Stecher and Roller May Arrange Bout During State Fair

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Aug. 23.-(Special.)-State fair visitors may have an opportunity to see a real "rassle" if the plans of Joe Stecher materialize. Stecher is anxious to take on someone on Wednesday evening of the fair who will make it interesting for him and has entered into negotiations with Dr. Roller, the Seattle husky to come to the fair and show what he has

Dr. Roller would probably make the Dodge county wonder stretch himself, at least a little, and wrestling fans in Nebraska would go a long way to see Stecher and the doctor stage a few bouts,

ARMOURS GAIN VICTORY OVER DUCKY HOLMES

The Armours invaded Ducky Holmes' park yesterday for the second time this season and again managed to bring back the bacon to the smoke-house. Graves was on the mound for the packers and kept eight hits well scattered. Good support was also given him by Clemmons at short, Curro Sullivan at second and Corcoran. Shannon pulled down a line drive off Konneck's bat with one hand.
