"Billy" Sunday preached last night on | to ashes, and the king and all those who the topic, "What Must I Do to be Saved?"

Text: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."--Acts xvi., 31.

The Apostle Paul lived in a perpetual state of revival. He had only to enter. The law throws us into jail for break-old Philippi, the chief city of Macedonia, ing it, Jesus came to open prison doors, and sit by the river bank and in-medi- and He offers you and me salvation full ately, we are told, Lodia, a seller of pur- and free on the one condition that we ple, listened to him and believed and was accept Jesus Christ as our bondsman.

He had only to walk the streets, and deserve it, but through Jesus Christ and the girl possessed of a spirit of divina- His sacrifices I am saved. That is, I am fon-that is, she had a devil-followed kept out of hell. Paul and Slins and said: 'These men How a Pamons Hymn Was Written. are the servants of the most high God. which show unto us the way of calva-

Pahl turned to her and said to the spirit, "I command thee in the name of Jenus Christ to come out of her," and the devil came out of her and she was free. Then her masters, those who had fattened on her gains, said: "New that the devil is gone out of her, it's ruined our Instead of thanking God that the girl had been set free by the power of God in the man Paul, they were angry. They seized on Paul and Silas and led them off to the magistrate and said: These men, being Jews, do exceeding trouble in our city and teach customs which are not lawful for us to receive neither to observe, being Romans. Certainly, the law "Thou snalt not commit solutory." troubles men who are used to keeping somebody on the side. Certainly the command to have no more than one wife troubles an old Mormon, Old Demetrius didn't like Paul's teaching either. Demetrius was a silveremith at Ephesus and he made little attva-

shrines for Diana and sold them; it brought him no small gain. When Paul preached the people turned tway from Diana and worshipped Jesus and Demetrius didn't sell many shrines and it seemed as though he would have to have a fire sale. He called the others who made shrites together and said: Our business is being hurt. If these men stay

In a find Susiness.

Every distiller, every brewer, every saloon, every bartander, every gambler, every redlight woman cries out, "Rights, rights, rights," as a great tidal wave of religion aweeps over the commun'ty, 'Our business is hurt!"

That shows their business is all wrong If you're in such a business that reliaton cuts your revenue, you're a low-down dog and you are in a dirty, stinking

Now, Paul and Silas and ruined the business of the masters of the girl out of whom the spirit was cast and they were angry. They made complaint to the maglatrate and it seemed that he was sub-

So they seized Paul and Silas and they sent them off to prison and when they were there they put their feet in the

Learn this. You can imprison the messelegor, but you can't lock up the mes

Learn this! You can sharpen a knife, but you can't cut off a sunbeam, Learn this! You can shut your eyes but it won't turn the bullet that is spredien to your heart. They put Paul and Silas in jail and at dinight they prayed and sang praises unto God, so that all the prisoners heard them Prayer must have made a strange found in that old Philippian jall, where there had been only blasphemy.

Then there was a great earthquake. The very foundation of the old Jall shook and all the doors were open and every one's bonds were loosed.

The jailer was afraid. He thought that all the prisoners would escape and that if would cost him his life, Under the old Roman law a jailer whose prisoners got away had to give up his life as the penalty, and he was scared. He drew his sword and was about to kill himself, when Paul said: "Do thyself no harm, for we are all here."

Refusing Gospey Doesn't Change It. The jailer heard him, but he was from Missouri. They'd have to show him that all the doors were open and all the prisoners were loosed and nobedy would

He would not believe it, so he called for a light. He looked and sow that they were all there, just as Paul and Slas said, and he fell down at the feet of Paul and Silas, and said, "Sire, what must I do to be saved?" What did Paul say?

Did he say, "Go to a university and get an education?" Did he say, "Go and corner the wheat Lid he say, "Go get elected to an office?

Revien the tariff, put wool on the free list, own 160 acres of anthracite?" Did he way, "Go and be a captain of

No! Paul looked down on the Juster and said, "Believe on the Lord Jeaus Christ and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." Fear Makes Men Good.

Men fear punishment and are hold in restraint because of the penalty that is We'd all have to pay the penalty for sine if it weren't for Jeaus Christ. He paid the penalty for us all and if we betteve in Him. God will forgive us the penalties we owe.

King Charles V was losned a large sum of money by a rich merchant of Antwerp, and when the felt fell due he couldn't meet the obligation.

The merchant invited the king to ban quet. He had a silver vessel with fire upon it prepared and had it brought in the banqueting hall and brought near the Then he to the note, or bond,

Various Forms Of Headache

She tossed from side to side of her bod, thinking of what the old minister had sche," I said.

to ashes, and the king and all those who were present thanked him and said how lucky it was that the debt was awed to a man so kind and generous.

Inst as I am, without one plea But that Thy blepd was shed for me, And that Thou bid'st me come to Thee-O, Lamb of God, I come, I come!

Believe on Jesus Christ and God will burn every record of the debts of punish-

Then I no longer fear the penalty.

Jeans Christ, how much good you could mean to offend you," but she walked

The dinner came to an end and the

ment we owe him.

away from him.

That is how Charlotte Elliott was conbe written.

Know When Converted.

Some have a deeper conviction of sin before they are converted than after they are converted. With some it is the other way. Some know when they are converted and some don't.

Some people are emotional. Some are demonstrative. Some will ery easily. Some are cold and can't be moved to emotion, A man Jumped up in a meeting and selves. Caesar Milan was an old minister and asked whether he could be saved when was a guest at a dinner in England he hadn't shed a tear for forty that was given for a lady who was just Even as he spoke he began to shed tears maling her debut that evening. She was It's all a matter of how you're made. a musician, and she played and sang most beautifully that night. I am vehement, and I serve God with the same vehemence that I served the devil He went over to her and said: "If you when I went down the line. would only use that ability of yours for

Two men came to the front in a meeting in Eigin. Iil. The first man sat down and put his head between his hands and groaned and after a while fell down in the sawdust and rolled there. I said to He said to ner: "I am sorry-I didn't a preacher-Farmelow was his name Farmelow, what's the mater with that preacher went to her room, but she couldn't sleep.

The other one was a well-dressed man. He had a silk hat in his hand and car-Finally she got up and got a pencil ried a silk-lined overcoat and had a pin with a diamond as big as a hickorynut. He took my hand with a smile and sat down and looked at me just as calmly as you please.

Would you say that the man in the verted and how "Just as I Am" came to sawdust was more completely converted than the other man was? No. One boohoose easily and the other didn't. That's

> Now He Knows Blackness of Sin. Stanley tells us that he found men in Africa who never knew that they were black until they saw white men. Then, when they saw Stanley and the men who came with they knew them to be repre-

We know more about the blackness of sin when we see Jesus. I know more army about sin now than I used to know. I know more about God, but I'll never know it all until God wives away this smoky film from my eyes and I can see face to face The Philippian jafler fell down before Paul and Silas. He was sorry for his sins, and he showed it by his attitude. There must be contrition before there can be forgiveness. 'It's no matter whether a man sheds tears or not, if he is sorry for his sins and accepts Jesus he is saved then and there.

etent, Omnipresent and Omniscient God. He is saved instantly, because it is the law of God. It is not the theory or the speculation of any man. It is God's law, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." Some of you may that in order to accept Jesus you must have different surroundings. You think you could do it better in some place other than Omaha.

You can be saved here as well as in any place on earth. I say, "My watch doesn't run. It needs needs a new mainspring, and that's what only way to get this mixture was to not a new suit.

sentatives of a race whiter than themother surroundings, so he purchased him large bottle of this famous old recipe a lieutenant's commission in the Passian for about 50 cents.

This was during the Crimean war, when Russia was fighting the ailies.

Awoke to Find His Debts Paid. The young man got into bad company and went into debt. One night he took a pencil and paper and wrote down a list of all his debts. He thought that he never could pay them. Then he fell

The crar was there and was walking about the fortifications that night and Rent Your Vacant House by (Continued on Page Five, Column One.)

Be Pretty! Turn Gray Hair Dark

Look young! Nobody can tell if you use Grandmother's simple recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tee and S. lphur, properly compounded, new surroundings. I'll put it in this brings back the natural color and justre other pocket, or I'll put it here, or here to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp It doesn't need new surroundings. It and stops falling hair. Years ago the the sinner needs. You need a new heart, make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at Once upon a time a father had Jent any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and fool idea. He thought his son needed Sulphur Compound," you will get a

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell you that you darkened your bair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disap pears, and after another application two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glassy .- Advertisement,

Use of Bee Want Ads

4% ON SAVINGS 4%

Speaking of the great inventors-

How about the man who invented interest? We pay 4%, compounded semi-annually on Savings Accounts and Time Deposits.

PACKERS NATIONAL BANK

HOTELS.

T POWELL ST. AT MARKET EVERY CONVENIENCE AND COMPORT EUROPEAN PLAN, $1.50 AND UPWARD FREE Auto Bus Moety Trains and Steamers

Oh, that Wallingford, the irrepressible,—he broke loose in the papers the other day and had all the city wondering what in the world he was getting at. "Invest a dime in the movies and make $158,976.23," "Watch our herring lay 1,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 eggs and watch us monopolize the herring market."

But with regret it is announced that Mr. Wallingford's plan to get 10,-000 people to invest a dime is delayed, owing to the panic in the herring schools, due to the Alsatian-Dalmatian conflict. But Mr. Wallingford, in the generosity of his heart has been persuaded on to do som thing else for you, and this is it.

No, a dime now won't make you a fortune, but a dime invested will bring you a regular harvest of good laughs, ripping, hearty, genuine laughs!

This good old sport, Wallingford, with the peculiar financial twist, has become the most whimsical, humorous, absolutely real character of our literature and this new advent of Wallingford will be a great affair to all America.

George Randolph Chester, creator of the famous "Wallingford," whose facile pen these many years has created careers aplenty for J. Rufus, has now completed a combination of moving pictures and stories, to appear under the title of

THE NEW ADVENTURES OF MLUNGFOR

Collaborating with Mr. Chester is Charles W. Goddard, dramatic

"The Perils of Pauline"

"The Exploits of Elaine" "The Goddess"

those greatest motion picture classics of all history. Mr. Goddard's hold on the public's tastes and whims which he has satisfied better than any man who ever made a motion picture, is greater today. And his Wallingford pictures will outrank his past successes tremendously,will outrank "Elaine" and "Pauline."

Do you think that Wallingford's Herring Farm idea was amusing? Come read and see the first of his new adventures wherein he makes a fortune in ready-built houses!

Wallingford has blossomed to reality in great Pathe motion pictures, under the direction of Wharton Bros., who made "Elaine" and "Pauline." The name part is taken by Burr McIntosh, who is a master of a player, while Blackie Daw is none other than Max Figman. Lolita Robertson plays Violet superbly.

You must not miss these Pathe Pictures distributed

And you must surely read the story.

SUNDAY IN THE OMAHA BEE

Come, you readers of the Cosmopolitan Magazine who have known these many years this jovial fellow, this Robin Hood of modern times. Come all you who have heard the name and marvelled at Wallingford's ideas and exploits.

Come all you who have known George Randolph Chester's scintillating tales.

Come all you who have loved "Elaine" and "Pauline."

Here's our greatest series.