

WASTE IN THE WAR OFFICE

Members of Parliament to Ask for More Business-Like Administration.

GIVE YOUNGER MEN A CHANCE

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) LONDON, Aug. 28.—One of the first witnesses who will ask for a hearing before Premier Asquith's new committee to inquire into the possibility of effecting economies in the management of the British government's affairs...

committee, as outlined in an interview: "There is fearful waste going on in almost every department of the government, but most of all, I think, in the war office. SPANISH LABORERS REAP RICH HARVEST IN FRANCE

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) MADRID, July 21.—Thousands of Spanish laborers have emigrated to France since the beginning of the war, owing to the scarcity of labor there and the consequent high wages offered. As a result, there is such a scarcity of agricultural labor in Spain that wages are three times those paid a year ago.
