OMARIA, Aug. 14, 1915.

OMAHA, Aug. 14, 1915.
Continued cancellations of wheat owned by foreigners in the United States sends wheat downward.

The letter grades of new wheat were quoted unchanged to $6 lower.
There was a fairly active demand for wheat at lower prices.
The corn narket was steady, and although there was only a few cars on the tables today, corn sold unchanged to $6 lower.

The corn narket was steady, and although there was only a few cars on the tables today, corn sold unchanged to $6 lower.

Oats suffered a big drop today and they were quoted to $2 lower.

It was said that in addition to the cancellation of wheat already made by the same popular opinion on the Board of Trade as to the cause of this wholes ale cancellation was that of the absence of ready money with which to pay for the grain inhended for them.

CATTLE—Cattle receipts today were of no consequence, but for the week the run has been very heavy, the total amount being 18,000 head. This is the largest of any recent week and larger than a year ago by 6,000 head.

This is really the beginning of the range season and a considerable properties of Concerns that generally act for the seaboard were fair buyers on the decline. The weakness of sterling exchange, though, was said to be operating as a decided check on exporters. Prices closed unsettled. %62c under last night, with September at $1.65% and December, $1.65%. Corn caned off when wheat turned weak. Trade was confined in the main to transactions between pit speculators. After opening unchanged to %0 higher, the market underwent a moderate sag. No important rally ensued. The close was steady at %0 to %6%c net decline. Lack of buying support was apparent in oats. Better weather for harvesting seemed to inspire general selling by commission houses.

Provisions gave way to some extent under the influence of lower quotations for hogs and grain. The volume of business was very small.
