

What Women Are Doing in the World

Club Calendar. WEDNESDAY—U. S. Grant Women's Relief corps birthday party, W. H. Pruitt, host.

THURSDAY—South Side Women's Christian Temperance union, Mrs. William Berry, hostess; B. L. S. club of Benson, St. Bernard's hall; Emma Hoakland flower mission.

FRIDAY—Benson Women's Christian Temperance union, Mrs. J. M. Bailey, hostess. (Notices for this column should be mailed or telephoned to the club editor before Friday noon.)

LOCAL college women are intensely interested in the newest department of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, the vocational guidance department.

The establishment of trade schools is a particular consummation desired by the college women.

Tentative plans for the state convention of the Nebraska Woman Suffrage association are already being formulated.

Mrs. H. C. Sunney, chairman for Douglas county, is planning for the observance of Lucy Stone day, Friday, August 13.

Program committees for the various local women's clubs are busily occupied these days outlining courses for the coming year.

Mrs. C. J. Roberts of the art department has completed her program on "Russian Art and Architecture," but it awaits printing until the definite meeting day of the art department is known.

The social science department, headed by Mrs. F. A. Follansbee, plans to pursue its work along the lines of child welfare.

The course of study of the home economics department awaits the return of the leader, Mrs. F. J. Burnett, who is spending the summer in Michigan.

The literature department, Mrs. C. H. Mullin, leader, has published its prospectus on the literature of Russia and Italy and Mrs. S. A. Collins, leader of the philosophy and ethics department, has announced that Modern Philosophy, with the special sub-topics of Theosophy, Christian Science, New Thought and Psycho-Analysis will be studied.

An exhaustive study of one drama, not yet selected, the modern poets, slight reading, the Italian dialect and miscellaneous work is being planned by the oratory department, of which Mrs. W. U. Lambert is the leader.

The Benson Women's Foreign Missionary society held an all-day session and had a basket luncheon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. R. S. Beasley of Council Bluffs.

The B. L. S. club of Benson will hold a business meeting at St. Bernard's hall Thursday afternoon.

The Benson Women's Christian Temperance union will hold an election of officers Friday at the home of Mrs. J. M. Bailey. All members are urged to be present since this will be the annual meeting.

Women prominent in all circles, social, business and club life, listened attentively to Mrs. Sarah Tyson Rorer, famed culinary expert, who gave lecture-demonstrations all of last week at the Orchard-Wilhelm company. Not only her

TO HELP GIRLS CHOOSE LIFE WORK—Miss Elizabeth Brenizer, Miss Bess Dumont, Miss Louise Stegner, Mrs. E. M. Sunderland and Mrs. H. E. Newbranch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae.

MISS ELIZABETH BRENIER

Mrs. H. E. Newbranch

Miss Bess Dumont

cooking wisdom, but Mrs. Rorer's wholesome personality and genuine philosophy, won the hearts of her hearers.

The next triple birthday party of the U. S. Grant Women's Relief Corps will be held Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. W. H. Pruitt, 490 Cass street.

The Nebraska Colonial Dames of America have issued in pamphlet form a stereopticon lecture by Elsie DeCout Troup, wife of District Judge A. C. Troup.

Mrs. Troup discusses Coronado's reaching Nebraska, the coming of Father Marquette, Nebraska under three flags, the fur traders, Indians in the state and Nebraska under territorial government.

Two chapters, one on "Early Trails," and another on "Transportation," and a map depicting the Mormon or California trail, are contributed by Mrs. Edgar Allen, who has been actively interested in the Lincoln Highway.

The time for the Douglas county Woman's Christian Temperance union convention has been set for the latter part of August, the definite date awaiting the return of the county president, Mrs. W. G. Whitmore of Valley, who is now in California.

The South Side Woman's Christian Temperance union will hold its annual business meeting and election of officers Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. William Berry. The meeting will be an out-door affair.

John Marshall, 2322 Indiana avenue, is being held on a complaint asked by his daughter, who tells a story of maltreatment by her father since she was 15 years old.

Robert Burns passed through Omaha on his record-breaking walk from coast to coast and back again. He is walking from Berkeley, Cal., to New York and return.

Will lecture on the history of Nebraska. Mrs. A. C. Troup

Mrs. A. C. Troup

Mrs. E. M. Sunderland

Louise Stegner

BOARDER BUYS CLOTHES FOR CHILDREN AT HOUSE

Joe Bartone, an Italian living at Seventh and Hickory, was in police court as a result of a complaint filed by his wife.

The evidence that he had not given his wife any money for a long time, and that a boarder had bought all of the clothes the five children wore when they appeared in court with their mother.

WRITES WILL COME, BROUGHT BACK DEAD

Roy Pollock Sends Word He is Returning Home, but is Drowned in Missouri River.

NO DETAILS ARE LEARNED

When the family of Andrew Pollock, 3017 Webster street, received a letter from the son Roy saying that he would soon be home from Kansas City for a visit, little did they dream he would be brought back dead.

What the circumstances of the drowning were no one knows. His body was fished from the river and the family was notified by the coroner of that place.

One of the brothers went to Kansas City immediately upon learning the shocking news and brought back the body, but few details.

Worked at Nebraska City. Roy Pollock was nearly 27 years old. He was a waterworks worker, and had been engaged in the installation of some work of this character at Kansas City and other places near there.

The body arrived at Omaha about noon, and was buried at Forest Lawn cemetery, after funeral services were held from Swanson's undertaking parlors, Seventeenth and Cuming streets.

Messenger Lad is Robbed of Ten Cents by Man With a Gun

Harold Willard, an A. D. T. messenger, was called by the Meritt pharmacy to deliver some medicine at 221 South Thirteenth street late Friday night.

Pete Baltzer and William Hefegan were on their way to their room, at 913 1/2 South Thirteenth street, Friday night, where they room together, when they were held up by two men at Thirteenth and Leavenworth streets.

Rent rooms quick with a Bee Want Ad.

Flynn to Move Into New Office Aug. 15

August 15 has been decided upon as the last day of the Warner regime in the United States marshal's office and the following day the Flynn dynasty will be set up.

BURGLAR TAKES JEWELRY AND ALSO ONE REVOLVER

Anna Estabrook, 615 North Twenty-third street, reports the theft of several bits of jewelry and a revolver from her home.

LORLYS E. ROGERS AND MRS. WALTERS MARRIED

NEW YORK, July 31.—Lorlys Elton Rogers and Mrs. Ida Sniffen Walters, who gained notoriety some months ago when she was alleged to have poisoned her two children and herself, have obtained a marriage license at Jersey City, it was announced today.

HOUSE MAY BE LITTLE, BUT THE CHICKENS WERE FINE

Mr. and Mrs. Ed M. Cox are living in a cottage at the Dietz club at Carter lake. The cottage is about the size of the letter "e" and lower case "k" boxes of a printer's case.

Advertisement for Oriental Rugs, featuring an illustration of a woman with a rug and text: 'Oriental Rugs Being Sold at Attractive Prices. Mr. N. Vartanian has just returned from the East with hundreds of beautiful, new Orientals—all sizes.'

What Effect Will the World War Have?

Sages, Philosophers, Statesmen are sitting head in hands while with hellish fury, War ravages the fairest lands of Europe, and destroys its most valuable treasures.

It's An Ill Wind That Blows Nobody Good

We can all see the Havoc, the Ruin, the Loss—but wherein is the good of it all, and what of the future? Who knows but what the dream of Tennyson may be near at hand.

One of the many branches of trade and commerce seriously disturbed by the conflict is—

The Fur Trade

Nobody will have money to buy Furs across the seas—imports practically shut off. Exports practically nil. DO YOU GRASP THE FULL MEANING OF THIS?

THOMAS KILPATRICK AND CO. will give a practical, intelligent, understandable illustration of how the

War Has Affected the Fur Industry

Monday, August 2d, wonderful display and amazing sale of Coats, Scarfs, Muffs, etc.—practically every conceivable kind of fur—at prices which when compared with the past represent about 50¢ on the dollar.

caution, we thought best to remove the most costly pieces from our windows. Mink sets for instance, worth $350, Hudson Bay Seal Coats worth five to six hundred dollars, and Russian Sable Sets which neither love nor money could procure not so long ago.

Now for the Partial List of Possible Savings at this Sale

- Marten Muffs—$16.50, $18.50, $25.00 up to $42.50; worth usually from $25.00 to $75.00
Scarfs of Marten—$10, $12.50, $15, $18, $25; worth $15.00 to $40.00
Red Fox Scarfs—Starting at $15.00 for a scarf and $18.50 for a muff, up to $55.00 per set. This fur will be very popular.
Cross Fox Sets—$75.00, $90.00 and $125. Rare bargains these.
AMERICAN NATURAL MINK—Scarfs at $10.00, $12.50, $15.00 up to $37.50. At no time in thirty years have we seen such values.
Muffs of the same $25.00, $30.00, $35.00 and higher, all amazingly cheap.
White Fox, Black Fox, Kit Fox, Rose

Fox, in scarfs and muffs; sets or separate scarfs or muffs, in Black Lynx, Natural Lynx, Hudson Bay Sable, Russian Sable, Fisher, Fitch, Caracul, Chinchilla, Beaver, Hudson Seal, Raccoon, Jap Mink, Mole, Kolinsky and other skins. Muskrat, Pony and the handsomest of Novelty Muffs and neck pieces, made from Panne Velvet and various furs.

Barrel Muffs are a new conceit—Never such a sale before—and if war ends soon, perhaps never again.

Coats of Hudson Seal. Some trimmed with Kolinsky and the skin of the little animal we all shun. Beaver, Ermine or Krimmer Collars and Cuffs; banded buttons—at $57.50 to $375.00.

A Russian Sable Set at $787.00 worth almost any price one cares to ask for it.

Pony Coats, Russian and Natural Persian Lambs, Brook Mink, Blended Squirrel.

Don't miss this sale; whether a buyer or a looker—mighty interesting.

Thomas Kilpatrick & Co.