FORD TO BUILD HIS NEW PLANT HERE

Big Automobile Concern to Put Up Shop for Assembling Machines On an Omaha Site.

TAKES AN ENTIRE CITY BLOCK

Another big building for Omaha to house another big factory is practically assured by a real estate deal now under way.

The enterprise is to be an assembling plant for the Ford Automobile company in which the parts of the machines are to be put together to make the finished product for distribution in this territory, and the location is the square between Fifteenth and Sixteenth and Nicholas and Laard. It is reliably reported that the work of securing the options on the property has been completed, and the abstractors are now checking up the titles.

The assembling factory when in full operation will give employment to several hundred men on the basis of the Ford high standard of wages, and make Omaha, which has heretofore had a distributing agency, one of the most important points on the map of the Ford automobile industry.

Apartments, flats, houses and cottages can be rented quickly and cheaply by a Bee "For Rent."

Girl Breaks Arm, but Tends to Her Garden Despite the Injury

A broken arm, the result of a hard fall, is not enough to deter Lela Goodwin, a pupil in the Park school, in keeping up her summer garden. The little lass, who lives at 123 South Thirty-third street, suffered the break the other day, but she gamely informed E. E. Dale, supervisor of the Boys' and Girls' Garden club, that it would take more than a broken arm to prevent her constant attention to her garden.

CONGRESSMEN GO WEST TO INSPECT HARBORS

Sprouse Hanged for Murder of Wife

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 14.—William H. Sprouse of East St. Louis, Ill., was hanged at Clayton, Mo., a suburb, today, for the murder of his wife. His last request was to see his six children who had testified against him. They refused to come to him.

The evidence against Sprouse was circumstantial. His wife, Annie Sprouse, disappeared from their home in East St. Louis, Ill., on the night of October 21, 1914. Her body was found near Brentwood on November 14, following.

Evidence introduced at the trial tended to show that Sprouse left home on the night of October 21 with his wife and returned without her.

Forty-five minutes before he was to be hanged Sprouse vainly attempted to commit suicide by slashing his throat with a sharpened steel spring taken from his shoe. He had also eaten half a bar of soap during the night in an attempt to die.

Lightning Strikes at Police Station

Lightning struck the window of the doctor's office at police headquarters, Thursday night, broke the glass, dislodged a pair of surgical shears and split a big plate glass mirror. James Mauer of Wyoming, Neb., was in the room at the time having a scalp wound treated by the surgeons, Drs. Shook and Zimmerman, who were called out for a few moments, returned to find the man in a dazed condition, but he was soon restored and this morning is none the worse for his narrow escape.

Thomas Ripatriet Co. Saturday, July the Nineteenth

Hats! Hats!! Hats for the Young!!! Hats for the Elders!!!!

300 of them fresh from the hands of expert milliners, to be sold on Saturday at half after eight in the morning.

Old Noah Webster in talking about hats, defined them as a covering for the head—having a crown and brim. The modern Chapeau is something more than that and frequently not that at all—thus do times, fashions and definitions change. Now some of the articles called hats have no crowns, others have no brims—most of them, indeed, are so fearful and wonderfully made as to defy description.

Corsets of the finer kind. Best makes from best makers; Nipomo, Irene, Modart, Redfern, Camille, Justine, etc. All season they sold freely, some as high as $10.00; Saturday at $3.75.

Summer Nightgowns, sheer, white, soft; in crepes, etc.; also some in dainty tints and stripes; 69c each.

Little men can be fitted to Rompers, Beach Suits, Dresses, etc.; 2 to 5 yrs. Some dollar garments for 59c.

Little Women will be pleased with the dainty Summer Dresses, 6 to 17 years. Dresses sold regularly up to $7.50, at $3.95 each.

Now for the Other Extreme, we have hatted you, and if you please, we will now care for your pedal extremities—

A Shoe Sale of Baker Shoes Made for Us

ALL our women's low shoes, do you get the word all—means all in this store. No high grade low shoe withheld, not one pair reserved, whether former prices were $5, or $6, or $7. Yours on Saturday at $3.95 pair.

And now, dear friends, a word of counsel. These and the season's clean-out sales at Ripatriet's are different. People know our quality, people believe our statements. There will be a crowd, therefore. Come in the Morning Early.

UNION SUITS FOR WOMEN.

The finer kinds; beautiful, hale yarn; light or lace knee. Sold formerly at $1.50, for 85c each.

FOR THE MEN, SATURDAY.

An attractive sale of Underwear, Union Suits, of the better kind. Ribbed or Nainsook. Such well known makes as Porecanal, Imperial, Rorford, Madewell, Globe, etc., the Dollar Makes, for 69c each.

On Thursday, last, we attempted a sale of Imported Dress Fabrics; goods had been in windows a few days, but bad weather prevented many from seeing the display. The Sale was a Fizzle, and yet if the people knew, as we do, the value; how splendid for wear, for useful skirts, etc., goods would not have lasted one hour. Just for excitement Saturday, we try the value of Printers' Ink; 8:30 starting time, west aisle place, fabrics which sold not so long ago at $1.00 and $1.50, at 19c per yard.
