GREENBAUM FREED ON $20,000 BOND FOLLOWING ARREST

General Manager of Indiana Transportation Company First of Six Men Named to Be Taken Into Custody.

FEDERAL INSPECTOR WITNESS
General George Uhler Testifies Before Redfield in Investigation at Chicago.

DECLARES FORCE EFFICIENT BULLETIN.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Late in the afternoon on an application to Judge O'Connor the bonds of W. K. Greenbaum were reduced to $20,000 and he was released, his sureties being personal friends.

CHICAGO, July 29.—W. K. Greenbaum, general manager of the Indiana Transportation company, which chartered the Eastland, was the first of the six men ordered held to the grand jury by the verdict of the coroner's jury. He was ordered taken into custody on a coroner's mittimus and taken to the county jail. Fear that Mr. Greenbaum might be harmed by other prisoners caused the jailer to detain him in the jail office rather than the cell room.

General Uhler Testifies.
General George Uhler, supervising inspector general of the federal steamboat inspection service, testified today before Secretary Redfield, in the Department of Commerce Eastland investigation, that no case of overcrowding or violation of the passenger list had been proved in the last twenty years. He said inspectors frequently turned away hundreds of persons who wanted to board vessels already filled. The penalty for overcrowding he said, was $200, while for a second offense the vessel's license might be revoked.

General Uhler, speaking of the Navigation department, said:
"We never have had such an efficient force as we have now. The men pass the hardest examinations we hold, and inspectors this year work daily, while previously they worked only on Sundays, Saturdays and holidays."

Confiscated Boat Now Overloaded.
Robert F. McCree, deputy collector of customs of the port of Chicago, in charge of navigation inspectors, explained that navigation inspection is entirely different from steamboat inspection. McCree told in detail of placing inspectors on the Eastland on the morning of July 28, to inspect the passengers and to make arrangements for one of the inspectors to sleep on board Friday night so that no passengers could be taken aboard without being counted.

"I went to the boat about 7 o'clock Saturday morning," said McCree. "There I saw inspectors Oakley and Lohdel in charge on the gangway. I watched them until the count reached 2,450. W. K. Greenbaum, who had chartered the boat, was also there and asked me several times about the count."

Count Includes Babies.
"When the count reached 2,450 I took Oakley's place and counted to 2,475. Then we shut off the gangway until only one"

ABOUT TO DOUBLE SHELLS SUPPLIES Sixteen Munitions Factories Estab- lished and Ten More Soon in Operation.

LONDON, July 29.—Sixteen national munitions factories have been established in England and after consultation with the French ministry, the British government has decided to set up an additional ten large establishments.

These new factories are being erected in the vicinity of the arsenals and the existing armament establishments and according to Mr. Lloyd George, when the government has completed in a few weeks the developments it is now engaged on, the supply of shells will be doubled.

To Double Supply.
These new factories are being erected in the vicinity of the arsenals and the existing armament establishments and according to Mr. Lloyd George, when the government has completed in a few weeks the developments it is now engaged on, the supply of shells will be doubled.

During three months his department had succeeded in adding nearly 60,000 men and women—nearly half of the men skilled in the making of the workers connected with armaments and they were pouring in further supplies. His department had also enrolled 100,000 volunteers, but it had been found difficult to remove the majority of these from their present employment. However, scores of thousands of skilled men, who had enlisted had been traced and arrangements were made with the war office for the return of these men to the factories.

Test of Endurance.
In moving an adjournment of the British Parliament to September 14, Premier Asquith said the war had become and would likely continue for some time a contest of endurance. The premier paid high tribute to Russia's gallantry and expressed the belief that the objective of the Italians "in a short time will be within their reach."

Mound of Flowers Built About Body of Unclaimed Little Boy

CHICAGO, July 29.—In the morgue of the Eastland dead there still lies the body of "No. 26," an 8-year-old boy, unclaimed and unidentified. Except for a hole in the knee of his trousers, there is no distinguishing mark about his appearance, and none of the thousands of the searchers for the missing can place him, so the public has claimed him for its kin.
