

Nebraska MELLOR SEES HOSTS ATTENDING FAIR

Spends Time Supplicating Weather Man to Give Week of Clear Weather.

JUDGE HAMER IS ON THE MEND

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The state fair next week promises to eclipse all former shows.

Westling fans are waking up to the fact that they are going to have an opportunity to see one of the "razzlers" that has been pulled off in the west.

Word comes to Secretary Mellor of the state board accompanied with a roll of lures to show he means business that Gus Gusterson of Kilgore, Canada, will come to the fair and attempt to put the shoulders of Nebraska's young wrestling king, Joe Stecher, to the mat.

Gus comes with some backing and considerable of a reputation. He threw Dr. Roller and wrestled a draw with Ordemann. This puts him in a class that will insure the fans a good look at a lively bout, and as he is a favorite choice of the boys who have visited the exposition at Lincoln and have seen all the wonders of the Golden Rod show.

Verona Poisoning. State Veterinarian Anderson has gone to Craig this afternoon to look up some cases of forage poisoning which has caused the death of five horses in that locality and others are in danger.

New Hamilton County Bank. Articles of incorporation of the Murphy State bank in Hamilton county have been filed with the state banking board. The capital is given as $25,000 and the board of directors consist of A. W. Hickman, H. E. Hickman, A. L. Hickman, W. L. Farley, A. L. Farley and W. J. Farley.

Go to Open Bids. Attorney General Reed and Land Commissioner Fred Beckmann left this evening for St. Paul where they will meet with State Engineer Johnson and the county board of Howard county in considering the letting of bids for a state aid bridge across the Loup at that point.

Judge Hamer Improving. Chief Justice Morrissey went to Kearney yesterday and visited a short time with Judge Hamer, member of the supreme court who has been ill for some time. Judge Morrissey says that the judge is looking pretty well and is able to walk every day from his home to the hotel, about seven blocks. He will probably not be able to sit with the court at the coming session, but will come down occasionally for consultation and will, if he continues to improve, be able to attend regularly by the time the next call is made.

State Warrants Issued. During the month of August the state auditor's department issued 1,785 warrants amounting in all to $461,617.78. Last month the total amounted to $307,818.64.
