

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER. VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR. The Bee Publishing Company, Proprietor.

REMITTANCE. Remit by draft, express or postal order. Only two-cent stamps received in payment of small accounts.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily and Sunday... By mail per month... By mail per year.

ADDRESS COMMUNICATIONS RELATING TO NEWS AND EDITORIAL MATTER TO OMAHA BEE, EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

MAY CIRCULATION, 53,345

State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, ss: Dwight Williams, circulation manager of The Bee Publishing company...

DWIGHT WILLIAMS, Circulation Manager. Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me, this 20 day of June, 1915.

Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have The Bee mailed to them.

Thought for the Day. Selected by Mrs. Julia C. Hoobler. Mortal mind is a harp of many strings.

Our Omaha High school is fast coming to look like an infant college.

That $60 a year jitney license fee does strike a man up a tree as a trifle large.

Pictureque accuracy suggests that Kipling revise it to read, "The bear that runs like a man."

Perhaps a jitney owners' mutual insurance company might find a promising field open just about now.

The receding price of wheat, it is understood, does not radiate sufficient heat to expedite the "ripening" of flour.

The great American dollar is quoted at $1.02 in London, but you can not put it over the home grocer at that rate.

These hang-tight South Omaha office holders might recall to advantage a once popular comic opera refrain, "Tis the time for disappearing."

The state's share of the cost of contesting rate advances already totals $14,000. Fighting the over-reach of corporations also helps keep up the high cost of living.

The outcome of the suggestion that members of the House of Commons relinquish their salaries during the war is worth watching as a test of pocketbook patriotism.

"He seemed to be thoroughly frightened," so the police say of a poor devil arrested as a murder suspect. Well, what would he be expected to do—sing or dance?

With so many other soul-saving evangelists invading the field ahead of him, "Billy" Sunday may find nothing left for him to do when he reports for his Omaha engagement.

One hundred and sixty-seven more autos this year than last in the one Nebraska county of York. The man who wants to sell goods will find the purchasing power in Nebraska.

Colonel Bryan will seek rest and recreation in the heights of North Carolina, where the ozone of the pines promotes the resiliency of vocal chords. Meanwhile the ship of state must bump along as best it can.

San Diego, with its neighboring earthquake, draws the limelight from San Francisco's spouting mountain. The publicity bureaus of rival expositions now possess a stock of "local color" to outlast the circus season.

The Masonic grand lodge convened at Masonic hall last evening J. J. Wemple of Hastings, grand master, presiding. The convolve was addressed by General Alfred E. Pike of South Carolina, grand master of the supreme lodge.

George Gould, E. H. H. Clark and H. M. Hoxie went out on the Missouri Pacific for a tour of inspection.

Mrs. Bartlett Russell has returned from a visit to her old home in Monmouth, Ill.

J. C. Stubbie, traffic manager, and C. F. Goodman, general passenger agent of the Central Pacific, came in on a special car.

The Board of Public Works let the contract for paving Farnam street with Beres stone to Contractor Buckley for 70 cents per lineal foot.

Greater Omaha Opportunities.

The achievement of Greater Omaha consolidation is chiefly important by reason of the opportunities it will afford our own people if they will only take full advantage of them.

Although the merger of the cities does not in itself add a single inhabitant to the number already here, it ought to be a substantial factor for attracting population and capital investments.

While inviting new concerns, we must not neglect our own home industries, which should, whenever possible, have preference over outside competitors, because their growth means steadily enlarging employment for home people.

In a word—Greater Omaha, as applying to a unified city government, means mostly a greater and more unimpeded field for development.

Dealing With Great Britain.

Overshadowed by the more important negotiations with Germany, the dealings between the United States and Great Britain on the subject of overseas commerce almost has been lost sight of by the public.

The fact remains, however, that the United States has never ceased in its protest against the British order in council, which was subscribed to by the other powers of the Triple Entente, setting up a constructive blockade of German ports.

Many cargoes shipped from or destined to the United States are now being held up by British interference, and for the liberation of these representations are being made to the British government.

Just Looking Around.

Of course, the fact may have no especial significance, but Chris Gruenther visited the federal building in Omaha and made a survey of the office of the collector of internal revenue.

Nearer to the Rule.

One German submarine captain has found it expedient to very nearly, at least, observe the rule laid down for dealing with merchantmen intercepted at sea.

This practice may not be generally adopted in the course of submarine warfare on commerce, but it is a decided improvement on the methods heretofore employed.

Indiana Election Methods.

Following the lead of the federal courts, the state courts of Indiana are actively pursuing the men who have manipulated elections in the Hoosier state of recent years.

Mr. Jupiter Pluvius has stopped off in Omaha quite often enough for the present if he wants to avoid wearing his welcome out.

Under the Lid in Berlin

By Madeline E. Doby.

"DON'T go," said the American embassy at the Hague. "Americans are not wanted. You may get into trouble."

I packed my bag with beating heart. Go I would—for why live unless adventure? But I spoke no German. How could it be managed? My head was full of tales of hardship and imprisonment.

When we had secured rooms at a hotel we started forth to see the city. A passing throng filled the Friedrichstrasse, but half were soldiers.

That night we went to the Winter Garden. The place was filled with soldiers. One feature of the performance was a series of living tableaux depicting war.

From the day of my arrival to the moment of my departure, we have had one topic of conversation—Germany's virtues and America's sins.

The grain supplies are running low. Not only bread, but fodder for the animals, is lacking. The cattle are being killed and put in cold storage to save the expense of feeding.

With the fresh crops has come renewed strength. But when the fall comes, what is to be done? There is no longer a manning industry, for there is no tin.

Even in the midst of war Germany is superbly run. The lawns are weedless, the flower beds wonderful. The streets are clean.

Germany will never give in. It will fight to its last man. If pushed to the wall, all the bitterness and fear that have crept into the nation will be directed toward a gigantic effort to blow up the world.

Germany will never give in. It will fight to its last man. If pushed to the wall, all the bitterness and fear that have crept into the nation will be directed toward a gigantic effort to blow up the world.

Germany will never give in. It will fight to its last man. If pushed to the wall, all the bitterness and fear that have crept into the nation will be directed toward a gigantic effort to blow up the world.

Germany will never give in. It will fight to its last man. If pushed to the wall, all the bitterness and fear that have crept into the nation will be directed toward a gigantic effort to blow up the world.

Germany will never give in. It will fight to its last man. If pushed to the wall, all the bitterness and fear that have crept into the nation will be directed toward a gigantic effort to blow up the world.

Germany will never give in. It will fight to its last man. If pushed to the wall, all the bitterness and fear that have crept into the nation will be directed toward a gigantic effort to blow up the world.

Germany will never give in. It will fight to its last man. If pushed to the wall, all the bitterness and fear that have crept into the nation will be directed toward a gigantic effort to blow up the world.

Germany will never give in. It will fight to its last man. If pushed to the wall, all the bitterness and fear that have crept into the nation will be directed toward a gigantic effort to blow up the world.

Germany will never give in. It will fight to its last man. If pushed to the wall, all the bitterness and fear that have crept into the nation will be directed toward a gigantic effort to blow up the world.

Germany will never give in. It will fight to its last man. If pushed to the wall, all the bitterness and fear that have crept into the nation will be directed toward a gigantic effort to blow up the world.

Germany will never give in. It will fight to its last man. If pushed to the wall, all the bitterness and fear that have crept into the nation will be directed toward a gigantic effort to blow up the world.

Warns Against Mediums.

OMAHA, June 23.—To the Editor of The Bee: Under the caption of "Convinced by a Medium," a writer in your Letter Box column refers to his experience with a medium and the manifestations from shadow land.

To get right to the point in the matter, excluding practices that are fake presentations, these manifestations are the operations of intelligences and not by any means intelligences of good spirits.

Not so long ago a woman in France was given to this practice, and she called for her youngest daughter's spirit, who had died some months before.

Some time ago a missionary from England who had spent years in Africa came back to England to find the people indulging in the use of "planchettes."

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

There is a diversity of opinion as to whether or not intervention in Mexico would be advisable, and those that are concerned are waiting feverishly for Germany's reply to Wilson's note.

liquor traffic more than a quarter of a century ago. Bryan opposed it then; it is in favor of it now, but says "The time is not ripe," and that it should not be an issue in the campaign of 1916.

W. H. H. RICHARDSON.

LINES TO A SMILE.

"Pa what is scientific salesmanship?" "Selling a dress suit to a man who went into the store to buy a celluloid collar."—Detroit Free Press.

"No news is good news," remarked the ready-made philosopher. "That proverb," replied the ordinary person. "was invented before the art of censorship reached perfection."—Washington Star.

"Wait, how about that little bill?" "But I told you to call at 4 o'clock, and it is only 3 now." "I know; I wanted to catch you in."—Houston Post.

HOMESICKNESS.

Washington Star. "I've wandered through the city," murmured Hezekiah Kings.

"I've listened to the whistle an' the rattle an' the roar; An' joined the eager throng that stood around and cheered the score.

Where you kin live an' die without assistance from machinery."

The good cigar—what makes it? The finest tobacco leaves ever grown might be made into a very poor cigar. But your good cigar that draws easily and burns perfectly calls for clever workmanship as well as good tobaccos.

Best & Russell Cigar Co., 618 So. 16th St., Omaha, Distributor.

The Green Label with the Red Triangular Corner

Old Style Lager. Has that snappy flavor one gets in imported Beer. If in doubt Try it out.

OLD STYLE LAGER BEER

G. REULEMAN BREWING CO., LA CROSSE, WIS., U.S.A. LERCH & VAN SANDT, Wholesale Distributors, 311 South 17th Street, OMAHA, NEB. Phone. Douglas 2155

A Remedy For All Pain

"The efficiency of any drug" says Dr. C. P. Robbins, "is known to us by the results we obtain from its use. If we are able to control pain and disease by means of any preparation, we certainly are warranted in its use. One of the principal symptoms of all diseases is pain, and this is what the patient most often applies to us for, i. e. something to relieve his pain. If we can treat this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust in us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-Kamnia Tablets. Many and varied are these ailments. I have put them to the test on many occasions, and have never been disappointed. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. Anti-Kamnia Tablets are also excellent for the headaches from improper digestion; also for headaches of a neuralgic origin, and especially for women subject to pain at certain times in their lives. Anti-Kamnia Tablets give prompt relief, and in a short time the patient is able to go about as usual. These tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for Anti-Kamnia Tablets. They are also used for headaches, neuralgia and all pains.

SERVICE OF GOOD WORK

These are the two principles upon which you are building a reputation as a photo engraver. Any one who places orders for printing knows the value of prompt service. These tablets give prompt relief, and in a short time the patient is able to go about as usual. These tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for Anti-Kamnia Tablets. They are also used for headaches, neuralgia and all pains.