and odorless—the hair needs no more washing.

Travellers from Omaha can greatly aid our national advertising by investigating while at home. It is not at all uncommon for travellers to be asked about goods advertised from their home towns. Be prepared to give Lee's Liquid Shampoo a little boost if you find it as good as we and others say.

4 oz. bottle, 10 Shampoos, 75 cts. Mailed anywhere in U.S.
12 oz. bottle 75 cts. 25 oz. bottle $1.00. Samples 4 cts.
