Coffee Market. NEW YORK, Oct. 11.-The market for coffee futures was steadler today and prices regained several points of their recent losses, with March contracts sell-ing up to 6.5% and May to 6.5%. Trad-ing was not general, but there seemed to be some Wall street buying after the recent decline, and the market onened at an advance of 1 to 6 points. Offer-ings were evidently limited and it did not require a great deal of demand to cause further gains with the closing at a net dvance of 10 to 15 points. Sales, 18,500 bass: October, 6.2%; November, deter December, 6.7%; January, 5.81c; February, 6.5%; March, 6.4%, 6.40c; August, 6.6%; Beptember, 6.7%.  Owing to the unevenness of Tiesday's trade it is difficult to make comparisons teday, but as a general thing values look 5010c lower than yesterday's average, closing weak at the decline. Yesterday a break at Chicago, shile having no apparent influence on the local trade at that time, had its effect today, and with just a fair run here buyers were able to take values down eeveral points. As has been pointed out of late, prices are abnormally high, and sellers have been looking for the break that came today as soon as supplies became more liberal.

Teeding lambs were as a general thing of just fair quality, and trade wasn't so lively as on Monday or Tuesday. Values looked about steady, however, a number of early seles ranging largely at $3.0055.00. An uneven bunch of the choice Kee ine lambs which did not arrive until today went to the same buyer who toos the big end of the shipment yesterday, bring-ing $3.50.
