NEBRASKA is thoroughly well represented in the doings and saunterings of all of California.

Miss Pauline Bush of Ceresco, an erstwhile understudy for Maude Adams, is playing for the movies out in Los Angeles. She has just married Mary Pickford's manager and now plans to retire. Miss Bush is well known in Omaha, as she belongs to the Phi Beta Phi sorority and is a member of the class of 1909 of the University of Nebraska. The influx of native Omahans to the San Francisco exposition is given by reports from saunterers there who in one day's time will encounter many a number of their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Moorhead and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Baum are at the Hotel St. Francis in San Francisco. Mrs. Warren Rogers and daughter, Miss Mildred, and Mrs. Dan Wheeler and Mrs. Louis Bradford, are registered at the Plaza hotel, also in San Francisco. Mrs. Guy Cox is in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kirkpatrick of Lincoln are guests of Mrs. Kirkpatrick's uncle, G. W. Wattles, and Mrs. Wattles, at their home in Hollywood.

At the Fielding hotel are Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burgess and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Clarke.

Feil-Egutter Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Nellie Egutter, daughter of Mr. Charles S. Egutter, and Dr. Harold S. Feil of Cleveland, O., was celebrated at 1 o'clock today at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Feil, 8431 Frederick, of Temple Israel officiated. Only the family and intimate friends were present. The ceremony was performed on the spacious veranda of the Feil home. A floral screen enclosed the space, the enclosure being banked to simulate a forest effect with palms, ferns and apparatus, studded with pink gladioli. A color scheme of pink and green was carried out mainly in the decorations, pink sweet peas and feathery asparagus being used throughout the rooms.

Proceeding the entrance of the wedding party, Miss Marie Swanson played the Lohengrin wedding march, while the soft strains of the harp were heard in "The Angel's Serenade" during the reading of the marriage lines. Following the ceremony, the Mendelssohn march was played.

The bride, who was presented by her father, was most attractive in her wedding gown of sheerest ivory silk chiffon. The gown was simple in lines, with a white satin sash caught at the back with a large butterfly bow. Crystal and seed pearl ornaments were used, the bodice being embroidered in crystal designs and the skirt and draperies edged with crystal spheres. The three-quarter length Mandarin sleeves were finished with the same crystal spheres. The short bride veil was fashioned Dutch cap effect, with a tulle of illusion encircling the head and was held in place with real orange blossoms.

Instead of the conventional white wedding bouquet, the bride carried an arm bouquet of Oshadia roses of the most delicate pinkish tint and lilacs of the valley.

Mr. Stanley Feil, Dr. Feil's brother, was the best man. There were no other attendants.

Mrs. G. R. Feil, mother of the groom, was gowned in handsome black charmeuse, with overdress of black tulle. Mrs. Nathan Rosewater, also here from Cleveland, wore silver gray Georgette crepe.

Miss Anna Feil, the bride's cousin, wore a quaint flowered crepe de chine with ruffles and flutings of the white crepe. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served, the guests being seated at small tables of six covers, with ten covers at the bridal table. Baskets of Mrs. Ward roses decorated the tables, the places being marked by favors consisting of white china cupid bearing tiny boxes of rice in the pastel shades, each cupid being used as a standard to bear flowers for each place. Later the bride cut the wedding cake and herself distributed portions of the cake among the guests.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rosewater, in whose family she was raised after the death of her mother, and with whom she travelled extensively both in this country and in Europe. She is a graduate of the Omaha high school and of last year's class of Smith college, while Dr. Feil received his degree in medicine from the Western Reserve college, followed by a term of service in the Michael Reese hospital in Chicago.

Mrs. Feil's go-away suit is of midnight blue gabardine, made Norfolk style and with a white collar. With this is worn a hat of midnight blue satin to match, with corresponding trimming of white. Dr. and Mrs. Feil go to Buffalo and thence by auto to New England, where they will tour the Berkshires and the White mountains. On their return they will be at home in Cleveland.

At the Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barber will entertain at a beautifully appointed dinner this evening at the Country club. The table will be decorated with large baskets of rose asters and covers will be placed for fifty-four guests.

At the Field Club.

Miss Gertrude Keating and Miss Smith entertained at luncheon today at the Field club in honor of Miss Ellen Stewart and Miss Weeks, who leave August 1 for Columbia university, New York City, for a year's study.

A small luncheon party today at the Field club was composed of:

Mesdames—V. H. Gould, G. A. Seabury, Frank Roberts, Rudolph Koopp, William Baughn, Misses—Gertrude Branch, Alice Troxell.

Mrs. A. V. Showell gave a luncheon today at the Field club complimentary to her sister, Mrs. William Brooks of New York City, who is her house guest and for Miss Mary Hall of Chicago, the guest of Mrs. C. D. Sturdevant. A large basket of gladiolas and corseopsis decorated the table, and covers were placed for:

Mesdames—W. R. Wood, Bernard Capen, Arthur Rogers, Cleger Kbonild, Harry Nicholson, Jack Kelly, Robert Manley, Harry Laddell, F. P. Boyer, Simon Jones, John L. Kennedy, Robert Craig, W. C. Lambert, M. Slater, Charles Olson, C. D. Sturdevant, Charles Marsh, Misses—Mary Munchhoff, Mary Hall.

Parcel Post Surprise.

A "parcel post" surprise party was given Wednesday evening at S. K. Hanford's cottage at Carter Lake club for Mrs. Martha Christy in honor of her birthday. Those present were:

News of the Wayfarers.

Messrs. Harry B. Byrne, A. Hospe, George P. Gilmore and Harry Weller are in San Francisco visiting the exposition.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. W. Elster is spending a couple of weeks with her sister at Gregory, S. D. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Nichols and daughter, Cecelia, left Monday night for a month's stay in Denver, Salt Lake City and other western points.

Miss Mildred Todd and Miss Margaret Donelan of Plattsmouth will return this evening from Madison Lake, Minn. Sergeant Russell B. Hendricks of Port Leavenworth, Kan., who has been the guest of Mr. Robert Peterson, returned Wednesday to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Engler and sons, Paul and Howard, who motored in from Plainview, Neb., last week, left this morning for their home, after being the guests of Mr. Engler's mother.

Mrs. W. K. Foote and daughters, Frances and Katherine, and Mrs. Virginia Dyball and Miss Irene Dyball are spending the summer at Colorado Springs and Manitou. The Omaha colony there are planning to visit points in Colorado together.

Edmund Alexander Bobiken, who was enlisted in the United States navy at the local recruiting office, was compelled to admit in writing his application that he had been arrested. But it wasn't for intoxication or highway robbery or murder that Mr. Bobiken had been arrested. It was for "smoking on the street." He was apprehended for this awful crime in 22nd City, Ill., the city of the late Alexander Dewie. Bobiken's home is at 23rd and Douglas avenue in that righteous city.

SAFETY BUREAU CUTS DEATH RATE

Union Pacific Has but Half as Many Employees Killed Second Year After Organization.

NOT A PASSENGER IS KILLED

Only half as many employees of the Union Pacific railroad lost their lives in accidents during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1915, as lost their lives by accident in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, which was the last year before the road's bureau of safety was organized.

During the latter year twenty-eight were killed, compared with fifty-nine killed during the former year. Not a single passenger was killed on the road during the latter year. Employees injured during the latter year numbered 4,837, and during the former year 6,067. Passengers injured during the latter year were 229 and during the former year 322.

Killed and injured among employees during the two years of comparison were divided as follows:

Handy Recipes

By MRS. SARAH TYSON RORER

Stewed Cabbage. Chop the cabbage rather fine, soak it in cold water for one or two hours, drain, put it into the large baking dish, cover with boiling water, add a teaspoonful of salt, cover the dish and cook in the oven a half hour. Drain, add two level tablespoonfuls of butter and two of flour, mix, add two-thirds of a cupful of milk, stir a moment, season with salt and pepper and put back in the oven for fifteen minutes.

Panned Onions. Peel white skinned or Bermuda onions, soak them for a half hour, put them in the baking dish, cover with boiling water, add a teaspoonful of salt, cover and cook in the oven a half hour. Take them out, drain the water and save it for stock. Put two tablespoonfuls of butter into the dish, sprinkle the onion with pepper and salt, put them in the oven, uncovered, for a half hour. Serve in the dish.

Potatoes au Gratin. Chop cold boiled potatoes rather fine. To each pint allow a half pint of white sauce; season with salt and pepper, turn them into the round or oblong dish, cover with grated cheese and bake fifteen minutes in a quick oven.

Macaroni au Gratin. Boil four ounces of macaroni for three quarters of an hour, drain, throw it into cold water, mix it with a half pint of white sauce, add a teaspoonful of salt and a saltspoonful of pepper. Turn this into the round or oblong baking dish, or the pie dish, dust with grated cheese and brown in the oven.

Spaghetti Spanish Creole Fashion. Boil two ounces of spaghetti until tender; blanch it in cold water for fifteen minutes. Put two tablespoonfuls of butter into the large baking dish, add a tablespoonful of chopped green pepper, one chopped sweet red pepper and two tablespoonfuls of chopped onion. Put the dish, uncovered, in the oven while you boil the spaghetti. Cook until the onion is soft, but not brown. Add a half cupful of the solid part of a can of tomatoes, or three fresh tomatoes, a level teaspoonful of salt and a dash of pepper. Drain the spaghetti, put it into this mixture, cover the dish, cook in the oven fifteen minutes, stir carefully and serve in the dish.

Japanese Minister Resigns Because of Bribery Scandal

TOKIO, July 29.—Viscount Kanetaka Oura, the Japanese minister of justice, suddenly resigned his portfolio today. The minister's action, following as it does, the investigation instituted by the minister of justice into bribery charges growing out of the parliamentary elections last March, caused a sensation throughout Japan. The case involves several members of the Imperial Diet.

Count Shigenbu Okuma, the premier, reported the situation to Emperor Yoshihito, who sanctioned the resignation of Viscount Oura. The investigation into the charges of bribery growing out of the March elections resulted in the arrest yesterday of K. Hayaishida, who had been chief secretary of the lower house for twenty years. The arrest of Hayaishida is said to be connected with the charge against Viscount Oura, who is alleged to have received a present of $50 from a candidate for membership in the house.

FINED $100 FOR KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE

Mrs. Ida Rockafellow, 163 Webster street, was fined $100 and costs in police court for keeping a disorderly house. Two girls, Edith Bohone and Margaret Lewis, who lived at the place, testified that Mrs. Rockafellow knew that they brought men into the house, and did not object. Although the case savored of white slave traffic there was not sufficient evidence to warrant their being turned over to the government.

Women — and Immaculate Dressing

AN underarm as smooth as the face is not merely a matter of good dressing—it has become a requirement of careful grooming. Sleeveless evening gowns and filmy fabrics have imposed the smooth underarm as a detail of the perfect toilette. But, more than that, the modern woman finds the occasional use of

Milady Decollete Gillette

(Your dealer can supply you tubes) necessary as a toilet refinement.

Women are not using the more or less harmful and unsatisfactory depilatories. They know that in a few minutes an occasional use of Milady Decollete Gillette will remove all superfluous hair, leaving the underarm smooth and white. That is why Milady Decollete Gillette has been designed—a Gillette especially for women's use.

Women who have been using a Gillette for years find that it does not roughen the skin or stiffen the hair. Its use may be discontinued any time without the slightest inconvenience.

Of dainty size, in 14-K gold plate, enclosed in French Ivory case, lined with velvet and satin in Purple, Old Rose, Green or Old Gold—Milady Decollete Gillette is a most attractive toilet article. It will be found with the toilet goods in department stores, also in jewelry and drug stores and the foremost woman's specialty shops. The price is $5.
