ROURKES AT LAST WIN DOUBLE BILL

Cop Two Games from St. Joseph, Being First Double-Header of Years Not Lost or Divided.

THOMPSON PITCHES FINE GAME

It being Fourth of July and Sunday all rolled in one, Mr. Rourke's hired help got all their feet together and by dint of much ball playing succeeded in pulverizing the, "show me" boys in two contests. St. Joseph never had a chance in either hatfle, losing the first, 7 to 2, and the second, 3 to 0;

Despite this being the first double-header that the Greater Omahas have you this year, considerable harsh feeling was fomented by one Nicholi Nicholson, left fielder of the Missourians. Thompson, one of Father's recent acquisitions to the heaving department, got all worked up over the occasion and proceeded to I righ a no-hit game. That is it would have been a no-hit affair if Nicholl hadn't butted in the ninth.

Beats Out a Bunt.

In this last episode with one gent de-horned, Nicholi dumped a poor decrepit hunt down the third base boundary and beat the sphere to first. He would never have done this if Judge Cooley hadn't h fired a torpedo beneath his feet at the C moment the dying bunt struck the earth. But such is fate and the resulting explosion so terrified him that he reached the bag in slightly over two hops.

Aside from this annoying bit of spite work on the part of Nicholi and the judge, the Rourke clan had it all their own way and won with little effort. In the second heat it looked for a few rounds as if the Omahans were about to succumb to the activities of Old Man Bad Luck. After getting three men on bases with nobody out, in the second and third inning and never even coming close to a run, Father Rourke was in a very bitter frame of mentality.

Carry Kick in Fifth.
