owing to other teams having more Sunday games, and the Fourth of July game being taken from this place to Norfolk, meaning an expensive trip to this point, after having just opened the season there, and twelve games being grouped here commencing June 21, Dr.

H. E. Potter, secretary of the Fairbury Base Ball association, has filed a protest with President bliles of Hastings, asserting that Fairbury would not abide by the new schedule.

This decision was reached after a meeting of the directors of the Fairbury club.

Unless the schedule is changed, Fairbury will ask for a return of forfeit money and withdraw from the circuit. game, as listed under the original schedule, having arranged for special attractions and special trains, July 4 and 5.
