NEBRASKA APPLE CROP IS BIG IN SIZE AND QUALITY

WEEPING WATER, Neb., Sept. 13 .-(Special.)-It has been a good many seasons since there has been anything to equal the apples as to size and quantity that are being grown in this part of the state this year. The orchards in this vicinity present a remarkably striking appearance just now, as the fruit has taken on all its rich fall hues and the trees everywhere are loaded almost to the breaking point. Single apples weighing as much as twenty-eight ounces have been placed on exhibit in the stores here and some of the growers are vieing among themselves to see who can find the largest. The huge size of the apples is not confined to a few occasional ones that may be found, but is characteristic of practically all of the fruit. Picking has not been begun at the Lasch orchard northeast of here. At the Pollard orchard near Nehawka shipments of some of the early varieties have been made. Farther south in Nemaha county a shipment of about a carload a day is being reported from near Brownville.
