CATTLED-Receipts were very light today, leaving the total for the four days this week at 10,755 head. This is the smallest of any recent week barring only Fourth of July week, and slightly smaller than a year ago.

Owing to the very few cattle in sight buyers picked up the best beeves at prices that were 102050 higher. They paid 39.75 for good killers, a cut off the same cattle that sold at 39.35 on Wednesday of last week. The medium to common kinds of beeves were only steady. Cows, heifers and feeders showed little or no change, prices remaining practically in the same notches as yesterday.
