

Society

By MELLIFICIA. Thursday, August 5, 1915.

Of keenest interest just now to society is the Boosters' day game at the ball park tomorrow afternoon.

From all reports it promises to be a very gay and interesting event, and of twofold interest. Following the game Joe Stecher will give a wrestling exhibition and for the affair Mr. Stecher's father, mother and sweetheart will motor in from Dodge, Neb. They will be guests of honor in a box and one of our local enthusiastic fanites has donated a huge box of candy for Mr. Stecher's sweetheart. It is to be presented with some ceremony at tomorrow's game.

Mr. Robert Manley is president of the boosters' committee, and the following committee is in charge of affairs: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Moorhead, Mr. and Mrs. A. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kingsley, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cameron, R. W. Besley and Mr. Jack Byrne. Boxes will be occupied by the Commercial club, F. W. Judson, D. J. O'Brien, W. J. Foye, Congressman Lobeck, Charles Black, Howard Baldrige, Charles Metz, Fred Metz, George Brandeis, W. A. Ellis, Arthur Metz, M. J. Hinchley, Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Schiller. The Manufacturers' association of Omaha has engaged a section, as also have the Ak-Sar-Ben board of governors, Ad club, Rotary club and the Retail Grocers' association. The same admission fee is asked and it will include two attractions.

JITNEYS MUST PAY BOND AND LICENSE

City Council Passes Ordinance Calling for $2,000 Bond and Ten Dollars License Fee.

GOES INTO EFFECT AT ONCE. The city council passed an ordinance for the regulation of the jitney business, the measure to be in force at once under provision of a law which places "urgency ordinances" beyond the operation of a referendum, but does not preclude court action.

The bond requirement feature is: For a car of five passenger capacity, $2,000, and $500 additional bond for each passenger beyond that capacity. In place of the occupation tax provision in the former ordinance, the new ordinance requires an additional license fee of $10 for cars of five-passenger capacity, and $15 for cars of larger capacity. City Solicitor Fiehrly, who drew the ordinance, told the council that the jitney men believe a bond of $500 would be sufficient, but he explained that in several courts the bond provision of this ordinance has been upheld, a recent case in Des Moines being cited.

The monthly cost for the ordinary small jitney under this ordinance will be about $10.

Must Specify Routes. Before being granted permits by the superintendent of police jitney men will be required to specify in their applications the routes they expect to traverse and to state frequency of service, all of which will be subject to approval by the superintendent. In this way it is expected congestion of jitneys on any street will be avoided and a distribution of routes will be obtained.

Exceptions will be made to allow jitney men to haul passengers off regular routes or to abandon their regular routes and schedules for stated periods.

Interior lights will be required only in cars of more than five-passenger capacity, the exception being in favor of those not carrying storage batteries. Weekly fumigation of cars will be required. Permanent signs, as required by the first ordinance, will not be obligatory, but signs must plainly show routes traveled and fares charged.

The superintendent of police is empowered to revoke permits upon conviction for infraction or for violation of the provisions of the ordinance. Chauffeurs of jitneys will be required to pass examinations.

Fireman is Injured On a Practice Run

Joseph Forman, 1409 South Thirteenth street, a fireman at the Eleventh and Dorcas street barn, was painfully injured while on a practice run, when a horse fell, and his hand caught in a snap on the harness. The snap entered a finger, and nearly tore it from his hand. With considerable presence of mind he managed to tear the hook out, preventing the plunging horse from injuring him more seriously. Dr. Shook attended him, announcing that he was in no danger as long as the wound did not become infected.

Matinee Idol in California.

For the Future. Miss Mary Burdick will give a dinner of six covers Saturday evening at the Country club, complimentary to Mrs. Herbert French of Louisville, Ky.

Personal Mention. Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Weller have gone to Excelsior Springs for a few days. They will return next Monday.

MILLER SAYS HE GETS MANY COMPLAINTS FROM PARENTS

Probation Officer Miller declares that owners of motorcycles who are criticizing a statement made by him concerning the influence of these machines on immorality of young girls, misunderstood his meaning. The statement was in the nature of a reply to correspondents who had expressed their views in The Bee's Letter Box.

"I do not say that the motorcycle in itself is not an admirable vehicle," he said. "In fact I frequently ride one myself. I know there are many men of excellent character who use them. "But in the last few weeks I have received many complaints from parents and citizens concerning the use of motorcycles for the corruption of young girls. There have been more complaints of this kind about motorcycles recently than about automobiles. "I think the discussion will be beneficial in that it will call the attention of parents to what is going on."

POLICE KEEP CROWD BACK

Doors Forced to Be Closed at Big Shoe Sale Until Space is Cleared Out.

MOTHER WITH EIGHT KIDDIES

Police men had to be called in to help handle the crowd that surged into the basement of the Brandeis stores yesterday at the opening of the annual $1 shoe sale. Although a space of 11,000 square feet with broad aisles running between the tables had been provided, the crowd that came to buy far exceeded capacity.

The doors were besieged long before opening time. When they were finally admitted policemen were stationed among the people and at every stairway leading down to the basement. Those waiting to enter were held back until the floor had cleared somewhat. Then a few more would be let in.

All of the big space recently excavated under Douglas street was devoted to the sale, and a large part of the old basement.

Seventy-five thousand pairs of shoes and pumps were piled on the tables and counters, and the crowd went for them with a great rush. They were clustered around each table three and four deep. Long benches were provided, and every person was his own clerk, selecting the shoes, and then sitting down and trying them on, and finally taking them to the wrappers and paying the bill.

Up in the balcony, which overlooks the new part of the basement, a crowd of spectators watched the amazing sight. A military looking woman to the policeman at one of the stairways: "My husband and baby are down there and I must go down and find him."

"You can't go down yet, madam," replied the stern minion of the law. "He'll get along all right."

A wily little woman was there early and picked out a corner of the benches, where she seated eight small children of assorted sizes. Then she made a raid on the shoe tables, rapidly picking out foot gear to fit the various kids. Rapidly she tossed the shoes to them. "Here, Amelia, try this pair; 'Susan, see if this pair will fit little George," and so on. And finally she marched up to the desk and had about a dozen pair wrapped up. "Well," she sighed, "I hope that'll keep us in shoes till Christmas anyway."

All Houses Must Be Supplied with Screens

Health Commissioner Connell's fly screen ordinance, outlined in detail a week ago, has been introduced by Commissioner Kugel. It is proposed to require that all owners or agents of property provide adequate screen protection against flies. This applies to owners occupying their own houses or renting them to others.

JACK FAUST PINCHED AS HE LEAVES COURT ROOM

Jack Faust, colored, was before Police Judge Kubat charged with vagrancy. It was learned that he had been tried for the murder of a woman in Kansas City, but had been released, and inasmuch as he had work the judge turned him loose. He had hardly gotten out of the door, when John McGivney, a transient, rushed in to Inspector Steve Maloney and whispered something in his ear. Maloney rushed out of the court room, and returned in a moment with Jack, who had not left the building. It turned out that he was charged by McGivney with robbery, McGivney having lost $25 in cash to him Wednesday night. The exact amount of McGivney's loss was found on the person of the arrested man, and he was sent up for ninety days in the county jail.

HOWELL GOES TO LEXINGTON TO BRING BACK HIS AUTO

Frank S. Howell, retiring United States attorney, has gone to Lexington, Neb., to bring home his touring car, which he left there last week and came on by train, when he was notified that Thomas Allen, his successor in office, was in a hurry to annex the emblems of the office. Mr. Howell was assured by the weather bureau that the roads from Lexington to Omaha are now in good condition and likely to grow better. Mr. Howell used the car in going about in various parts of Wyoming and Colorado, taking evidence in a government suit.

SOUTH CAROLINANS HERE

Party of Thirty Spends Time Allotted to Omaha at the Stock Yards.

CARRY THEIR OWN PROVISIONS

The Weeks' Western tour crowd of thirty tourists spent five hours in Omaha Wednesday, on their 2,000-mile journey. Prof. C. R. Weeks, formerly of Peru Normal school, and one time professor at the University of Nebraska, now in charge of the department of agriculture of Winthrop college, Rock Hill, S. C., is conducting the party.

"Nine thousand miles in thirty-one days" is the slogan of the party. In fact that is the schedule of the party. Prof. Weeks has made up the schedule and itinerary carefully to cover the points of most interest in a big circular trip from South Carolina, through the coast country and back home.

Eighty spring chickens on ice. That is one of the items the special car carried from the agricultural college at South Carolina. Bushels and bushels of corn on the cob is another item they carried. Cream, milk and butter from their own agricultural cows they started out with, although these they have had to replenish since.

The party is traveling in a special buffet car. There are thirty in the party, made up largely of students of the college, made up, professors, business men and their wives.

Omaha was on the itinerary for a five-hour stop. Miss Doris Goette of the bureau of publicity took the party in charge while in Omaha and conducted them to South Omaha, where they were particularly anxious to get a comprehensive survey of the packing plants.

They got it, for they spent the whole five hours there, going through the hog, sheep and cattle yards, visiting the horse barns, and then taking the trips through several of the large packing plants.

Every Foot of Floor Space Filled with Buyers Yesterday

"Enlargement Sale" values were irresistible and the consequence was the largest crowd of buyers ever waited upon in an Omaha cloak and suit house. But there are enough values remaining to cause several, a half dozen, yes, a dozen equally interesting days here. The decision is firm, as originally rendered; not a single garment from the present stock will be shown in the store when remodeling will have been finished. Everything must sell BEFORE the carpenters come.
