By MELLIFLOIA. Thursday, August 12, 1915.

HAVE you ever noticed how every tallish young man simply must fib about his height? Try it on all those you know. You will find that not one will confess to a fraction of an inch less than six feet. If it is quite obvious they are five feet ten inches, they will assure you most impressively, they are just an even six feet. They fib on this score just as constantly as the woman of near 40 lbs about her age. Women seem to hate to acknowledge anything higher than 39 until they are 53.

Appropos of this rhapsody comes to mind the well known matron, who is always comparing her age with one of our strikingly handsome blond matrons. The latter's home just now is in and out of Omaha.

At all functions this youthfully disposed matron No. 1 will insist she is just so much younger than good looking matron No. 2.

Just what whim can induce this competition?

Lagerquist-Hawkinson Wedding.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hawkinson, 2515 Lafayette avenue, when their daughter, Miss Ruth Lagerquist, became the bride of Mr. Hugo Lagerquist of Des Moines.

The house was decorated with palms, plants and baskets of flowers. A very pretty ceremony was arranged for the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. A. T. Lurmer. One hundred relatives and intimate friends of the family were present.

Just before the ceremony, Mr. Howard Steberg sang, "All for Thee." Then as the music changed to the Lutheran wedding march, played by Mrs. F. E. Miller, Miss Mabel Herr and Miss Irene Palmquist came in, stretching the ribbons. Mr. Walter Johnson was best man and Miss Haghlid Lagerquist was maid of honor. Little Howard Hawkinson carried the ring on a satin pillow, and little Vivian Johnson carried a basket of flowers. The bride came in with her father and was attired in a white satin gown, with train falling from the shoulders. Her veil was held in place with orange blossoms. During the ceremony a serenade was softly played on the piano.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. Addresses of congratulations were made by Rev. A. T. Lurmer and F. E. Miller and a number of telegrams and letters of congratulations were read. During the evening vocal duets were sung by Mrs. Hawkinson and Miss Christine Swanson, and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hanson.

The bride and groom left for a two weeks' honeymoon trip through the Black Hills and will be in their own home at Des Moines after October 20. Mrs. Lagerquist is an accomplished musician, having been soloist of the Zion Lutheran church choir for several years.

At Happy Hollow Club.

Mrs. C. W. Pollard entertained at luncheon today at the Happy Hollow club in honor of her guest, Miss Fanny Hayden, of Boston, who is spending the week here en route from California to her home. Covers were placed for ten guests.

Kearney Reports to Weather Man on Road Conditions

Forecasters' report in daily receipt of reports from the Kearney Commercial club telling in detail of the showers and road conditions along the Lincoln highway from Shelton to North Platte, a distance of 12 miles. Every morning the report is received, and in it is itemized all of the bad spots along that section of the road, as well as what passing motorists say as to the general condition of the road. The report even goes so far as to tell whether or not the mudholes have solid bottom, or whether or not autos experience difficulty in getting through them.

Mr. Welch is very much pleased over the idea, which is newly started, and announces that he will be only too pleased to give any of the information to any tourists who may desire it. The idea is original with the Kearneys, and is very favorably received at the local weather bureau.

MASTERS AND ADAMS NAMED PRINCIPALS

Head of Oklahoma City High School is Chosen to Take Charge of Omaha Central High.

ADAMS TO COMMERCIAL HIGH

Joseph G. Masters, principal of the high school at Oklahoma City, has been selected as principal of Central High school, and Karl Adams, principal of the Commercial High at Springfield, Mass., will come here as principal of the High School of Commerce.

Both men were the unanimous choice of the teachers' committee of the Board of Education and Superintendent Graff. The recommendations will be made to the School board at the next regular meeting Monday evening, and it is understood that both men will be ratified by the board.

The new principals will come under one year's contract to start with. The Central High principal will receive $4,000 a year, and the principal of High School of Commerce agreed to come for $2,700 a year. They will be here as soon as they can arrange their affairs.

New Men Were Here.

The teachers' committee met Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings with Superintendent Graff, discussing various candidates and negotiations. Messrs. Masters and Adams were here Monday and Tuesday and met the committee. Mr. Masters is at present attending the University of Chicago, where he is preparing for a master's degree. Mr. Adams is in Chicago and expects to be in Springfield, Mass., Friday. Final negotiations with him were held over long distance telephone. He said he will pack his effects at once and return to Omaha with his family.

Studied in Three States.

Principal-elect Masters is 41 years of age, and graduated from the Kansas State normal in 1902 and studied at the University of California. He is five feet nine inches in height and holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago.

The Oklahoma City high school, which Mr. Masters has administered for three years, has an enrollment of 1,763 pupils and ranks high among public high schools. The school has a faculty of fifty-four teachers, and during three years has been brought up to a high standard of efficiency.

Among the recommendations submitted in behalf of Mr. Masters was one from Nathaniel Butler of Chicago, one of the foremost educators of the country. Mr. Masters will come recommended as especially interested in high school athletics and debating and equipped with a general administrative knowledge.

Adams Studied Abroad.

Karl Adams has been principal of the commercial high school at Springfield, Mass., for three years. He was head of the Blair academy at Blairtown, N. Y., four years and was in the financial department of the New York Telephone company four years. He was superintendent of the fresh air work of the New York Tribune and has studied abroad. He is six feet two inches tall and is described as being a "typical live wire."

The new commercial high principal is a graduate of Hamilton college and is a short story writer. He is married, has one child and is 35 years of age.

Mr. Masters has two children. During his recent trip east Dr. Jenkins, chairman of the teachers' committee, interviewed Mr. Masters and Mr. Adams and recommended them to the board. There were other recommendations, but the two men selected seemed to be the most available.

Superintendent Graff says he is pleased with the choice of the committee.

HELD FOR ALTERING CHECK

G. Clinton Halsey Tries to Pass a Large Check on Which He Had Changed Name.

CLERK 'PHONES FOR POLICE

Charged with an attempt to pass an altered check for $250.00, which he obtained through his position as a clerk of the Credit Clearing company, G. Clinton Halsey, aged 22 years, son of Rev. Walter N. Halsey, dean of the University of Omaha, is held at the city jail.

Young Halsey for a period of some length has been employed by the Credit Clearing company and was considered absolutely trustworthy. Following his arrest the story was learned in detail by Chief of Detectives Maloney, who relates that Halsey, who had been taking the place of the filing clerk, appropriated a check for the above amount made payable to the Omaha Clearing House. This check had come by mistake through the mail to the Credit Clearing company. Halsey is then said to have procured ink eradicator and after removing the name of the Omaha Clearing House from the face of the check placed the paper in a "window" envelope with the erased line of the check directly in the "window," from which the transparent covering had been removed.

After this he is said to have gone to the public stenographer in the Omaha National Bank building, where he represented himself as a tenant of the building, desirous of having some copying done. He handed the stenographer the envelope containing the check and had her write a fictitious name on the space as a sample of her work. From there it is stated, he went to the Burlington ticket office and presented the paper to purchase a ticket to San Francisco. The clerk became suspicious and stating that he did not have sufficient money on hand to cash the check at once, told Halsey to wait, and on pretext of phoning for more cash notified police headquarters. It was here that the young fellow was taken shortly afterward by Police Officer Charles Pipkin and Special Officer Germain.

The lad was just married last June, and according to a representative of the firm employing him, who appeared at police headquarters, received a good salary.

IS BOUND OVER ON A WHITE SLAVE CHARGE

Mrs. Ida Rockafeller, 1815 Webster, waived examination before United States Commissioner Singha this morning on a charge of violating the Mann white slave act. She has been bound over to the grand jury, and her case will come up about the last of September. Her bond was reduced from $5,000 to $2,000.

Mrs. Rockafeller is charged with having brought 13-year-old Mrs. Marguerite Lewis to Omaha from Manhattan, Kan., for immoral purposes. The case was up in police court some little time ago, when Mrs. Rockafeller was arrested for keeping a disorderly house.

In 1920 Omaha

In 1920 Omaha. Without the least inflation, Will be a city, this we know. That, just in population, Will stand well in the topmost row of cities of the nation; A fact that's largely so because It practiced annexation. A. R.

In 1920 Omaha. With loud exclamation, Reached out again to pull in more Surrounding population. Two hundred thousand was the goal It had in incubation. It scored the mark with some to spare, And held a jubilation. CHARLES R. ALLEN.

In 1920 Omaha. Will be of great dimensions. If the men of Benson and Florence, too, Still have good intentions, Make our city what it ought to be, A credit to the nation; Protect legitimate business from Narrow-minded legislation. SAM L. MORRIS.

Parsons Pays for His Dinner, but He Gets New Members

"Where is the Ak-Sar-Ben bunch taking lunch?" Thus spoke F. H. Parsons, newly appointed member of the Ak-Sar-Ben hustling committee, as he stepped into the Paxton hotel lobby. The bellhop peered into the dining room, saw a man with an Ak-Sar-Ben pin, and said, "Right in there at that table." Parsons waited in and squatted down at the table. By the time he had finished his dinner the fellows at the table one by one were dropping out. "Maybe I'm in the wrong pew," Parsons apologized as he began to introduce himself to what was left of the group at the table. "I came to attend a meeting of the Ak-Sar-Ben hustling committee. Are you it?" "We are not," came the reply.

Caught "in the right church but in the wrong pew," Parsons did not hurry away to find his committee room, but then and there flashed application blanks and began to solicit membership for King Ak. In parlor B the real hustling committee was just lighting cigars and eating back in their chairs after dessert, when Parsons came wheezing up the stairs.

The hustling committee luncheon is free, furnished by Ak-Sar-Ben, but Parsons had to pay for his lunch down in the dining room. Nevertheless the committee voted him a hero for hustling members when he accidentally fell into the wrong crowd.

The membership is now 2,463, and the total membership for the year has been limited to 3,000.

WHEAT AND CORN BOTH SHOW ADVANCE IN PRICE

On account of the milling demand wheat continued to make good gains, the advance for the day being one to three cents per bushel on old on the Omaha market, selling at $1.25 to $1.30 and new at $1.31 to $1.32 per bushel. Receipts were fifty-two car loads. Corn was one-fourth to one-half cent up from Wednesday, sales being made at 75 cents to 76 1/2 cents per bushel. Receipts were twenty-eight cars.

Don't Worry

I had eczema too but Resinol healed it in no time!

Yes, I know all about how it itches and burns—I went through torments myself, and tried every treatment I heard of, just as you are doing. But at last an old doctor told me to use Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap—then it was "Good night, eczema!" Take it from me, old man, your troubles will be over when you get Resinol on the job. Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap contain nothing harsh or irritating and can be used freely for all sorts of skin troubles, even on the tenderest or most inflamed surface. Every drug store sells them. For trial free, write to Dept. 13-S, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

SOF-TONE

a Washing Powder Makes Hard Water Soft Cleans and Whitens Clothes At Your Grocer's Pound Package, 10c

What would please the family more than a nice, new home built out in the suburbs? Some place away from the congested, hot and dirty city—out where the air is pure and where there's plenty of room for the children to romp, play and grow healthy.

Why not give them such a home? It needn't cost much—you do not have to be wealthy in order to acquire property. A small investment, then monthly payments same as you now pay rent. Bye and bye payments are completed and then you realize that you are a wealthy man, a property owner, richer by so many thousand dollars which otherwise would have been paid in rents—gone forever. Moreover your investment will have increased in value so that it will be worth much more than you put into it.

Such opportunities—chances to provide pleasure and health for the family, and at the same time to increase your wealth—are presented in THE BEE daily. Read the Real Estate columns and you are sure to see chances of profitable investment.
