

Nebraska BRYAN WILL TALK ON HOTEL BALCONY

Mayor Charles Bryan Sees to It That
Committee Is Named to Greet
Ex-Secretary.

SOME ARE OUT OF THE CITY

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, June 28.—(Special.)—The welcome from the people of Lincoln calling for a grand reception to ex-Secretary Bryan when he should come marching home again tomorrow. It has been discovered, emanated from Mayor Charles Bryan of Lincoln, according to information given out by some of the former friends of the ex-secretary who have not been placed on the reception committee.

The story goes that Brother Charlie called up Chairman Jake North of the county democratic committee and suggested to him that a little judicious work on his part might result in the people giving the secretary an enthusiastic greeting when he comes home and further estimated that if Otto Meyer, John Gillman, Sam Whiting, W. B. Heater and a few more tried and true Bryan men were conferred with a good stunt might be pulled off.

It is also given out as coming from some of the "committee" that a meeting was held in the mayor's office after Mr. North had utilized the telephone successfully and a reception committee was selected. This committee is announced as ex-Postraster Ed H. Sigler, A. J. Barker, H. Herpold, P. W. Brown, A. R. Talbot, W. E. Barkley and Jacob North, who will act as chairman. Mr. Brown is very ill in a hospital and the papers state that Mr. Talbot is taking a summer outing at the lake, so the committee will be minus some of the number. Instead of speaking at the state house Mr. Bryan will talk from the balcony of the Lindell hotel.

When asked if he expected to be a candidate for governor, congress or the United States senate, Mr. Andrews said he had laid no plans and was not prepared to say anything until he had looked the situation over. He thought the prospects good for republican success all over the country and that with the right kind of candidates there ought to be a return to power of the republican party.
"Things are shaping themselves so that there will be a solid front presented by the republicans against the demagogue," said he, "and with a good man nominated for president and a good ticket all down the line there ought not to be any worries on our part."

NORFOLK DECLINES TO LEAVE LEAGUE

Emphatic Protest Sent to President
Miles and National Base Ball
Association.

SAYS FIVE TEAMS CAN PLAY

HASTINGS, Neb., June 28.—(Special Telegram.)—By telegraphic vote the State league this afternoon decided to retain York, Fairbury, Beatrice and Hastings for a four-club schedule, thus eliminating Norfolk. The club managers of the four towns because they are closer together and display a keener spirit of rivalry than any other combination. At the Lincoln meeting of the league, after Grand Island dropped out rather than submit to league discipline, the representatives of Norfolk and York cast the deciding vote. Today President Miles was notified by both that they preferred to stick, whereupon the selection of the new circuit was put to a vote.

Early Schedule Arranged

Norfolk will be given fifteen days to dispose of its players if it wishes. On June 29 and 30 York will play at Hastings and Beatrice at Fairbury. July 1 will be a double-header on York July 2 play at Hastings and Beatrice at Fairbury on July 3. Fairbury will play at Beatrice July 2 and a double-header on triced July 3. Norfolk Voices Protest

NORFOLK, Neb., June 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Norfolk will not stand for being dropped out of the State league. An emphatic protest went up from Norfolk directors this evening when it was learned that within two hours' notice the Drummers, who are holding the top position in the State league percentage table, had been dropped from the league by a telegraphic vote by four other clubs. The result of the vote caused a big stir in Norfolk and a long telegram of protest went to President Farrell of the National Base Ball association.
Another telegram was sent to President Miles of the State league, signed by the local president, stating that Norfolk would refuse to abide by the unfair action and charging that the State league directors at Grand Island last December had decided to carry an uneven number of clubs should the league number be disturbed during the season.

Trouble with Umpire

The Norfolk club has come to considerable expense this year in maintaining a crack club. The trouble lies purely between the Island players and Umpire Shuster, who had fined several of the Islanders here last Thursday.
President Miles, at a meeting at Lincoln, upheld the umpire and the directors assessed a fine of $50 against Grand Island and for refusing to play an additional fine of $50 against players. Manager Claire and Catcher Crosby were definitely suspended from the league.
The Grand Island manager claims that because of betting, his club was "robbed" of Thursday's game, but investigation here proves that his charges are false. On the other hand Norfolk claimant says connection with the Grand Island-Shuster trouble and before the local team goes out of commission a very stubborn fight will be fought.

What Men of Affairs Say

"And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee; go, and sin no more."
"Susan Lenox is a beautiful character, innocent, so far as the child is always innocent. The story of Susan Lenox, is one of those fictions that has a meaning, the only kind of fiction that moral and intelligent people have any right to spend their time over or give their thought to."
Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst

What Men of Affairs Say

"A million fathers and mothers will see this story, and read the lessons in it. Deeply they will sympathize with the child unappreciated, Susan Lenox, beautiful, intelligent, cursed with the cruel stigma of illegitimacy, fight against hunger, cold, anxiety, and the last, worse danger that threatens every helpless woman."
Arthur Brisbane

"I have always thought that David Graham Phillips was head and shoulders above us all in his profession. He was to have been really great. He is—by his last book, 'The Story of Susan Lenox, Her Fall and Rise.'"

Robert W. Chambers

"Tell me what my mother did to disgrace me!"
