

M'GUIRE IS NAMED ASSISTANT TO RINE

Has Title of Second Assistant City Attorney—Other Appointments Are Made.

JARDINE TO REORGANIZE FORCE

T. J. McGuire, attorney of the South Side, was appointed by the city council as second assistant city attorney, at a salary of $125 a month, beginning July 16. Mayor Dahlgren made the appointment and the confirmation was unanimous.

Mr. McGuire is a graduate lawyer and has been active in public affairs of the South Side, where he is well known. He has been correspondent for The Bee for some time. His appointment was preceded by many recommendations.

He will assume some of the additional work of the city legal department, whose duties have been increased since the consolidation.

Other Appointments.
Other appointments made by the mayor and confirmed by the council were:

John T. Merosi, former deputy city clerk of South Omaha, will be assistant city prosecutor, clerk of the police court and permit clerk in the South Side city hall, at $100 a month.

John Ficenec and John McEnery will be retained as superintendent and janitor, respectively, of the South Side city hall.

Mrs. Margaret Anderson will be telephone operator at the South Side branch city hall.

John Bandura and Charles Hiesman were confirmed as assistant inspector of weights and measures and assistant license inspector, respectively, South Side.

Strausser City Carpenter.

Henry Strausser was named as city carpenter at $100 a month.

William Minsoue, formerly employed in the county treasurer's office, was approved as an accountant in the department of public accounts and finance at $100 a month.

J. B. Trainor, formerly of the South Omaha plumbing inspector's office, will be retained as a plumbing inspector.

Commissioner Jardine will have some new appointments in next Tuesday morning. He proposes to reorganize his engineering staff.

ON FRIDAY BOB SMITH MAKES THIRTEEN DOLLARS

Last Friday was a lucky day for Robert Smith, clerk of the district court, and thirteen was a lucky number.

In addition to his regular every day salary of eleven dollars ($11), contributed by the taxpayers of Douglas county, Mr. Smith drew two more pretty silver disks from the same source.

The $2 is for keeps, too.
Mr. Smith easily succeeds in qualifying as a guard to aid a sheriff's deputy in taking insane patients to Norfolk. He made the trip with all expenses paid by Douglas county, and after his return col-

EIGHTY YEARS OLD AND STILL IN HARNESS

JOHN MATHIESEN.

John Mathiesen, clerk in the city license department Friday celebrated his 80th birthday anniversary. He is the only octogenarian in the city service.

He was the first superintendent of the city hall, twenty-three years ago, and has been in the license department eighteen years.

Mr. Mathiesen came to Omaha forty-four years ago. He is a native of Denmark. He is a trustee of the Danish association, of which he has been a member for thirty-three years.

This venerable citizen maintains a keen interest in affairs of the city and nation. He served in the legislature of 1887.

lected two bones from Sheriff McShane, who will be reimbursed from the county treasury.

It was perfectly regular and proper.

OMAHA PAMPHLET TELLS ALL ABOUT THE CITY

"Where to go, what to see, how to get there." That is the information given in a handsome pamphlet on Omaha just issued by the bureau of publicity with seven handsome engravings of scenes in the city. This is to be distributed throughout Omaha during the summer at the hotels and railway stations and ticket offices for the benefit of tourists. The information on the city's activity is divided into the general classes of commercial, excursion, historical, municipal.

MOTHER OF A. L. MOHLER IS ILL AT HER APARTMENTS

Mrs. E. R. Mohler, mother of the president of the Union Pacific, is very ill at her apartment in the Hamilton. The illness is of six weeks standing, and is due to old age rather than to any other cause. Mrs. Mohler is 77 years old, and is not strong enough to stand a lingering illness.

Reduction in the Price of Gas

The Omaha Gas Company announces a reduction in the price of gas, in the City of Omaha, as follows:

For all gas consumed on and after August 1, 1915, the price will be one dollar ($1) net per thousand cubic feet.

Bills will be rendered at the rate of one dollar and ten cents ($1.10) per thousand cubic feet, but upon all bills paid at the Company's office within ten (10) days after the first day of the month succeeding the expiration of the period during which the gas was supplied, a discount will be allowed, as heretofore, of ten (10) cents per thousand cubic feet, so as to make the net rate one dollar ($1) per thousand cubic feet.

By order of the Board of Directors.
July 16th, 1915.

FRANK T. HAMILTON, Pres.
