ROYAL blood counts for anything, little Miss Elizabeth Davis will be a future queen of Ak-Sar-Ben.
Tiny Miss Elizabeth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis and is just 5 days old. She numbers among her family connections several members of the royal household of Quivera. Her mother, who was Miss Bessie Brady before her marriage, reigned as queen of Ak-Sar-Ben; then, Mrs. Stewart, her second cousin, as Miss Gertrude Kountze, was among the earlier queens; and her aunt, Miss Elizabeth Davis, reigned as queen two years ago.

Princess Elizabeth is also the third Elizabeth in the house of Ak-Sar-Ben, having been named after her mother and aunt.
In Europe the hand of a princess who is so well connected is greatly sought after, so in democratic America we may look forward to conquests galore for little Elizabeth when she makes her debut.

Affairs at South Omaha.
Carl Beal Reported to Be Well on His Way to Recover in Lincoln Sanitarium.

PHONOGRAPH CAUSES TROUBLE.
Carl Beal, South Side high school athlete, injured as the result of a strenuous tennis ball session at the state high school tournament at Lincoln last March, while playing for the local school, is expected to be able to return home within a month. He is now confined in a private sanitarium at Lincoln and is reported to have improved wonderfully.
Friends are rejoicing over his recovery. Many of the local alumni are planning to make a special trip to Lincoln to visit the athlete. He will probably never be able to enter athletic fields.

Phonograph Sets Net.
Alfred Glock, thirty-one years, has been fined annually and even semi-annually, according to the feelings of the reading public, but the South Side police have a brand new one that no one can call a fake.
Saturday night an irate woman called the station and demanded that the police at once disperse "several drunk carousers" who were landing uninvited vocal melodies in the region of her home at Twenty-second and M streets.

The auto patrol with Sergeant Baughman, conductor Grace and Sergeant Sheehan rushed to the scene and spent fifteen minutes of sleuth-like riding up and down "alleys in the vicinity of the call. No trace of the "vocalists" could be found. The search was given up and the patrol went back, except Sergeant Sheehan, who determined to investigate the matter.

Ten minutes later Sheehan walked into the station. Baughman looked up expectantly and Mr. Sheehan announced:
"A phonograph."
The woman had explained in the argument after he had found her that she possessed the music from a phonograph in a neighboring house, as that of some drunken carousers.

Reiders Are Busy.
Three cases of alleged disorderly houses, two alleged bootlegging joints, were looked by the police Sunday. Detectives Allen and Gillen of the day force raided a saloon at Thirty-sixth and Y streets at 10 o'clock in the morning and arrested three men on charge of keeping disorderly houses. They are John Kachol, saloon keeper, Thirty-sixth and Y streets; Rode Skofden and John Herwick, laborers, living at 301 Q street.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Joe Louyorki was arrested on the charge of running a disorderly house at 271 Walnut street by Allen and Gillen. Later in the evening Captain Briggs, Detectives Zandke and Lepinski, raided a place at Twenty-ninth and U streets and arrested Jake Rakoff as proprietor on the charge of selling beer. He said that he "was merely making expenses" while celebrating his birthday. Four cases of beer were found. Three men were found in the place. No arrests were made.

Detectives John Zaloudek and Andrew Lepinski, ran into a near riot at Twenty-sixth and M streets at 9 o'clock last evening. A neighborhood quarrel at that point had brought some 300 people to the place and when the two detectives hove in view a third or more of the mob was engaged in a free-for-all.

Leo Ollis, Nick Miller and Mike Ciacca, Greeks, were arrested. The latter carried a pocketbook with $100 in gold sewed in his undershirt. The police believe that fight was started by the other two to get away with this money. Later it developed that the man was trying to pacify the mob.

Police Make Raid.
An alleged gambling joint at Twenty-fourth and Q streets was raided by the police, led by Captain John Briggs, early Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Four men, W. Rupp, laborer, 40 North Twenty-fourth street; I. Criswick, laborer, Twenty-first and I streets; John Thomas, pipe fitter, Forty-fourth and W streets; S. Hacker, laborer, Forty-second and Q streets, and Maurus Lanigan, Seventeenth and Chicago streets, were taken. A table was confiscated.

Special Tuesday.
Junior pupils of Edward D. Cullinor, South Side, will give a pleasant social Tuesday evening at the library hall at Twenty-third and M streets, South Side. A splendid program has been arranged. Several well known local people will assist. Miss Eva Yarian, daughter of Pastor S. H. Yarian, of St. Luke's Lutheran church, will give a reading entitled, "At the Phonographs." Others who will assist are: John McFaggart, contralto; William Koth, baritone, and Elmer Allen, violinist.

Committee to Meet.
B. E. Wilcox, chairman of the charter revision committee named last week, has called a meeting of the committee for Thursday evening at the South Side city hall. All Omahans residing south of Leavenworth street are invited to attend.

U. S. NOTE ANGERS THE TEUTON PRESS

Victory of Enemy Supreme Law and Neutrals Must Make Best of It, Says One Paper.

AMERICA WON'T UNDERSTAND
BERLIN, July 26.—(Overseas News Agency Dispatch by Wireless Telegraph to Sayville.)—The latest American note to Germany concerning submarine warfare was received most unfavorably by the German newspapers in which it was printed Sunday morning.

The Vossische Zeitung, in a lengthy editorial, says:
"The refusal to accept Germany's practical proposition to protect American passengers shows an absolute lack of readiness to understand the German standpoint. The principle that belligerent states must protect neutrals is untenable if applied in the fullest sense, as it would mean abdication to neutral countries. It is true that belligerents must respect neutral rights, but only provided neutrals do everything to prevent their citizens getting into situations where protection is impossible.

"Victory over the enemy is the supreme law for every belligerent. Those who render more difficult this task than does international law, support the enemy. The war on land has shown clearly that restrictions are necessary. A person who remains within a belligerent fortress or walks into a gun fire zone risks his life without the right of protection from his home government."

This journal continues:
"The same also is true of naval warfare in spite of mistaken praise for the freedom of the seas. It is granted that the ocean is free for peaceful travel, but naval battles also take place on it. Neutral ships sailing between fighting battle-ships run the risk of being hit by shells and also of being struck by mines. The submarine's only instruments are the firing of torpedoes.

Says It is Not Neutrality.
"Those who demand that Germany should conduct the war according to rules laid down by some academic professor, expect Germany either to endanger its submarines or to give up this warfare, which means the weakening of Germany in the interest of its enemy. This is not neutrality, but partisanship against Germany.

"We know today that the passengers (of the Lusitania) could have been saved, but that they were neglected. Germany regrets their death, but it has a clean conscience and has no reason to disapprove of the conduct of its submarine commanders.

"President Wilson considers the further torpedoing of British warships carrying American passengers a deliberately unfriendly act. While Germany always is glad to respect American friendship, it has conceded everything that can be conceded. One bit more would be considered humiliating by the German nation, whose armies have been victorious upon all the battlefields in the east and in the west."

The Tagliche Rundschau and the Kreiszeitung, similarly declare that the American note calls for the most decided opposition and that it requires Great Britain to show at least an equal respect for the spirit of international law as the president demands from Germany.

Out of the Question.
The Tagblatt says:
"The note shows clearly that the American government cares more for the crippling of our submarine war than for the safeguarding of American lives. The United States must realize that to change our submarine warfare is out of the question. The note proves that British influence has gained an upper hand in President Wilson's circle. We hope the common sense of the American people will prevent citizens from serving as protection for English munition ships."

The Tages Zeitung writes:
"Neutrals have rights, but so also has a great nation fighting for its life. Though maintaining submarine warfare, Germany always is willing to respect the justifiable wishes of Americans, but not at any price."

Count Ernst von Reventlow in the Tages Zeitung declares that the contents and wording far exceeds even the most unfavorable anticipations. Count Reventlow writes:
"The note uses language which will find no response with the overwhelming majority of the German nation, since it means in the last analysis, an appeal to fear, a threatening, domineering demand. The note will make a conceivably had impression among the people since it lacks utterly the friendly frankness of the German note and breathes almost hateful disregard to the German government's standpoint."

Reference to 'Free' Speech Stirs Bryan
SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 26.—William Jennings Bryan, former secretary of state, who delivered an address here today at the United Evangelists' tabernacle, resented a remark made by Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes of the Methodist Episcopal church in introducing him, that "on this occasion, Mr. Bryan was speaking without a cent of coat to the committee."

Mr. Bryan prefaced his address with the statement that the bishop's reference to a fee was humiliating. In view of the fact that he had not accepted compensation for religious addresses for the last fifteen years.

He told his hearers that ambition was an influence that helped keep office holders in the path of rectitude and that the god of fame, while a false god, had something in the points.

Concessions Made to Russ Radicals
PETROGRAD, July 26.—(Via London.)—The Russian government has decided to give socialist and labor members of the Duma representation on the military and naval committees in proportion to their numbers.

Heretofore socialist and labor deputies have not been admitted, and in consequence the constitutional democrats have refused to participate in the work of these committees. This important concession to the radicals is designed by the government to show that all political parties are harmonious in this time of war.

The Price She Pays.
There is hardly an American woman nowadays who can keep pace with the demand made upon her time and energy without paying the penalty of ill-health. It may be that dreadful backache, dragging pains, headaches, nervousness or the tortures of a displacement. It is the price she pays. To women in this condition Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound comes as a boon and a blessing. A simple remedy made from roots and herbs which brings glorious health to suffering women.—Advertisement.

Teutons Hold Million and a Half Russians
BERLIN, July 26.—(By Wireless to Sayville.)—The total number of Russian prisoners of war in the hands of Germany and Austria-Hungary since the beginning of the war, including the figures reported by the general staffs yesterday, surpasses 1,500,000 officers and men.

Motorcycle Hits Post and Racer Killed was trying, in a twenty-five-mile contest, to equal a time mark he made last year at St. Louis.
In the second lap, his pedaling chain broke. Instead of stopping, he attempted to steer with one hand and remove the tangled chain with the other. On the far side of the track the motorcycle was seen to waver and then crash into a post. Leaders were thrown twenty-five feet and almost instantly killed. The machine rebounded from the fence and continued down the track for nearly 200 yards, causing Al Zettie of San Jose to be thrown from his machine. Zettie escaped with minor injuries.
