Auto Is Stolen—John Latenser of Florence, Neb., reports to the police that his auto was stolen from in front of the Bee building Tuesday afternoon. A coat, which he left in the machine, contained a check for $20.

Moorhead to Talk at Den—Harley Moorhead is to be the principal speaker at Ak-Sar-Ben den Monday night, when the Omaha Rotary club and the town of Benson are to be entertained. Moorhead represents the Rotarians.

Dying Father Wants Young—Mrs. William Appel of 428 Bennett street, Pittsburgh, Pa., has asked the Omaha police to try an adopted son, Young, aged 22 years, who was last heard from in this city three years ago. Young's father is dying.

Had Bogus Measures—M. Davis, peddler, 241 North Thirtieth street, was brought into police court by Weight and Measure Inspector John Grant Pegg, charged with using fraudulent scales and a measure not up to standard. Davis sold fish and vegetables.

Old Man Breaks His Arm—William Rock, aged 70 years, and an inmate at the county hospital, who sits alone strings on the street, fell down a stairway at the Union Pacific ticket office and broke his left arm. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital.

Concert at Kountze Park—Commissioner Hummel has authorized the Omaha Bohemian band to play in Kountze park on the evening of July 5 in connection with a neighborhood celebration to be held. This concert originally was scheduled for June 30.

May Locate Here—A. B. Chapman of the Chapman Furniture company, Des Moines, is in the city, looking over conditions with a view of locating in Omaha in the furniture business. He expressed great amazement at the growth of Omaha since 1906, when he was a resident here.

Wants His Expenses Paid—C. H. English, director of the Palmer Park system in Chicago, wired Commissioner Hummel he would come to Omaha to consider the recreation supervisorship if his traveling expenses were paid. He has been advised he must defray his own expenses.

Some Saddle—In the Farnam street window of its city ticket office the Union Pacific is displaying a $60 saddle that it will present to the champion rough rider at the Cheyenne Frontier day festivities, July 23-24. The saddle is silver mounted and was manufactured by the Alfred Cornish company of this city.

To Lay Larger Main—Manager Howell of the city water plant will recommend to the board the laying of a twenty-four-inch pipe from Thirty-sixth to Forty-eighth streets, probably along Pacific street, to strengthen the service in the southwest part of the city. This main would carry pumpage of the Poppleton avenue station.

Came Added to Faculty—R. L. Carns, supervisor of athletics in the public schools, has been added to the faculty of the vacation school for boys, being conducted by the educational department of the Young Men's Christian association. Secretary J. W. Miller, in charge of the summer school, started with four teachers, but had to increase the teaching force to seven because the enrollment was much larger than expected.

Miss Speaks Here Sunday—Flored F. Miles, city treasurer of Des Moines and a Billy Sunday convert, will speak Sunday evening, June 27, at 8 o'clock, at the First Baptist church at Twenty-ninth and Haney streets, in connection with the winter Presbyterian church. Her first announced. The afternoon meeting at 3 o'clock will be in the First Methodist Episcopal church, as originally planned. Both meetings are under the auspices of the Union Gospel Mission.

Peninsula Wins At San Francisco

Word has been received by the management of the Pennsylvania railroad system that it has been awarded the grand prize for its exhibit at the San Francisco exposition. This is the highest honor that can be conferred upon a railroad exhibitor.

Those who have visited the exposition will recall the Pennsylvania display as one of great attractiveness and interest, its conspicuous features being the two coaches joined together, side by side, to make a room of good proportions for the showing of scenic motion pictures taken along the route of the various lines of the Pennsylvania system. Other features of the exhibit are the models of passenger stations in different cities and the relief map of New York City.

The information supplied the international jury of awards at its request, to be used as a guide in rendering a decision, gives some idea of the extent of Pennsylvania service, investment and equipment. Its annual freight tonnage is equivalent to one ton carried 36,300,000 miles and its passenger business is equivalent to one person carried 4,600,000 miles. Daily receipts are $1,000,000, the daily wage outlay being $200,000 and the amount paid daily for supplies $250,000.

In normal times nearly 200,000 people ride on the Pennsylvania's payroll, or ward of 1,000,000 persons being directly and indirectly supported by it. It is shown in this information that the Pennsylvania was the originator of the safety-first movement and that it was the first to adopt all-steel equipment for its trains. It now owns nearly 3,000 all-steel passenger cars, or one-third of the entire number in the country.

The Pennsylvania system embraces 11,500 miles of line, 24,400 miles of track, 7,500 locomotives, 27,000 freight cars and 6,800 passenger cars. The system traverses thirteen states and the District of Columbia and provides transportation service for more than half the population of the United States. Its 4,300 stations include eight of the ten largest cities of the country.

Apartments, flats, houses and cottages can be rented quickly and cheaply by a Bee "For Rent".

HALF OF RAILROAD INCOME FOR WAGES

A. R. Malcolm of the Missouri Pacific Presents Figures to the Rotarians.

CLOCK IS GIVEN TO WELLER

Almost 50 cents out of every dollar of gross revenue collected by American railroads is paid out in salaries and wages to the 1,769,000 railroad employes, according to A. R. Malcolm, assistant general freight agent of the Missouri Pacific, who made an interesting talk to the Omaha Rotary club at the Henshaw on the subject, "What It Costs to Operate a Railroad."

Railroad wages had been increased 22 per cent since 1902, he said. American railroads have a total valuation of $20,000,000, of which $4,000,000,000 is owned abroad. Nebraska railroad property is worth $77,000,000, and over 150,000 carloads of freight were hauled in and through Nebraska during the year ending June 30, 1913.

Ninety Per Cent Knights

More than 90 per cent of the membership of the Omaha Rotary club now belongs to Ak-Sar-Ben. Secretary W. E. Taube announced at the meeting, Next Monday night will be Rotary night at the den, when all the 150 Rotarians, with 100 from Lincoln and many from Sioux City and Council Bluffs, will be put through the mill, after holding a meeting at the Henshaw and parading to the Gen in autos.

Two autos will represent the Rotary club in the Commercial club's good fellowship tour out in the state, starting today.

A. J. Eckers was chairman and a handsome mantel clock was presented by the club to Harry S. Weller, retiring president of the club.

Tip O'Neill Calls Meeting of Western League for Friday

In response to the demands of the club owners, President Tip O'Neill has called a meeting of all the Western league magnates for Friday at St. Joseph. Since Tipperary Tip's break into print at Chicago a few days ago when he said the Western league was on the rocks, the club owners have beseeched Tip to call a meeting, and finally the prelie has agreed to do so.

The magates will discuss the situation, suggest remedies and plan a campaign of co-operation with the commercial clubs and booster organizations in the various cities, calculated to assist the league in pulling through the season. Except in Lincoln and St. Joseph and Topeka, there will be little difficulty, unless a protracted rainy season occurs again. All of the other cities will pull through in fine shape, but in the above three cities business is bad even on bright days, and it is more for their benefit that the meeting is called.

Poor Tots to Have Real Picnic Food and the Trimmin's

The Omaha Musicians' association has donated the services of a band for the picnic today of the Volunteers of America which is to be held at Elmwood park. This picnic is arranged by Major McCormick for the children and poor mothers of the city. Two chartered street cars will leave the headquarters, 11 1/2 North Fifteenth street at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, and some autos, which have been donated for the occasion, will take out some of the more feeble.

There is no limit to the supply of real picnic food stuff which will be provided. Major McCormick had a phone call from South Omaha stating that an old lady of 80 years was anxious to attend the picnic and that she had never ridden in an automobile in her life, so she would like to combine the two great pleasures at once. She will be accommodated.

U. S. Attorney Taken for a Jitney Driver by a Pretty Girl

Frank S. Howell, United States attorney, is a courteous, accommodating and neighborly gentleman.

He is ever ready to "give a lift" to folks that haven't got an automobile.

Yesterday he started down town in his car. At Fortieth and Farnam streets he found H. A. Doud, 108 North Forty-first street, and T. W. Austin, 113 North Forty-first street, waiting for a jitney. Both are neighbors of his and he invited them to "jump in." They needed no ur-lin-k.

A young woman was standing there also, and the accommodating Frank offered her a place in the big car. She also accepted.

Three or four minutes later they arrived at Sixteenth and Farnam streets. The young woman touched Mr. Howell on the shoulder.

"I'll get out here, driver," she said. "All right," agreed the United States attorney, as he drove up at the curb.

Again the young woman touched him on the shoulder.

"Here's my fare," she said. "Oh, that's all right. No charge."

"Why-why, isn't this a jitney?" she asked.

Mr. Howell corrected the impression tactfully, as only a southern gentleman can.

Profuse thanks from young miss, who then hurried away in confusion, and who probably won't know until she reads this that she mistook one of Nebraska's foremost ornaments of the bar for a jitney driver.

Experts Say Dog Was Mad; Dr. Russum Has Gone for Treatment

Upon receipt of word from Chicago that the dog which went on a tear last week had rabies, Dr. Carl B. Russum, recent Brighton graduate and interne at Lord Lester hospital, started immediately for Chicago upon advice of Drs. Rix and Henry. Dr. Russum was one of the three bitten by the dog.

MANDAMUS SUIT IS NOW UP TO DAHLMAN

Papers Are Prepared, but Are Waiting for the Signature of Mayor, Who is in Lincoln.

OFFICIALS WONDER AT DELAY

The city legal department has prepared papers in connection with the applications for writs of mandamus to require officials of South Omaha and Dundee to surrender public funds and records.

The signature of Mayor Dahman, as one of the relators, is necessary before action will be started in district court. The mayor is in Lincoln. Latest information from the legal department is that the papers may be filed today.

Attorney Rine has returned from Lincoln and conferred with Corporation Counsel Lambert and City Solicitor Fleary regarding the form of applications to be filed.

In the meantime the officials at South Omaha are marking time and wondering why there is such delay in this matter.

Want Pay for June

Superintendent Kugel of the police department visited South Omaha with Acting Chief of Police Dempsey, to determine whether the police department of the south side will recognize the Greater Omaha authority. Members of the South Omaha force expressed a desire to become a part of the Greater Omaha department.

Secretary Bourke of the Board of Education, with several other school officials, visited the school officials of South Omaha and Dundee and made formal demand, as authorized by the school board Monday evening. Formal requests were made in good spirit. Attorney Herring, for the school authorities, will proceed in the same manner now being taken by the city legal department.

SOME DESCRIPTION OF THIS WISCONSIN LETTER

Albert Jacobson writes from Pratt Junction, Wis., to the postmaster at Omaha and modestly asks him to put the mail machinery in operation to find a man whose name he doesn't know. Albert gives these facts about the man: He has a rapch within two miles of Omaha; he has thirty-five or thirty-seven Holstein cows. He isn't quite sure just what number he has two foremen and two hired girls; as an additional aid in identification he gives the fact that the unknown is going to build a big barn this fall. Albert's handsome "nerve" has its reward, for the postmaster has sent the letter out to the several rural routes that go out from Greater Omaha substations. "If a man answering the description is around here, we'll hear of him," said the postmaster.

Daughter of Dr. Ramsey is Killed by Fall from a Horse

Miss Freda, only daughter of Dr. E. P. Ramsey of the University of Omaha, and Mrs. Ramsey, last Saturday, in Santa Barbara, Cal., while out riding, was thrown from her horse, sustaining concussion of the brain. She died Sunday, never having regained consciousness.

Temporary burial was in the Santa Barbara cemetery. Being advised of the accident, a brother of the girl, Frank F. Ramsey, Jr., immediately started for California, but did not reach there until after the death of his sister had occurred.

OMAHA MAN TO FACE THE DANGER OF SUBMARINES

The first Omasian to attempt an ocean voyage to the British Isles since long before the first of the year has booked passage for Belfast, Ireland, and expects to sail from New York July 10. The man who is going to take chances on submarines is Robert Andrews, 200 South Twenty-sixth street, who asserts that he has no fear but what he will be able to make the trip in safety. Mr. Andrews bought his ticket at the Roy Miller agency and took first class cabin.

Candy Men Kick On Rates on Peanuts

A peanut meeting was held at Hotel Fontenelle yesterday. Peanuts were the chief subject of discussion. The "discussors" were considerably agitated, but declared that they were in no danger of going "nutty" themselves!

It was all the result of railroad rates on peanuts, against which candy makers of Omaha and other river points are preparing to protest. Dave O'Brien explained that peanuts are shipped in sacks at third-class freight rates. Then the candy factories salt the peanuts, put them in bags and ship them west to their customers. When the peanuts are repacked in tins, the railroads charge first class freight rates, although the candy men insist that third-class rates should still prevail.

MANUFACTURERS TO PICNIC AT SEYMOUR LAKE PARK

Every manufacturer in Omaha is watching the weather reports with more or less concern in the hope that today will bring forth sunshine and no rain. For that is the day set for the big outing of the manufacturers at Seymour lake. The men are going out at 2 o'clock from the Commercial club, while the ladies are to go at 9.

Brandeis' Japanese Collection to Be On Exhibit Today

Curious Japanese birds, including a bird that brins and talks and the smallest dove in the world and odd species of ducks will be placed on exhibition in the Brandeis Stores today. They are part of the birds bought by Arthur Brandeis on his recent trip to Japan and destined to be placed on his country estate. Japanese dogs will also be seen. Also dwarf plants and trees and other curios of far-off Nippon.

VOLUNTEERS PROVIDE FOR FUNERAL OF POOR MAN

Major McCormick of the Volunteers of America has arranged for the burial of Robert Bruton, whose wife is with the Volunteers as a domestic. She was unable to provide for a funeral for her husband and the major has undertaken to see that services are arranged for and that a respectable burial will be completed. The funeral will be held Friday at 1 o'clock with interment at West Lawn cemetery. The horses was donated by Duffy & Johnson and the Gordon Van company furnished an automobile to take the wife and friends to the grave.

Have You Tried Paxton's Gas Roasted Coffee?

Only in Two-Pound Cans 60c Each

The main thing in your breakfast menu is coffee, and it must be good coffee. You must have a coffee of unequalled strength and flavor for your morning tonic, if you are to feel your best throughout the entire day.

Paxton's Gas Roasted Coffee is packed by automatic weighing machines in air-tight cans—deterioration is impossible.

Bulk coffee loses its strength very rapidly—in fact in Paxton's Gas Roasted Coffee in air-tight sealed cans.

Coffee roasted in ovens does not have the strength nor the flavor that Paxton's Gas Roasted Coffee has, because gas roasting in the flame is done in one-half the time of any other process, thus saving the delicate flavor and all the strength.

Unless You Say Paxton's Gas Roasted, in 2-lb. Cans, You May Get Something Else
