Despite the hard fighting ever since the landing on April 25, the Franco-British expedition only lately has achieved anything notable toward strengthening its hold on the tip of the Gallipoli peninsula, Achi Baba being a small Gibraltar, bristling with machine guns, surrounded by barbed wire and terraced with trenches. This is the reason why any allied progress is hailed with great satisfaction in England.

Praise for Turks. It is interesting to note the tributes to the Turks' bravery and even gallantry paid in almost every dispatch from the British correspondents at the Dardanelles. At no time during the peninsula fighting have the Turks been accused of atrocities. #### NATIONAL FIDELITY MAY GET ON ITS FEET AGAIN

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

IMNCOLN, July 5.—(Special.)—By re funding to the New England Casualty company the sum of $12,000, the National Fidelity & Casualty company of Omaha, now under the management of the state insurance board, may be able to escape the guaranteed payment of $180,000 of bonds issued by a small railread company

The New England company was the first insurer of these bonds. It reinsured them in the Omaha company over a year or so ago. If the Omaha company should be held to pay the securities very little would be left of its assets for anyone else. If it can get out from under this obligation, it can probably get on its feet again. The railroad whose securities are guaranteed, is the Port Huron & Northern, located in Canada. It is seventeen miles long. The insurance
