IT IS an interesting fact to note just at this time of the year the relationship that exists in the members of the House of Ak-Sar-Ben.

The European war has brought to notice, strikingly, the relationship by blood and marriage of all foreign dynasties, and a like case exists in our own ruling realm. There are cousins galore in the house of Quivera, relationships by marriage, fathers and daughters, uncles and nieces, and I suppose some aunts.

Mrs. J. T. Stewart, one of the earlier queens, is a first cousin to Miss Elizabeth Davis, a recent queen, and Mrs. Tom Davis is a cousin by marriage to Mrs. Stewart, and a sister, by marriage, to Miss Davis.

Mr. Edward Porter Pock, one of the first kings, is the father-in-law of Mr. Joseph Barker, who ruled as king four years ago. The late Mr. F. A. Nash was an earlier king, while his niece, Miss Frances Nash, was queen four years ago. Mr. Charles Pickens and his daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Paterson, have in turn held the sceptre of Ak-Sar-Ben, and so on down the line.

Mr. and Mrs. George Francis have returned to their town house for the winter, but will continue to spend week ends at the club.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cleveland are spending a few weeks in Chicago.

Wedding Announcement.

Miss Josephine Rhoden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rhoden, was married Tuesday to Mr. Archibald Kelly. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride by the Rev. D. E. Jenkins, D. D., in the presence of the immediate families. Miss Rhoden was formerly with the Associated Charities and the last few years clerk in the juvenile court.

The young couple left for a trip to the coast and the expositions. They will be at home after October 1 in their new home at 714 Bluff street, Florence, Neb.

Engagement Rumor.

Cupid is doing things in speedy fashion at the home of the Cudahys in Chicago. With the announcement of the engagement of the two Cudahy girls, the Misses Helen and Florence, comes the rumor of the engagement of Mr. Edward Cudahy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cudahy, to Miss Ida May Swift, the daughter of Mr. Louis F. Swift. This announcement has not yet been made public, but word is to the effect that it will soon be confirmed.

Bridge Party.

Mrs. Harry Kelly entertained at bridge this afternoon at her home, complimentary to Miss Edna Halsey of Elizabeth, N. J., who is her guest for the week-end. Those present were:

Mock Wedding.

A unique party was given Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Edna Killian in Benson. The house was prettily decorated with garden flowers and a large wedding bell hung in an archway. Miss Jessie Bellie and Gladys Anderson were bride and groom, while Miss Mildred Tisel played the wedding march. The couple were met at the archway by the officiating minister, Mrs. M. Kroyer. The bride was given away by her parents, Miss Myrtle Smisor and Miss Stiger. The bridesmaids were Misses Irene Monethrop, June Grove and Ruby Davy, the ring bearer and flower girl were Isabell Hawkins and Nellie Smisor. The ushers, maids and special guests included Miss Edna Killian, Ruth Gustafson, Mary Roth, Etta Killian, Clara Nordby, Madeline Harton and Emma Plant. After the ceremony the groom presented the bridesmaids with large diamond butterfly brooches. The party left this home to go
