

LINKS COP FRAY IN THE ELEVENTH

Johnson Wobbles, Issues Pass and Hits Batter, and Two-Bagger Breaks Up the Combat.

POWELL HOLDS ROURKES TIGHT

It took the Links from Lincoln eleven innings to do it yesterday, but they did In other words, they lambasted our little Rourklets, 3 to 2, puncturing Mr. Franklin Johnson, one-half of the set-tlement of right-handed pitchers on Marty Krug's staff.

Franklin got himself distinctly in bad by his wildness in the eleventh and fatal frame of the matinee. With two down he passed Rudy Yantz and then nicked Bill Powell smack in the slats. This put two on, and Roy Wolfe, who hasn't made s hit for a month, was at bat. But Roy upset the dope by poling a prodigious double to center, and Yantz galloped iome with the winning run.

The Rourkovinians opened on Mr. Powell as though they intended to hammer the daylights out of him, but after the fourth stanga they ceased abruptly for ome reason or other. The lone two runs nde by the home folks were garnered n the third. Smith slammed a hit to center and scooted home on Krueger's triple to right. Breen's infield hit counted ight. Hreen's infield hit counted Cantwell, But that was as far as we Arellanes Johnson tried to acore in the fourth, but foozled H. He was on first and he raced to third on Thomason's hit to Daley muffed the throw and Johnson tried to score. He came down Clark, the stretch to the plate like an ice wagon Kane, oing up grade, and Yants had no trouble putting the ball on him.

Wenkens Toward End. On the other hand, Johnson weakened Guyer, Gaspar, sa the game progressed. But one hit "Crisp was made off his delivery in the "Kelley" first five rounds. In the sixth inning with a hit, but was forced at second by Wolfe. Wolfe took second on Schliebber's error, third on an infield out and scored on Whalen's bobble.

In the subsequent stanza Davy Lloyd banged a double and scored on Yants' hit to right.

All was still until the eleventh, although Johnson wobbled a couple of times in the eighth and ninth.

Kid Starts a Fuss.

A row came pear occurring in the last half of the eleventh. The bat boy and mascot for the Links was discovered most for Omaha. Low McAllister hade the discovery and promptly armed imself with a flock of bats and observed in self with a flock of the self with a flock of the self-with a flock of the selfhimself with a flock of bats and chased the youth from the field. The kid then opped a seat immediately behind the costile bench and began to hurl encour roused a lot of ire, but the screen protected the kid from any Link assaults and he had a swell time.

Toppka. Kan., June 16.—Vance was unhittable in the pinches and St. Juseph won the last game of the eries. Grover allowed only one hit in the first five innings and it was a homer by Vance. Score:

SMITH AND EVERS BANISHED

CHICAGO, June 16 .- Batting Cheney hard in the fifth inning. Boston won its first victory of the season over Chicago, to 3. Pierce held the champions runless during his stay on the mound, but Tyler puzzled the Cubs when they got men on bases and fast fielding helped him out of the pinches. Smith was banished from the game and Evers from the field for arguing with the umpires. Zimmerman was spiked when Pitzpatrick slid into second and had to retire, Score:
