

OMAHA AND BEARS EACH WIN A GAME

Grizzlies Carry Home First Event, a Pitchers' Battle Between Blod-

was split evenly between the two con flicting parties. The invaders copped the first affair, 2 to 1, and the Rourkes worked a come-back in the second to the tune of 6 to 1.

Tom Biodgett was the unfortunate youth in the first game. Thomas allowed but two runs and four hits, which would win an ordinary game, but Mr. Mitchel of the opposition was in better trim, al lowing but one run and four hits.

The Rourkes counted first in the initia fray. Breen walked to open the second and stole the keystone sack. He went to third on Manager Marty's infield out and scored on Schliebner's hit to second. Then the home boys ceased abruptly and didn't recover until the second combat.

The Grizzlies won the game in the sixth. Blodgett soaked Pete Shields in the hoof. McCormick sacriffeed and Shields limped home on Gailoway's double to left. Coffey's hit scored Galloway and ruined the Rourkes completely. Thompson Pitches Second.

Cecil Thompson was Krug's choice in the second and he came home with colors flying. The Omaha fans lamped Thompson for the first time and agreed he was all right even though his name is Cecil. Cecil and Harrington bowled along for five innings without a run in their little ilt. Then Harrington blew up and the Rourkes hammered home three runs in he sixth, one in the seventh and two in he eighth. But one count was made of?

Thompson in the entire doings. Of the five pitchers used yesterday, four were southpaws. Johnson, the only right-hander, only worked one frame.

Denver Athletes Fuss.

The Denver gang were quite wrathy all during the combat. They started to fuss | Wolfe, and fume, with Umps Myers as the object of attack, at the start of the bill. In the second frame Kelleher, a flery In the second frame Armedia, the Wantz, c., youth who makes errors at short for the McAllister, ilears, grew so abusive that Myers charged him five bucks. Kelleher got off cheap. He unlimbered at least tweive locks' worth of convergation during the wo games.

In the second game Schliebner poled a double to left, which fell right on the line. Needless to say the Grizzlies protested vehemently. Umps Myers toddied out to the spot to see where the ball fell. While the umps was putting the spot in his pocket to bring it in and prove to the Benver players that the ball lit fair about Penver players the players that the ball lit fair about Penver players that the ball lit fair about Penver players the players that the ball lit fair about Penver players the players the players that the player five minutes of perfectly good time was

GAME ON FOR Milk Skimmers today on a heavy diamond, because of many errors. Fairbury was going good until the third frame when a number of errors enabled the visitors to go around the path to home plate three times in the sixth inning, Fillman pulled Adams out the box California, and substituted Pate in hopes of stopping a batting rally by Fairbury. Pate finished the game registering six strike outs in three innings. Pounding out two-baggers by both teams and a fast double play of the locals, Bishop to Conboy to Conely caused rejoicing among the big delegation of Fairbury and Beatrice fans. Owing to rain no game will be played between Fairbury and Beatrice tomorrow. Brown of Fairbury secured two
