

KAISER NOT OBLIGED TO GIVE INDEMNITY

German Government Offers to Submit Difference of Opinion in Arabic Case to Hague.

NOTE TO AMERICA MADE PUBLIC

BERLIN (Via London), Sept. 10.—In its note to the United States...

The German government is unable, however, to acknowledge any obligation to grant indemnity in the matter, even if the commander should have been mistaken...

Text of the Note. The note, which was communicated to Ambassador Gerard for transmission to Washington...

On August 17 a German submarine stopped the English steamer Dumfries, about sixteen nautical miles south of Kinsale, and was on the point of sinking the prize by gunfire after the crew had left the vessel...

When it approached it altered its original course, but then again pointed directly toward the submarine. From this the commander became convinced that the steamer had the intention of attacking and ramming him.

Gives Orders to Fire. In order to anticipate this attack he gave orders for the submarine to dive and fire a torpedo at the steamer. After firing he convinced himself that the people on board were being rescued in fifteen boats.

According to his instructions, the commander was not allowed to attack the Arabic without warning and without saving the lives of those on board, unless the ship attempted to escape or offered resistance. He was forced, however, to conclude from the attendant circumstances that the Arabic planned a violent attack on the submarine.

This conclusion is all the more obvious as he had been fired upon at a great distance in the Irish sea on August 16—that is, a few days before—a large passenger steamer, apparently belonging to the British Royal Mail Steam Packet company, which he had neither attacked nor stopped.

The German government most deeply regrets that lives were lost through the action of the commander. It particularly expresses this regret to the government of the United States on account of the death of American citizens.

Under No Obligation. The German government is unable, however, to acknowledge any obligation to grant indemnity in the matter, even if the commander should have been mistaken as to the aggressive intentions of the Arabic.

If it should prove to be the case that it is impossible for the German and American governments to reach a harmonious opinion in this point, the German government is prepared to submit the difference of opinion, as being a question of international law, to the Hague tribunal for arbitration, pursuant to article 28 of the Hague convention for the pacific settlement of international disputes.

In so doing it assumes that as a matter of course the arbitral decision shall not be admitted to have the importance of a general decision on the permissibility or the converse, under international law, of German submarine warfare.

Reaches State Department. WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—A note from Germany regarding the sinking of the liner Arabic reached the State department by cable through Ambassador Gerard today soon after the arrival of a mail report from Ambassador Page at London enclosing affidavits of the Arabic's London.

The sufficiency of the German excuse for attacking the Arabic is believed to hinge in some degree upon the movements of the liner just before the explosion.

The affidavits of survivors, it is understood, indicate that the vessel when torpedoed, was doing no more than following the tactics commonly pursued when the presence of a submarine is suspected, zig-zagging in the hope of escaping a torpedo.

Three dispatches from Berlin recently saying Germany would offer to refer the matter of reparation to The Hague were followed by intimations from high officials here that such a policy positively would not be accepted.

Flight of Ducks to South Sets In

The Northwestern officials at headquarters have received word from a dozen or so places in the southern country to the effect that, though it is very warm, the flight of ducks toward the south has set in and that the lakes and streams are covered with them.

Information comes that the prairie chicken crop is much larger than usual and that the birds are now nearly full grown. Owing to the heavy growth of grass they are harder than usual to get and that without a good dog it is next to impossible to locate the covers.

SUMMER HEAT PREVAILS OVER THE ENTIRE STATE

Rainfall weather reports indicate that this is a summer day all over Nebraska. At 5 o'clock temperature started in at around 75 to 80 degrees and commenced to climb still higher.

The railroad people assert there were but one or two places in the state where rain fell last night. Generally today it is clear, calm and warm.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

LABORER LOSES BANK BOOK

Foot ball outfits were handed out to veterans and recruits of Coach Patton's champion foot ball squad yesterday afternoon at the South Side High school.

New Jersey sweaters have been ordered for the squad by officials of the Athletic association. Negotiations are now under way to reserve the Luxus field at Twenty-fourth and Vinton streets for the contest with out-of-town teams.

When a thief got away with the bank book of Rodovan Bartich, 202 R. street, sometime yesterday while the latter was working at the Swift & Co. packing house, the owner underwent much mental strain until he was assured that the loss of the book did not mean the loss of his savings.

The Keno Club entertained at a dancing party last evening at the Ancient Order United Workmen in honor of some of its members who leave next week for various universities.

Former opening of the South Side bowling season will be made by the women bowlers of this part of Omaha this evening at the Brunswick alleys at Twenty-fourth and M streets.

The Magic City league teams are playing nightly on the Brunswick alleys in practice contests, getting ready for the season's play. Many new bowlers have registered along with those of last year and there is every indication of bowling taking a leading part in the major professional sports of the South Side.

After a lapse of four months, P. B. Tobin, who is charged with having shot Special Agent L. H. Stoley of the Burlington railroad last May, inflicting five wounds in the right leg and one in the left wrist, was apprehended early this morning in company with Joe Mullin, another member of the gang, by Stoley.

During the last four months, Stoley had been watching the gang daily and yesterday, hiding in a clump of weeds on the Gibson stretch of tracks was able to get the drop on the men as they walked slowly by conversing quietly. As the special officer leaped from his hiding place, Mullin made a dive with his hand for his hip pocket, but a sharp command checked the move.
