

ALREADY GUESSING QUEEN

High Honor is Usually Given to One of the Quivera Debutantes of the Fall.

GIRLS ARE ALL ATTRACTIVE

Social Calendar. SUNDAY—Suppers at the Country, Happy Hollow and Field clubs.

Things socially are at a low ebb just now, not due to the days of "Strus" either, as is usually the case, but the day set is summering elsewhere and the stay-at-homes have been dividing their interest between the horse races and the ball games, to the exclusion of anything more formal.

Since the carnival time is fast approaching and the queen of Ak-Sar-Ben is usually chosen from the ranks of the debutantes, considerable speculation is rife just now as to her identity.

A glance, therefore, over the coming buds of the winter is interesting. Miss Isabel Vinsonhale, Miss Marjorie McCord, Miss Marion Towle, Miss Dorothy Weller, Miss Katherine Davenport, Miss Elizabeth Carr and Miss Gertrude Metz are the possible debutantes of the fall.

Miss Vinsonhale is the only daughter of Judge and Mrs. D. M. Vinsonhale and since finishing at Dana Hall in June has been with her mother at Kennebunkport, Me. She is expected home the first of September.

Miss Marjorie McCord is another only daughter and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCord, have one of the charming homes of Omaha, which will doubtless be opened for many smart affairs for the young debutante.

Miss Marion Towle is one of two very attractive daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Towle and their pretty home in the Field club district has already become famous for its hospitality to the young people.

Miss Dorothy Weller, who is a graduate of St. Mary's school at Knoxville, where she was valedictorian of her class, Miss Katharine Davenport is the daughter of Mrs. Frederick W. Clarke, and since graduating from the high school has devoted herself to music, specializing on the organ at the Syracuse university.

Miss Elizabeth Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carr, graduated from the high school last February, and shortly afterwards went east to visit her aunt, Mrs. Joseph Garneau, in New York and Princeton.

Miss Gertrude Metz is a niece of Mrs. John R. Ringwalt and is a decidedly popular member of the Happy Hollow younger set.

Western Wayfarers. Mrs. Frank Wilcox is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George W. Tiller, in Seattle and will take the ocean trip from there to the exhibitions.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Uplike and Miss Lucy Uplike have gone to California. Mrs. Harry Dooley and children, left Saturday for the I. X. L. ranch at Ranchester, Wyo. This is twelve miles from the Eaton ranch.

Mr. Arthur Remington leaves today for Eaton's ranch in Wyoming and will also visit Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker, who are quite near there for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burns and Mrs. T. F. Kennedy came down from Okoboji Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Burns motored back to the lake Friday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tukey and Mr. Tom Davis, who will remain over Sunday with them. Mrs. Kennedy will not return to the lake again.

Return from Europe. Mr. Lewis S. Reed and family landed in New York City last Monday. Mr. Reed has resided in Paris for a number of years, but returned to the United States on account of the war.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rafferty of Syracuse, N. Y., are week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Philbin at their summer home, "Hillcroft."

Miss Lulu Shade of Hebron, Neb., is the house guest of Miss Bernice Thomas. Miss Shade is a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Miss Koller and Miss Georgia Koller of Charlottesville, Va., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Keller last week on their way to California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Sydney have as their guest, Mr. Sydney's sister, Mrs. C. W. M. Brown; Miss Edith and Mr. Robert Brown of Elmira, N. Y.
