SEVEN MEXICANS KILLED IN BATTLE ALONG BOUNDARY

Texas Rangers Slay Raiders Believed to be carranza men in Desperate right on Rio Grange Border.

FORTY IN THE ORIGINAL PARTY

Attempt Made to Kill American Rancher Four Miles West of Old Hidalgo, Tex.

CAVALRY RUSHED TO SCENE

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Sept. 4 .-Seven Mexicans were killed in a battle this afternoon between Texas rangers on the American side and the Mexicans believed to be Carranza soldiers on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, near Old Hidalgo, Tex. The battle was still being waged at 2 o'clock.

There are said to have been forty Mexicans in the original party. They fired across the Rio Grande this morning on a Texas ranchman, near where the fighting was being waged this afternoon.

No one of the American side had been killed when the last report was received

Rangers and citizen's posse this afternoon were chasing a band of Mexicans near-Benito in the direction of the Rio Grande, according to a telegram from Soldiers and armed citizens today con tinued the search for Mexican bandits operating north of Brownsville. No additional clashes have been reported. The posses have found two bombs left by the Mexicans. They were filled with bolts and other scrap iron.

Mexicans Killed by Posse.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 4 .- A special to the Light from its correspondent with the border troops says:

"A posse of citizens led by Sheriff Vann of San Benito, in approaching a small native house at the Aguas Negras ranch, shot and killed two Mexicans, who ran and refused to halt. It was found later that a young daughter of a Mexican named Ramires had been killed by a stray bullet and her mother fatally wounded. The women were in the house which was in the line of fire." The shooting took place about a quarter of a mile from the scene of the recent fight between soldiers and raiders Thursday afternoon. The two Mexicans were identified as local residents of the neighborhood. The correspondent adds; Friday morning a detachment of the Twelfth cavalry under Lieutenant Matt | ered there. Bristol, arrested five men near Nebraska station, seven miles southwest of San Benito. One, mounted upon a mule, made a dash for liberty, but was shot down. soldiers pending instructions."

The clash is believed to be the one described in unofficial reports to Browns-
