ECHOES OF THE ANTE-ROOM

Members of Woodmen Circle Meet to Welcome Home Mrs. Manchester, Supreme Guardian.

RECITATIONS

South Omaha Grove No. 39, South Side. held a meeting Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Emma B. Manchester, supreme guardian of the Woodmen Circle, who had just returned from the national convention of the order, held in St. Paul. Minn., when she was again re-elected. Elaborate preparation had been made for the meeting and a cordial reception was tendered Mrs. Manchester.

Among the features of the meeting was the crowning of Mrs. Manchester with a crown of gold by Miss A. Fluor, and also the presentation of a solid silver berry spoon. The lodge room was beautifully decorated and the platform on which Mrs. Manchester and other guests were seated was a bower of beauty, being literally covered with flowers.

The Manchester guards of the grove escorted Mrs. Manchester to the seat reserved for her on the platform, over which hung a bell of lavender and green, colors of the order.

A splendid program was rendered for the entertainment of the guesta and monsbers, consisting of an address of welcome by Mrs. Lents, charter guardian; presentation address by Mrs. Georgia Mead, present guardian; recitations by Mrs. Sadle Wright of Benson and Mrs. Rena Fox and solos by Misses Ada Buckett and Merie Grauer.

FIND BEER BOTTLES IN ITALIAN BARBER SHOP

Vitro and Jo Camiglia are partners in a barber shop and pool hall at Sixth and "moral squad" entered their place Friday night and discovered evidence of the sale of beer. In the raid they secured about ten other Italians, who were arrested as inmates of a disorderly house, and Vitro and Jo were held as the owners. In police court they made no explanation of the presence of twenty-five empty beer bottles, and the owners were consequently fined $25 and costs each. The inmates were allowed to go their ways unmolested.

to Take Own Life

Mrs. Anna Peters, 3917 North Thirtieth street, wife of Eggert Peters, flagman on the belt line attempted suicide yesterday at about 10:30 when she drank two ounces of chloroform. She was alone at the time and had it not been for the arrival of her daughter, Mrs. C. T. Skidmore, who lives in the neighborhood and who dropped in to see her mother, death would probably have been the result.

With great presence of mind Mrs. Skidmore called several neighbors and gave her mother some first aid treatments, and a hurry call was put in for the police surgeon. Dr. Shook responded and was on the ground in a few minutes. After working over her for over an hour, she was finally brought around, and when Dr. Impey, the family physician arrived, she was out of danger,

Mrs. Peters has six daughters, all married, two of them being at the bedside this morning. She has been under the doctor's care for nearly a year as a result of stomach trouble, and is the mother of Henry Peters, who was drowned in Carter lake a little over a year ago. Despondency over ill health, probably combined with the effect of the death of her son, is given as the reason for her attempt on her life.

MRS, IDA ROCKAFELLER PINCHED BY UNCLE SAM

Mrs. Ida Rockafeller, 1618 Webster street, was taken into custody by federal officers on a charge of violation of the Mann white slave act. She was released under $3,000 ball and her prelimlnary hearing was set for August 17. She is accused of bringing a girl from Manhattan, Kan., to Omaha for immoral purposes.

BEGGAR GOES TO JAIL FOR KEEPING $5 GOLD PIECE

A beggar named Ayres was given a sentence of forty-five days in the city jail for taking a $5 gold piece that was given him by mistake. He was selling pencils about a week ago on Douglas street when a kind hearted woman went by and dropped some pennies into his hat. Among the pennies was the gold piece and she discovered her mistake after she had gone but a few steps. She returned at once to get the coin. but Ayres had changed his position and oats, three cars.

she was unable to find him. She reported the matter to the police and they located the man. He would not admit that he had gotten the coin, but the judge was convinced that he had.

Martin Sells 395 Lots in Minne Lusa

The wonderful power of newspaper advertising has been demonstrated by Charles W. Martin & Co., who have, since April 11, been calling attention to Minne Lusa addition through the real estate and display columns of the Omaha newspapers, and in that time have sold 395 lots for $277,500, a good part of it for cash, and at least a 10 per cent cash payment on each lot.

Mr. Martin is highly gratified with results and it is his opinion that when you have a good, clean proposition to offer, such as Minne Lusa, it cannot be sold without, in some way, calling the attention of the buying public to it and this result can be best obtained at a minimum expense by newspaper advertising. Mr .Martin says that almost all of the that Omaha real estate, that is well lo- parents fought and gave us the peace these lots have been sold to people from and I thought the least I could do was outside of Omaha, who are coming here to join the Canadians and go over and

NEW WHEAT DROPS TO LOWEST POINT OF YEAR

While old wheat on the Omaha market dropped only a cent and sold around $1.40 to $1.45, the grain of this year's crop went off three to six cents per bushel, due, so it is contended, to the poor quality of the offerings. New wheat dropped to 97 cents fillery at West Point, N. Y., in May of per bushel, the lowest price since the last year. He decided it would be much cereal became a trading commodity. Omaha Boy in English Hospital Asks for The Bee

"Canada," published in Toronto, in it. issue of July 24, has this story of an Omaha boy who left the trenches for " cot in a hospital:

"Mr. Fred C. Salter, European traffic manager of Canada's Grand Trunk railway system, when recently visiting the American hospital at Paignton, Devon, staffed by American doctors and nurses. and supported by the American women of London, was more than pleased at the interest they were taking in the Canadian wounded, and, as the officers in charge state, the 'Canadians give them a touch of home.

An incident happened during the visit which shows how far afield the Canadian army is drawn from. A Canadian Highlander appearing before the officer in charge of this hospital, was asked: "From what part of Canada do you come?" 'Omaha, Nebraska," was the reply. "But Omaha, Nebraska, is not in Canada! people, who were attracted to Minne "Don't blame me-'taint my fault,"" said Lusa by this kind of advertising, have the Highland soldier, "What made you bought lots.
