TENER TO INVESTIGATE QUIGLEY-EVERS FIGHT

BOSTON, July 21.-President John K. Tener of the National league is expected here today to make a personal investigation of the trouble yesterday between Umpire Quigley and Captain John Evers of the Boston team. Word of his intention to come to Boston was received at the office of the Boston club from New York.

Quigley struck Evers on the chest because he says Evers stopped on his foot during an argument. Charges against Quigley were filed with President Tener by James Gaffney, owner of the Braves, and Quigley also reported the incident.
