Lake Boats Examined—Captains Downs and Brewer from St. Louis, who were in the city Monday, went to Manawa, where they examined five boat captains and granted licenses to operate on the waters of the lake and carry passengers on their boats. Monday night the two captains left for up-river, going as far as Niobrara. They will return in about two weeks, and then will inspect the passenger craft on Carter lake and examine applicants for licenses.

PRICES ON ALL GRAINS TAKE DROP FROM MONDAY

The grain market was hard hit again today and prices on all commodities sagged from the start and closed near the low point of the day. The receipts were liberal, there being forty cars of wheat, fifty-four of corn and twelve of oats, but prices were at the lowest notch of the year. Wheat sold at $1.08 1/2, a loss of 1/4 to 3/8 cents from Monday.

Corn was down 1 to 1 1/2 cents, selling at 46 1/2 to 50 cents. The oat market was about as weak, the loss being 1/4 to 1 cent, prices being 42 to 44 1/2 cents per bushel.

The cash market was harder hit than the cash July was as low as $1.05 1/2 and September got to $1 per bushel. These were the lowest for the two options since they have been trading propositions.

SHORTEN DISTANCE FROM STREET TO STEPS OF CAR

Women of Hanscom park and Field club districts have experienced embarrassing moments getting on and off street cars at Pine, Hickory and Center streets, on account of the unusual height of the track above the ground.

Commissioner Truett took the situation in hand and has started the traction officials toward a removal of this objectionable condition.

The company proposed to place four-foot walks along the tracks at the intersections mentioned, thus shortening the distance to the steps of the cars.

GIRL SAYS TRIED TO END FATHER'S LIFE

Marguerite Sharp Confesses Turned Gas on in Room Where Her Father Slept.

PARENT LODGES COMPLAINT

In order that she might be her own mistress, Marguerite Sharp, 16 years old, told the authorities that yesterday morning she tried to murder her own father by turning on the gas in his bed room while he slept. Her father is Eli Sharp, 3818 North Sixteenth street, and is employed as night watchman for the Holquist Elevator company. The girl last night told her story to Superintendent Thompson of the Detention home, in the presence of newspaper men and Juvenile Officer Vosburgh. She had previously made the same confession to Probation Officer Miller.

Father Makes Complaint.

The police received a telephone call yesterday from Mr. Sharp, who declared that an attempt upon his life had been made. The windows in his room were tightly locked, the door was closed and the gas was turned on. He said he had awakened just in time, and escaped by kicking open the door.

Detectives Dunn and Kennedy and Chief Maloney investigated and late in the afternoon Marguerite was arrested as a suspect. She had been at the home of a neighbor all day, where she had been employed as a domestic. She stoutly maintained her innocence at first but Maloney's questions caused her to make incriminating statements and finally she broke down and cried. Then Miss Esther Johnson, of the juvenile office took charge of her and she made a complete confession.

Father Was Too Strict.

She said that her father was too strict and continually "nagged" her mother and herself, and that she had turned on the gas, hoping to gain her "freedom." Marguerite has been arrested by the juvenile authorities several times, for wardenship, she admitted. She is the eldest of four children, the youngest being 9 years old. While telling her story she laughed over it. She is of pleasing appearance.

Omaha Men Back From Meeting of Nebraska Editors

Fifteen live editors of papers in the upper Missouri valley attended the meeting of the Elkhorn Valley Editorial association at Long Pine Saturday and Sunday. E. V. Parrish and J. O. Goodwin of Omaha attended the meeting from Omaha. Others in attendance were C. L. Mays, Rushville; G. W. Miles, O'Neill; E. A. Thomas, Long Pine; W. C. McCully, Springfield; E. L. Howell, Wood Lake; Lee T. Beebout of Johnston; H. C. Newlin, Harrison; and F. J. Galbraith of Alnsworth. George Miles, O'Neill, was re-elected president. E. L. Howell of Wood Lake was elected secretary-treasurer. The ways and means of increasing the efficiency of advertising and of standardizing the advertising of that section of the state was considered at the meeting. A banquet was held Saturday night. E. V. Parrish, of the bureau of publicity of the Omaha Commercial club, addressed the gathering.

MALONEY'S IRE IS ROUSED BY ANTI-FAT CIRCULAR

Steve Maloney, chief of Omaha detectives is mad—again.

A practical joker is the cause of the doughy sleuth's ire. For months Steve has been taking on weight—even getting stoutish, some would say. It is undeniable, and a source of worry to him. It is a sore subject that he keeps locked in his own heart.

Yesterday's mail brought the storm. It contained a pamphlet and a ton of advertising literature, testimonials, and pictures of obese humanity. It entreated Maloney in all the terms in the English language to take the cure. It painted a word picture of Steve Maloney five years from now. It showed him in a most unenviable light. Steve read as much as the opening line, which said: "In response to your request for our literature advertised in the M—Magazine, we send you —" The fragments of the letter were dug out of a waste basket by curiosity seekers who wanted to learn the cause of the chief's anger.

OMAHA LAD AWARDED PRIZE IN MATHEMATICS

Mrs. Henry M. Knox has received a telegram from her sister, Mrs. Frank Crawford, who is attending commencement exercises at Groton school, at Groton, Mass., that John Knox, second, was called up before the audience assembled for commencement and awarded a prize in mathematics. Mrs. Crawford wired that it came as a pleasant surprise for her, because she did not know at the time that such an award had been made. Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Knox and her son, John, leave this week for the White mountains, where they will spend the vacation season, until Mr. Knox goes back to school.

THURSTON REAPPEARS IN THE LOCAL COURTS

Former United States Senator John M. Thurston made his first appearance in the trial of a case since his recent return to the practice of law in Omaha when he appeared in Judge Leslie's district court to defend John Lieber in a suit brought by Henry Mohring in connection with a sale of land. After his retirement from the senate Mr. Thurston practiced law for years in Washington.

Calls from the Wire

The Princeton university trustees at their meeting abolished compulsory attendance at morning chapel. Dr. William H. Welch, the noted pathologist of Johns Hopkins university, will leave Baltimore, June 20, for China, to take part in the work of systematizing medical education in that country.

A report from Admiral Fletcher showing that there were only sixty destroyers from the Atlantic fleet during the month of April was commented upon by Secretary Daniels, that the Navy department was overcoming the desertion evil. Last year desertions from the navy averaged 18 a month while the average for 1915 was 210 a month.

"Segregation" of bartenders from culinary workers by a division of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees' International Alliance and Bartenders' International League of America into two international unions is expected to be the big issue before the eighteenth biennial convention of the body opening at San Francisco. Use of international funds to fight prohibition, in which the culinary workers have shown no interest, it is said, caused the division to be suggested.
