Superintendent English Has Arranged Rules to Govern Ball Games in the Parks.

TO USE SYSTEM OF MARKING

That the winning of a game should be the only incentive in competitive athletics is a tenet not held in very high esteem by Superintendent English of public recreation.

series of playground ball and volley ball to be held this month he will endeavor to inculcate the importance of real sportsmanship and provide incentives for proper language and conduct during games. All contests will be marked on the following percentage basis: Forty per cent for winning, 25 per cent for clean sportsmanship and 35 per cent for reliability. Sportsmanship will include fouls and infractions of rules, prompt acceptance of officials' decisions and language and conduct of players during a contest. Reliability will include prompt appearance for play at scheduled hour and date, and Billings. faithfully carrying out all rules as to registration and weight. This rule is to punish trickery of any kind, whether in trying to fix schedules or running in a player or changing batting order.

Three points off a team's score will be the penalty for awearing, which provi- Columbus sion, Mr. English believes, will serve as a deterrent. He explains it may be possible under this system for a team to win in the finals, although such a team may not have won the most number of
