Fontenelle Brand Coffee WHY—?

Blended from the rarest and finest coffees grown, it is properly aged to give it that mellowness, richness and smoothness not found in other coffees.

While Fontenelle Brand Coffee costs slightly more a pound than some others, it cost less per cup. Its full strength makes it an economical coffee.

Fontenelle Brand Coffee is clean. It is packed in sealed airtight cans, either steel cut or in the berry, according to your preference. No human hand touches it from the roaster to you.

Ask your grocer for Fontenelle Brand the next time you order coffee.
