

Nebraska SPECIAL SESSION IS NOT PROBABLE

Democrats Are Thinking Up Some Other Way to Avoid Difficulty Confronting Them.

HARMAN MAY USE THE FEES

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Sept. 1.—(Special.)—There will probably be no special session of the legislature to correct failures of the last democratic session, according to the sentiment which appears to prevail at the state house. At first the politicians who have the state business in their hands favored the move, but when someone suggested that the calling of a special session would be an admission the last session was incompetent to handle the affairs of the state, then the staff was off.

It was hinted today that a way to avoid the difficulties had been agreed on, but publicity of the plan will not be given out until later.

There are several ways to get around the edict of State Treasurer Hall that he will not pay warrants of the pure food and other departments where a specific appropriation has not been made by the legislature.

What Might Be Done.

State Treasurer Hall might reverse himself, admit his stand was wrong and pay the warrants, which he is not likely to do.

Mandamus proceedings against the state treasurer compelling him to pay the warrants might be started.

Food Commissioner Harman might use the fees of his office to pay expenses and then turn what is left over to the treasurer. This would be in direct conflict of the provisions of the Gerdes law, a democratic law, which specifically provides that the fees of the departments shall be turned over to the state treasurer. The statutes very plainly recite: "Said fees shall in each case be paid into the treasury of the state and be credited to the general fund as provided by law in advance of the issuance of any permit."

It has been suggested that the food commissioner could withhold fees sufficient to pay salaries of the department and expenses of inspectors, but how he is to do so in face of the very plain provision of the law which prohibits even permits to be issued before the money is paid into the state treasury is hard to determine.

Each Officer Goes It Alone.
Under present conditions it would seem that every state officer and the head of every department must be a law unto himself. The opinion of the legal department of the state is only put in force when they come within the opinion of the official and the state must acquiesce.

No greater picture of democratic incompetency or inefficiency has ever been drawn than the one now before the people being painted at the state house by democratic officials, each a law unto himself, paying about as much attention to the laws upon the statutes as if they had never been drawn and exhibiting a public example that even the laws passed by themselves are recognized as incapable of being followed if the business interests of the state are to be taken care of.

It is a comical situation, were it not so serious to the state. Afraid to call a special session of the legislature because it would be an admission of democratic incompetency, they may prefer to break the laws made by themselves, simply because they are looking more to democratic perpetuity in office than to the needs of the people. They are also confronted with the problem that if a special session should be called the same members who were incompetent to run things at the regular session may not have ability enough to fix up things at the special session. The democratic administration appears to be in the position of a man "afraid to go home in the dark."

MADISON COUNTY BOY HAS SKULL FRACTURED

It is well fitted with exhibits of every kind and character. The display of grain and grass prepared under the direction of Mr. Gilman is the best ever displayed in the county. Thursday the Gothenburg band will be here and in the afternoon ex-Governor Ammons of Wyoming will speak on "Growers and Feeders."

Degree Conferred by Lodge

NEHAWKA, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—Last night Nehawka lodge No. 246, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, conferred the Master Mason degree on a candidate, after which a banquet was served by the ladies of the Methodist church. Large delegations were present from Plattsmouth, Dunbar, Nebraska City and Syracuse. The team work was put on by the local lodge and the second and third sections by the worshipful master of Plattsmouth lodge, illustrated by colored stereopticon slides. A pleasing feature of the occasion was the singing by a male quartet from Nebraska City through the ceremonies and afterward at the banquet, which was followed by toasts, songs and a smoker.

Governor Calls Upon All Citizens To Note the Dignity of Labor

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Sept. 1.—(Special.)—In order that the people might not forget that Monday, September 6, was a legal holiday and that it was also labor day, Governor Morehead this morning set his proclamation machine going and ground out the following epistle to the people: "Labor is the law of the universe. From the mote that floats in the summer breeze and lives but for a few moments, up to the shining sun that holds in its grasp the revolving planets, all proclaim the dignity of labor. The brain unused would soon become a blank and the muscles denied the privilege of use and exercise, would soon wither away. Among the oldest teachings of the scripture is the doctrine, 'If a man will not work, neither shall he eat.' Independence comes from the sense of the ability to do things and that he who knows and is capable of doing enough shall not want for any good thing. Labor in every department of industry is entitled to, and should receive its just reward. "The first Monday in September has been recognized and set apart by the people of Nebraska as 'Labor Day' and is therefore a legal holiday. The first Monday comes on the September 6 of this year, and it gives me pleasure to announce the fact and to request that it be so observed and that the people throughout the state make the day one that will commend the spirit thereof and teach the dignity of toil, instilling into the minds of our youth that there is an immortality in what men do and that no honorable calling is without its reward. "Therefore, I, John H. Morehead, governor of the state of Nebraska, do hereby proclaim that Monday, September 6, be recognized as Labor day and that all public institutions recommend it as such; that the people in the public school especially, be reminded of the day and the reasons for its institution."

DEM EDITORS TO CONFER

Meeting Called Next Tuesday in Lincoln to Discuss Shattered Party Conditions.

POOL'S RECEIPTS KEEP COMING

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Sept. 1.—(Special.)—Democratic editors will hold a session at the Lindell hotel on next Tuesday evening, the second day of the fair, to talk over matters. Members of the legislature and state officers of that particular faith have been invited and matters of importance relating to the state are expected that the party can be continued in office in spite of its record of the past and present, will be discussed.

Quick Examinations

All offices of county treasurers have been examined, according to State Auditor Smith, the time taking seven months and three weeks. The state accountant assisted in the work, examining three treasurers besides twelve county companies. The auditor believes this is the quickest time the state has been able to make in examinations.

Engene Moore in St. Louis

That former State Auditor Engene Moore has not lost interest in the state which elected him to office is evident when a letter reached the state auditor this morning from St. Louis, Mo., stating that he would like to have the auditor's last report showing the expenses of the legislature and the amount of appropriations. The record was sent him by Auditor Smith.

Valuable Objects of Art

Two paintings, said to be worth about $107,000, will be on exhibition in the art hall at the state fair next week. The pictures are the "Village Blacksmith" and "Sylvia." Secretary Mallor is feeling exceedingly fine over securing these paintings and believes that the lovers of art will appreciate the opportunity to visit the art hall and view them.

Arranging Farmers' Meeting

C. H. Gustafson, president of the Nebraska Farmers' union, was a caller at the state house to arrange for the national meeting of the organization, which embraces unions from twenty-five states covering the agricultural part of the country. The meeting will be held September 7, 8 and 9 in the auditorium. Mr. Gustafson left here today for Plainview, where he will speak at a picnic of the organization at that place.

August Good for Pool

Although the month of August is generally considered a slow month for business, Secretary of State Pool was able to take in fees totaling up to $10,940.76, an increase over the same month of last year of $4,177. Applications for the month, not counting renewals. Many are believed to be neglectful of the requirements of the law and are believed to be running under their old numbers.

Where not paid up the numbers are given to new applicants and many have unauthorized numbers.

School Teached Sues District for Wages

BEATRICE, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—Suit for $300, alleged to be due from School District No. 71, this county, as wages, was filed in the district court Tuesday by Margaret O'Brien, Mrs. O'Brien alleges that she was engaged as teacher by C. East and S. J. Headley, two directors of the district board, and that when she was ready to begin her duties she was refused admittance, and that on account of the lateness of the season she was unable to procure another school.

The suit is the result of a fight over the election of a member of the school board in that district in June, 1914, when Calvin East was chosen. On July 30 W. B. Myers was elected at a special election. The board of which Mr. East claimed to be a member hired Miss O'Brien, and Myers and his board hired Miss Besse Carrithers.

Upon hearing it was decided that Mr. East was duly elected director, but Miss Carrithers had already assumed her duties as head of the school and was allowed to finish the term.

Notes from Beatrice and Gage County

BEATRICE, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—Mrs. E. O. Kretzinger was called to Sutherland, Neb., Tuesday by a message stating that her brother, Thomas Kretzinger, had been killed on his farm near that place Monday evening. Mr. Kretzinger was 70 years of age and a Civil War veteran. He is survived by four children.

The remonstrance case of Clyde Lynch, which was to have been heard Tuesday by the village board of Du Bois, was continued over to Thursday. Lynch resides at Wymore, and recently made application for a saloon license at Du Bois.

The ministers of the city and a few volunteers donned their overalls Tuesday and inclosed the tabernacle at the corner of Fourth and Elk streets, where a series of evangelistic meetings will be held beginning September 15, to be conducted by the Rev. French Oliver of Kansas City.

Falls City Players Win

FALLS CITY, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—Nebraska City amateur tennis club, composed of James Schell, Will Campbell, Otto Schneider, Dr. John Ballard, Paul Wiseman, Fred West and Max Werner, played the Falls City amateur Sunday, which resulted in a victory of 10 to 7 in favor of the Falls City players.

SEIZED AT BAYONET'S POINT

VIENNA, Sept. 1.—(Via London.)—The Russian fortress of Lutsk has been captured by teutonic forces, it was officially announced today by the Austrian war office. The text of the announcement follows: "The fortress of Lutsk is in our hands. The Fifty-ninth regiment of infantry at the point of the bayonet ejected the Russians from the railway station and entered the town at the same time with the enemy. "The town yesterday evening was cleared of the enemy.

Town Cleared of Enemy. "Near Bally-Kamien, in north Galicia, the army of General von Boehm-Ermolli broke through the enemy line on a front of twenty kilometers (twelve and one-half miles). The double defeat forced the Russians fighting west of the stry to retreat behind the river. "The army of General von Bothmer yesterday captured Zborow. Fighting on the stry is proceeding. North of Buczacz a counter attack was repulsed."

Martin Will Bring Exhibits to Fair

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Sept. 1.—(Special.)—An exhibit of much interest to visitors at the state fair next week will be that of A. Martin of Pawnee county and will contain 22 entries made by Mr. Martin himself, all raised on twenty acres of land. Mr. Martin has attracted much attention over the country because of his ability to get the very best out of the land and at an exhibit in the south recently took 140 premiums. He holds a silver cup presented for the best exhibit in the world's exhibits.

The legislature voted $300 at the last session to enable Mr. Martin to bring his exhibit to the state fair. The exhibit nearly fills a car and is the very best thing which can be produced by the dry farming methods used by Mr. Martin.

RAILWAY COMMISSION ISSUES ORDER FOR WIRES

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Sept. 1.—(Special.)—Although Attorney General Willard Reed threw an official monkey wrench in the works of the state railway commission last week, the old machine is still grinding away, apparently unharmed, and this morning turned out its first restraining order.

The order restrains the Continental Gas and Electric company of Omaha, the Aurora Electric Light company and the York Gas and Electric light company from increasing its voltage on a transmission line running from Hampton to Aurora until the companies have received permission to build the line. The last legislature gave the railway commission authority over such lines and the commission proposes to enforce it.

The companies filed yesterday an application to extend the line east as far as Bradshaw, and it is probable that they will comply with the law and make application to build the line already built without permission.

ATTORNEY GENERAL IS PUSHING PROSECUTION

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Sept. 1.—(Special.)—Attorney General Reed received a message from County Attorney Gibbs of Lincoln county this morning stating that C. E. James, Guy James and Luther James of Sutherland were under arrest and had pleaded not guilty of the charge against them of having illicit relations with Ethel Jones, a girl about 15 years of age. The girl is a granddaughter of C. E. James and a niece of the other two. A short time ago the girl was sent to an aunt, Mrs. Anna Gladys of Kansas City. Attorney General Reed visited North Platte about a week ago and started proceedings against the men and has since located the girl in Kansas City. Yesterday he sent her transportation for herself and an escort and has received word that they will be here this evening.

News Notes of Ord.

ORD, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—The county fair is in progress and the exhibit of stock and small grains is excellent as compared with other years. Harness horses are here from all parts of the state to compete for the good purses that have been hung up and there are already enough entries 1 mile running races to warrant starters for every event. Auto polo contests will be staged Wednesday and Thursday afternoons by the same company that will show at the state fair.

Eighty-eight teachers have registered at the county teachers' institute that started a week's session Monday morning. County Superintendent Staven, who is taking hospital treatment, has arranged with H. L. Cushing and C. S. Jones to have full charge of the institute.

BEATRICE, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special Telegram.)—Farmers in this section of the state are well pleased with the warm weather, which prevails here at present. They say that with two or three weeks of favorable weather corn will be out of the way of frogs.

Over Two Hundred Million Acres Yet Subject to Entry

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—More than 11,300,000 acres of land were eliminated from the public domain during the last fiscal year by homestead and other entries and sales to individuals, the annual report of Commissioner Tallman of the general land office will show. There are still, however, open now or will be, 273,644,604 acres "unappropriated and unreserved, of which 172,967,912 acres are surveyed and the rest unsurveyed."

Nevada is shown to have the most public land, 55,474,622 acres, of which almost 30,000,000 acres are already surveyed, and Missouri, with only 925 acres, reports the least public land. Russia is Short Billion and Half On Year's Budget

PETROGRAD, Aug. 31.—(Via London, Sept. 1.)—The finance committee of the Duma presented a bill today extending the rights of the state bank to issue paper money. The committee report discussed the entire problem of meeting war expenses, stating that the sums needed were so large that all possible sources of revenue must be used—taxation, internal credit operations, an issue of paper money and foreign loans.

"For 1915," the report stated, "the estimated war expenses are 7,312,000,000 rubles ($2,621,000,000) and other expenses 2,847,000,000 rubles ($1,292,000,000) making a total of over 10,000,000,000 rubles ($5,000,000,000). "The revenue from ordinary receipts is estimated at 2,796,000,000 rubles ($1,398,000,000), while credit operations up to the present time have yielded 4,350,000,000 rubles ($2,095,000,000), leaving over 3,000,000,000 rubles ($1,500,000,000) yet to be provided.

GENERAL MANAGER SWEET SMOOTHS OVER SITUATION

FAIRBURY, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special Telegram.)—A conference between General Manager A. E. Sweet of Topeka and Fairbury Commercial club members was held here last night to determine grounds for alleged mistreatment of Nebraska division, Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway employees at the hands of Superintendent W. A. Sheahan.

While Fairbury business men admitted they were not personally acquainted with Mr. Sheahan, at the same time they confessed very frankly that they had heard he was unfair and tyrannical in dealing with men under his jurisdiction. The sentiment of business men leaned toward the 500 division employees.

Mr. Sweet's visit here was the outgrowth of a conference with a committee of organized labor at Topeka August 19. Representatives of the engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen and switchmen comprised the committee and they presented their grievances to Mr. Sweet, producing a number of statements from railroad men at Fairbury.

Superintendent Sheahan confronted his accusers and denied their allegations. This conference followed a mass meeting of union railroad men here August 15. Mr. Sweet promised the men relief from conditions existing at Fairbury.
